

DIRECTIONS TO SUNY NEW PALTZ – SPEECH, LANGUAGE AND HEARING CENTER (HUMANITIES BUILDING)

From the North, South, and West: Take the NYS Thruway (I-87) to Exit 18. Turn left at the light after the toll booth onto Rt. 299 and proceed approximately 1.2 miles into New Paltz.

From the East/Mid-Hudson Bridge: Take the first exit after the bridge onto Rt. 9W North. Stay on Rt. 9W approximately 2.5 miles, then turn left onto Rt. 299. Continue approximately 6.2 miles into New Paltz.

Rev. 8-2015

**See next page for directions to handicapped parking and entrance

Handicapped parking: Please use a handicapped parking space if you have a New York State permit or license plate that allows you to do so. The Center is not responsible for tickets received when using a handicapped parking space illegally.

Designated parking: There are designated clinic visitor parking spaces near the building entrance. If none of those spaces are available, proceed further down the lot until you find a space.

Parking permit: Display the orange client parking permit on your dashboard when you park. If you do not display the parking permit, and you are ticketed by campus police, you will be required to pay the fine. Please notify the department secretary right away if you receive a parking ticket.

Entering the building:

- At the street level building entrance, there is a blue sign for the Speech, Language & Hearing Center. Go through that entrance and up one flight of stairs. Proceed to the department office, room 14A, a few doors down the hall on the left.
- At the handicapped entrance, go through the double doors into the Jacobson Faculty Tower and turn right. Go through the single door at the end of the hall. Continue down the hall into the Humanities building and turn right at the end. Proceed to the department office, room 14A, about halfway down on the right.
