Why are you interested in the department(s) you chose?

What experience do you have in the department(s) you chose?

WNPC-TV is always looking for new programming. If you have an idea for a new show, please describe it below, and indicate how long you imagine the show running. Also, please state why you think students at SUNY New Paltz would be interested in watching this show.

Do you have any people already interested in helping you? Or do you need help looking for a staff? Approximately, how many people will you need to work with you?

Do you have any previous television production/editing experience?
