THREE electives in English (9 credits):

In consultation with your advisor, choose THREE electives offered (or cross-listed) by the English Department. At least TWO must be in literature at the 400-level. All 400-level literature courses require a 300-level introductory course (see above) in the relevant area.

Students who transfer any of the 300-level introductory courses at 3-credits per course will be required to take an additional elective to compensate for the missing credits. Students must complete a total of 20 credits in English.
