The English Graduate Program offers a thorough grounding in literary history and theory in preparation for advanced work at the doctoral level, careers in secondary or community college teaching, and other professional opportunities. The program grants the Master of Arts (MA) degree, and in conjunction with the School of Education, the Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) degree, a joint MA/MAT degree, and the Master of Science in Teaching (MSEd) degree.

The Program

Students follow a structured plan of study comprising 30 credits of coursework in English for the MA, 12 credits in English for the MAT, and 15 credits in English for the MSEd. To accommodate part-time students, most graduate courses are offered in the late afternoon or evening.

Admission Requirements

The entrance requirements for the Master of Arts Program in English (204) are

- One official copy of a baccalaureate transcript from a regionally accredited institution with at least 36 credits in English, exclusive of freshman composition. (Applicants who present fewer than 36 undergraduate credits in English may remedy this deficiency by taking additional courses as recommended by the English graduate committee.)
- A 3.0 overall cumulative undergraduate grade point average. (Applicants whose undergraduate grade point average in English is less than 3.0 may be admitted on the basis of GRE scores.)
- A sample of the applicant’s critical writing, either one or two essays totaling about 10 pages in length.
- International applicants must provide an internet-based TOEFL score of at least 85. GREs are recommended.
Application Procedures

Students may select to apply online or via paper application. The English department begins reviewing applications in the fall semester on March 1st and for the spring semester on October 1st.
