Who are we?

University police officers are fully certified police officers in the State of New York.

Officers are trained to:

- Conduct investigations
- Make arrests
- Issue moving and parking tickets
- Provide emergency first aid
- Provide services just like any other police officer in the state

Who are we? (cont'd)

- The New York State University Police (NYSUP) is the law enforcement agency of the State University of New York (SUNY) system. Approximately 500 uniformed officers, investigators, and supervisors serve the 28 state college and university campuses throughout the state.
- State University Police Officers are charged with crime detection and prevention, in addition to the enforcement of state and local laws, rules, and regulations. As part of the unit's prevention activities, officers speak on topics such as sexual assault, drugs, crime prevention and traffic safety.
- Officers are responsible for developing and maintaining a positive relationship with students, faculty, and staff in order to ensure safety and facilitate cooperation within the campus community.
