An honor guard from the United States Marine Corps carries the symbolic flag-draped coffin of Lance Cpl. Samuel Sharp at Arlington National Cemetery yesterday in Arlington, Va. Sharp and three other men died 38 years ago on Hill 665 near Khe Sanh, Vietnam, in a battle with North Vietnamese troops. Sharp was buried last month in San Jose, Calif. The coffins of Petty Officer Malcolm Thomas Miller, 2nd Lt. Heinz Ahlmeyer and Sgt. James Tycz are in the foreground.
