Getting to SUNY New Paltz

Pre-Arrival Preparation

- ✓ Health information must be completed. Available at:
<http://www.newpaltz.edu/healthcenter/healthrpt.pdf>
- ✓ Send Residence Hall License, Attendance Response Form, and Health Form. A faxed or scanned copy is fine for these forms. We do need originals of the health form, TOEFL, and financial documents.

Getting to SUNY New Paltz

- ✓ Classes for Spring 2010 begin on January 25 and end on May 20 (see online academic calendar: <http://www.newpaltz.edu/events/academic.cfm>).
- ✓ You should plan to arrive at JFK on Wednesday, January 20. Orientation will be held over the next few days.
- ✓ The module classes start on May 26 and end on June 30; we will arrange transportation to the airport on July 1.

Academic Policies (available on the website)

- ✓ You must have a minimum GPA of 1.9 to come to SUNY New Paltz.
- ✓ New students must maintain a cGPA of 2.00 for economics and 2.70 for business. Students who fall below these levels will be put on academic probation. The cGPA must be raised to the appropriate level the following semester to avoid dismissal.

Studying at SUNY New Paltz

Orientation, Course Registration and the Start of Classes

- ✓ Orientation for new students will be held starting on January 20. New students will receive student ID cards (which you should keep for the duration of your study at New Paltz), computer and phone accounts. All students will pay bills and finalize course schedules.
- ✓ Meet with advisors: Dean Hadi Salavitabar (Business) or Dr. Hamid Azari (Economics).
- ✓ Spring class schedule will be available on-line at www.newpaltz.edu or check your schedule at my.newpaltz.edu.

Academic Policies

- ✓ A minimum grade of C- must be earned in all business courses. A minimum grade of D- counts toward the completion of the GE classes (and most economics classes).
- ✓ Failed classes must be retaken which may extend your time in the program. You may be responsible for paying for the costs of any additional courses.
- ✓ Withdrawn or dropped business classes must be retaken at New Paltz; you must have greater than a 3.0 GPA to take extra classes in business.

Other Policies

- Smoking is not allowed in any campus buildings, including the residence halls.
- Students are responsible for cleaning their own rooms, although the bathrooms will be cleaned by staff.
- Talking in class is perceived as very disrespectful to the professors.
- Some professors have mandatory attendance policies which can affect your grade (check the syllabus for each course).

- We're here to help you adjust to campus, so please feel free to ask for help or answers.

We'll see you in January!
