

WANT TO STUDY
PEOPLE & PLACES?

HERE'S HOW:

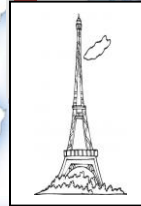

What jobs can you get with this kind of major in GEOGRAPHY?

Travel agent International business analyst
Humanitarian and NGO relief worker & fundraiser
Instructor of English as a Second Language
Environmental Educator Cartographer
Regional or Environmental Planner

Visit www.aag.org for more ideas (Association of American Geographers Jobs and Careers page)

See our map and list of New Paltz geography graduates "Geography Graduates Locate Themselves" on the bulletin board outside HUM 310!

Or visit our online list of our graduates' careers

Core Courses for the Geography Major:

GEO274 Environment & Culture: *Learn the basics of how the environment is interrelated with societies, cultures, population growth and urban expansion.

GEO273 Physical Geography: *Study components of the environment and their systems: climate, vegetation biomes, and soils.

GEO252 Economic Geography: *Learn about interrelationships between natural resources and markets, and the economics of our food system.

GEO381 Cartography: Practice making and interpreting maps of all kinds.

GEO383 Intro to GIS: Collect data and plot it with ArcGIS.

*A GE-SSCi course A GE NSCI course

Cognate Requirements

MAT 185 Statistics and Social Policy

GOL205 Environmental Geology

Go one more step
With Study Abroad

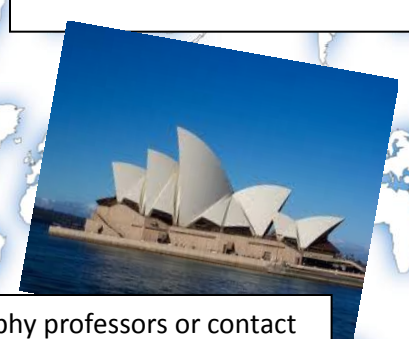

Europe

Asia

Australia

Latin America

Combine with a minor in:

Latin American Studies

Asian Studies

A foreign language

International Relations

Courses in International Business

Geography Electives:

- *World Geography GEO240
- *Cities of the World GEO245
- *Current Issues in Latin American Geography GEO207
- Geography of the US & Canada GEO301 (WI)
- Understanding Latin America GEO307
- Political Geography GEO 403
- And more! *GE WRLD course

Geography can take you there!

For more information, see any of the Geography professors or contact Dr. Greenow, Department Chair, 257-2994 or greenowl@newpaltz.edu.

Visit our website at www.newpaltz.edu/geography