Financial Support Statement

The United States Immigration Service requires all students applying for an F-1 Student Visa to show proof of funds for the cost of their studies and stay in the U.S.

A bank statement or letter from the bank is acceptable. Please get two copies of any statement...one for our school and one to use when you visit the US Embassy to request your visa.

The document must include the name of the person who has the account, and the name of the bank.

The amount of support must meet or surpass the full cost of our program. For costs of the HELP program, please refer to our website:

<http://www.newpaltz.edu/esl/fees.html> .

Included in the total expenses are all program fees, books, housing, meals, insurance and personal expenses needed for daily life.

How will you pay for these expenses? Please check the appropriate box(es) below and follow the instructions.

- Personal Savings.
 Family. Relation to applicant: _____
 Sponsor. Name of sponsor: _____

Include a statement from the organization or sponsor that verifies they will pay for your expenses.

I understand that I am required by the United States government to have the necessary funds for the HELP program at SUNY New Paltz. I have the required funds available. I am attaching bank statement(s) issued in the past three months. I understand that SUNY New Paltz does not offer financial aid or work, to pay these costs.
