AGENDA

Graduate Council Meeting

Friday, November 8, 2013, 1:00-2:45 pm, HAB 903

1. Approval of Minutes of Friday, October 11, 2013

2. Announcements:

3. Unfinished Business from the previous meeting
   - Continued review of appeal initiated by student in Communication Disorders
   - Continued discussion of Independent Studies - Should we strictly enforce the policy to restrict the number of Independent Studies that a graduate student can take?
   - Further review of online course proposals from School of Business for review and approval
     BUS528 Marketing Management
     BUS539 Personal Financial Planning
   - Other matters?

New Business

4. Discussion of Non-Matriculated Graduate Student Application & Fee Proposal
   Exploration of the ramifications of requiring a non-matriculated graduate student application

5. Review of Advanced Graduate Certificate in Trauma & Disaster Management

6. Minor Course Revision – ARS775 Change in title from Sculpture to Sculpture Projects
   Include – Sculpture (306), Painting/Drawing (303), Printmaking 305, Ceramics (301), & Metal (302)
   Previous Course Description – Projects and individual study in advanced sculpture conceptions and techniques. May be repeated for credit.
   New Course description – Projects and individual studio research in advanced sculpture conceptions and techniques. May be repeated for credit. Students may enroll in Sculpture I and II simultaneously.

Minutes for the 11/08/13 meeting will be taken by Professor Thais DaCunha