Careers In Asian Studies

Sample Job Titles (some of the following titles may require additional education)

- Legislative Assistant
- Industrial Relations Representative
- Marketing Manager
- Financial Analyst/Manager
- Director of Government Affairs
- Grant Writer
- Historian
- Legal Aid
- Librarian
- Museum Technicians and Conservator
- Preservation and Conservation
- Policy Analyst

Our Graduates...Where Are They Now?

Alumni who graduated in the past 1 to 5 years have obtained employment as:

- Financial Representative at Northwestern Mutual
- Legislative Coordinator, Office of New York State Assembly
- David L. Boren Fellow, South Asian Flagship Language Institute
- Passport Specialist, United States Department of State
- Commission Coordinator, Massachusetts Commission on LGBTQ
- Account Executive Trainee, Yelp

Alumni who graduated in the past 6 to 10 years have obtained employment as:

- Licensed Real Estate Salesperson, William Raveis Real Estate
- Industrial Relations Representative, E. & J. Gallo Winery
- Senior Program Associate, Government Affairs - Advanced Medical Technology Association
- Marketing Coordinator, HomeTrust Bank
- Senior Treasury Analyst, Sumitomo Corporation of Americas
- Global Assignment Consultant, SIRVA Worldwide Relocation and Moving

Alumni who graduated over 10 years ago have obtained employment as:

- Co-Founder & Managing Partner, Soleil Global Advisors LLC
- Assistant Director, The City of New York Mayor’s Office of Operations
- Associate Director of Government Affairs, Toyota Motor North America, Inc.
- Senior Program Manager, Breakthrough (US human rights group)

...In addition, alumni have completed the following graduate programs:

- Monterey Institute of International Studies, M.A., Commercial Diplomacy
- Cornell University, M.P.A., Human Resource Management
- Columbia University, M.A., Contemporary Japanese Feminism
- European University at St. Petersburg, M.A., Russian and Eurasian Studies
- Queens College, Masters of Library and Information Science