Discussion at SUNY New Paltz Sept. 28 focuses on deer management, ethics of hunting

Wednesday, August 30, 2017

NEW PALTZ, N.Y. >> The Benjamin Center for Public Policy and Mohonk Preserve will present a panel discussion on deer management and the ethics of hunting at SUNY New Paltz on Thursday, Sept. 28, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the College Terrace.

The panel will build upon The Benjamin Center's 2016 brief, "The Hunt for Balance," written by Brent Miller, an alumnus of the college now working as northeastern states director for the Congressional Sportsmen's Foundation.

The panel will be chaired by David Elstein, who has an interest in environmental ethics and chairs the Department of Philosophy. Comments will be offered by SUNY New Paltz president and Mohonk Preserve board member Don Christian; a wildlife biologist; and SUNY New Paltz professor emeritus of biology and preserve board member Carol Rietsma.

To reserve a seat, email benjamincenter@newpaltz.edu.
