Tuesday, October 17, 2017

NEW PALTZ, N.Y. >> The 6th annual Hudson Valley Green Building Expo is scheduled from 5 to 8 p.m. Oct. 19, at the SUNY New Paltz Benjamin Center at the Student Union.

Expected attendees, including industry professionals, executives, community members and students, will gather for networking and learning about the pioneers involved in sustainable building in the region. Presented by the U.S. Green Building Council New York Upstate Chapter, the event will showcase the available green building products and services in the Hudson Valley region, and is free with pre-registration.

The conference will feature education sessions, as well as presentations from local companies and organizations leading the green building sector in upstate New York. The mission of the expo is to expand the green economy by connecting buyers and sellers of green materials and services, while raising awareness of the growing industry.

For more information, visit the Hudson Valley Green Building Expo registration site at https://goo.gl/qbBxmZ.