The Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) with a discipline in English is a 48 credit program designed specifically for college graduates holding an appropriate liberal arts degree in English who have not had formal background in education and who wish to prepare for a teaching career in adolescence education grades 7-12.

Upon successful completion of the program, candidates will be recommended to the New York State Education Department for Initial/Professional Certification.

Admission Requirements

The basic requirements for admission to a graduate program are:

- a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution with a major GPA of a 3.0 or better
- 1 copy of all official transcripts (including transfer schools)
- 3 letters of recommendation
- a graduate admission essay
- satisfactory GRE scores

For the MAT program, the applicant’s undergraduate major must be comparable in breadth, depth and rigor to the New Paltz undergraduate major in the same field, including:

- 6 credits in a foreign language at a beginning level or 3 credits at an intermediate or advanced level. American Sign Language (ASL) is considered a language other than English.
- Undergraduate course work that includes two English composition courses or their equivalent, each with a grade of at least B.
Application Procedures

Students may select to apply online or via paper application. Review of applications for the fall semester begin March 1st. Review of applications for the spring semester will begin October 1st. Late applications may be considered; however, applicants should contact the graduate coordinator before submitting their application.

To apply, submit the following items to the Graduate School in ONE COMPLETE PACKET:

1. A signed application (paper applications) or a signature page (online applications)
2. All undergraduate transcripts, including schools with transfer credits in sealed envelopes
3. One essay stating intent and objective of your graduate studies
4. Three letters of recommendation in sealed envelopes
5. Satisfactory GRE scores

Please note: Applicants seeking the MAT English degree must also submit an academic writing sample, preferably literary analysis from an English course, though research work from other liberal arts courses, such as history, is acceptable. The writing sample may be one longer paper (10 pages) or two shorter papers (totaling 10 pages). The sample need not have instructor comments or grades.

If you have questions about the application process or the programs offered, please contact the Graduate School at (845) 257-3947 or gradschool@newpaltz.edu.
