

ADVISING AT NEW PALTZ

Your enrollment deposit is paid, now what?

First, complete your online orientation modules, including Advising & Registration.

Undeclared First Year and Transfer Students

Your advisor will assist with registration during orientation and further educational planning when the semester begins.

Transfer Students Declared in a Major

Most students will complete at least two semesters before declaring a major. Your advisor will help you explore your options.

After you complete the Advising and Registration module, an advisor will assist with course selection and registration for Fall 2021.

You will work with your academic department's orientation advisor for advisement in the major.

When the semester begins, you will be assigned a major advisor who will provide advisement until graduation.

When you formally declare a major, you will be assigned a major advisor who will provide advisement until graduation.

1. Students who are assigned an academic advisor with the Center for Student Success's Office of Academic Advising (OAA) will remain connected with their OAA advisor as a general advisee after they declare a major. Transfer students declared in a major will also be connected to an OAA advisor as a general advisee.
2. Students in the Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) are advised by EOP staff.
3. Students enrolled in a business major are advised by the Center for Business Advising.
