COME AS YOU ARE

Reunion 2013 September 20–22

Alumni say the number one reason they attend Reunion is because a classmate or friend asks them. So think about who you'd like to see at New Paltz in September, and then ask them to join you!

All alumni are invited to “come as you are” and participate in their respective academic or affinity events: Business, Education, Fine & Performing Arts, Liberal Arts & Sciences, Science & Engineering, Athletics & Wellness, Educational Opportunity Program (EOP), Scholar’s Mentorship Program (SMP), AMP and C-STEP programs, Black Studies, Latin American & Caribbean Studies, and other programs. Special activities will also honor Class Years ending in 3s and 8s. Of special interest to entertainment and music buffs is a lecture by award-winning author Barbara (Biszick) Lockwood ’80 (page 4). Refer to the Table of Contents for other Reunion highlights.

Reunion is an economical way to reconnect or make new contacts, since it is the single largest gathering of New Paltz alumni at any time of the year with early-bird pricing for everyone. Many activities are offered free of charge, and we’ve tried to control costs for events where there’s a charge. Be sure to register in advance (online or using the enclosed form) to qualify for the Early Bird discount and so we can plan for your participation, including having enough discount coupons and give-away items when you arrive at check-in.

Plans are underway and logistics are being finalized, with complete details and the latest information posted online, including which Faculty and Staff members are expected to be in attendance. So be sure to regularly check for updates at <http://www.newpaltz.edu/alumni/reunion/> and start “inviting” your friends today!

LANTERN SOCIETY DINNER

6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Program includes 3 course meal, complimentary wine, beer, soft drinks throughout ceremony.

The Lantern Society Induction Dinner has become a Reunion tradition, commemorating the historic student events of Lantern Night and the Moving Up Day Ceremony established in 1929. While the old-time student events held on campus recognized the achievements of current students, the Lantern Society commemorates golden anniversary alumni. This Reunion event inducts the Class of 1963 and those from previous years who have not yet received their Lantern Society medallion, honoring all alumni who graduated from New Paltz 50 or more years ago. The Reunion event ties back to the former campus event, at which all classes held a mass practice and sang their original humorous songs, concluding with a symbolic Moving Up and Honor Convocation.

“STAR STRUCK” OBSERVATORY VIEWING

8:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Note: This is a weather permitting event – please read below.*

If the weather is clear, please join us for star and planet gazing at the Muriel and Jack Smolen Observatory, which boasts several telescopes for your viewing pleasure. A typical night will include planets, star clusters, binary stars and nebulae. Telescope viewings can only take place when the sky is clear; call the observatory at (845) 257-1110 to hear a message indicating if the viewing has been canceled due to poor viewing conditions.

REUNION GIVING PROGRAM

During Reunion, many alumni reflect on what New Paltz has meant to them, the role it's played in their life, and the promise it offers today's students. As a result, alumni often ask what they can do to give back to the campus in support of its faculty and staff, academic and special programs, and current students who need assistance. Thus, in addition to their talents and service as volunteers, advisers, speakers or connectors, many alumni see Reunion as a time to make an initial or additional financial contribution.

The Reunion Giving Program provides many options for making your gift, your way. For example, you can give in honor of your class, affinity group, faculty member, coach, classmate, or family member. Your donation can support the Fund for New Paltz for areas of greatest need or specific programs.

Give today in any of these ways. Donate online at www.newpaltz.edu/gift, respond to your Class Gift letter when it arrives in the mail, or call the Annual Giving Office at 845-257-3239. Your financial support helps New Paltz maintain its prominence, adding to the value of your degree, so please consider a gift -- or additional gift -- today.

LOCATING LOST ALUMNI

Alumni come to Reunion to reconnect with classmates and friends, so to help include everyone, the Office of Alumni Relations seeks alumni assistance in locating those for whom current contact information is no longer available.

The process is easy:

- (1) Go to www.newpaltz.edu/alumni/lost.cfm
- (2) Search by Class Year, Last Name or Maiden/Birth Name
- (3) For alumni listed with whom you're in contact, please send the contact information to the Alumni Office or ask those alumni to update the Alumni Office by emailing alumni@newpaltz.edu or calling 845-257-3230 or 1-877-HAWK-001, option #1 (toll free)

CONNECTING WITH FACULTY

Alumni often want to reconnect with retired or current faculty members, advisers, and coaches when returning to New Paltz. If there's someone you want to see at Reunion, the best approach is to send a personal invitation to connect at a particular Reunion event or set up an appointment.

The process is easy:

- (1) Search by Name or Department using the online directory at <http://www.newpaltz.edu/directory>
- (2) Use the online directory for direct contact, or send a Reunion connection request to the Alumni Office at alumni@newpaltz.edu
- (3) For personal invitations or connecting through the Alumni Office, include your current name, name when enrolled at New Paltz (if different), class year(s), major(s), email address, phone number, and when you're available to meet during Reunion
- (4) Reach out as soon as possible to allow enough time to make the connection
