

Goals of the P-16 Initiative

- To increase field and student teaching opportunities for students in education programs;
- To sponsor a conference for high school students in order to communicate the high demand areas in teacher education;
- To address concerns about the transition of students between high school and college;
- To increase the number of students with diverse backgrounds entering teacher preparation programs.