Staatsburg, NY 12580  http://andersoncenterforautism.org

The Anderson Center for Autism (ACA) story begins in 1924 and progresses through decades of transformation. For 90 years, our sole purpose has been to support people with special needs. We remain dedicated to enriching our services, while vigilantly preparing for the future. Our history  Dr. V.V. Anderson founded Anderson School in 1924 as a prep school offering a specialized educational model. Autism, our specialty  Anderson opened its first group home for three individuals with autism in 1977. (In the 1960’s and 70’s, there were 5 cases of autism per 10,000 children.

Today, autism affects 1 in every 68 American children including 1 in 54 boys). In our first two years, the number of children in the Anderson Autism Program multiplied tenfold (30) and in ten years, it multiplied twentyfold (72). Today we support 300 individuals through our core residential and day program and these services are rapidly expanding. We are proud to be New York State’s exceptional “go to” agency for addressing people presenting with some of the most challenging issues related to autism.

Historic Huguenot Street (HHS) is a 10-acre National Historic Landmark District that preserves and interprets seven historic stone houses, a 1717 reconstructed French church, and the community's original burial ground. Twelve French Huguenot refugees founded this community in 1677 when they traded various goods for 40,000 acres of land, which they acquired from the Lenape: a Native American tribe who had settled there for thousands of years prior to European contact. Today, Huguenot Street features the most significant, intact architecture concentration of late 17th and early 18th century stone houses in the United States.

Luminary Media began documenting the organic, steady growth throughout New York’s Hudson Valley in the summer of 1993. Our goal was to nourishing and support the creative and cultural life here. And while documenting a wide range of happenings through the lense of Chronogram magazine, we not only found our own voice, but began acting as a catalyst for positive social change. Since then, we’ve added the regional title, Explore The Hudson Valley; the stunning homes, captivating design and jaw-dropping real estate opportunities within Upstate House; and the excitement around arriving in the country for millennials (in actuality or at heart) with Upstater magazine. Each publication has it’s own dedicated digital property, with rapidly growing social media voicing that reaches well beyond the New York region. Luminary Media has grown in the last 3 years to add a full-service creative marketing & media agency. This division conceptualizes digital content (web, video, sales & marketing collateral) as well as publishes custom print publications for multiple clients. These include retail, travel & tourism, economic development alliances, restaurant, farm, technology, manufacturing, arts and other sectors. Luminary Media’s mission is to strategically disseminate media and create live events that nourish and support the creative life of our region. We aim to demonstrate this paradigm of creativity in action to spread positive messaging in like-minded markets around the world.

REVA develops creative art experiences that educate, inspire and heal people and communities. REVA was formed in 2016 by Jessica Jones to house her education and performance activities and has grown to include consulting, publishing and other services. This year we are focusing on two educational initiatives while expanding our performance component. Our team is growing as the vision begins to manifest. Tenor saxophonist/pianist/composer Jessica Jones is an innovative jazz educator and consultant, working with children on improvisation, composition, and oral traditions for national and international cultural organizations. Ms. Jones’ zeal for creating accessible music programs for youth led to her partnering with various organizations to found and direct music programs. These include jazz and songwriting camps and programs for kids, facilitated by the City of Oakland Cultural Arts Department, the National Council on Crime and Delinquency, Jazz Camp West, and Jazz at Lincoln Center among others. Through REVA, a wider constituency can be reached, and more programs can be launched to further access to arts education. On the performance side, REVA houses several projects including the innovative two-tenor jazz group Jessica Jones Quartet; the opera in progress “Post Pardon” by poet Arisa White with music by Jessica Jones; JONES, a family band featuring adventurous takes on classic and original vocal jazz by Candace Jones; and Tony Jones’ Trio project with violinist Charlie Burnham and percussionist Kenny Wollesen.

We’ve never forgotten that uncompromising service excellence is what our customers have relied on for generations. We also better serve our customers by not outsourcing our decision making to an out of state, remote corporate headquarters. Everyday, we make decisions on residential mortgages, construction loans, and commercial mortgages that help keep our community and local economy moving forward. We not only have the right banking products to meet the needs of our community, but we have the right people too. When you come right down to it, a bank is only as good as the people providing the services you need. Rhinebeck Bank has grown successfully for over 156 years because we’ve never lost sight of the importance of taking care of you and your family. It’s just what we do. Rhinebeck Bank invests deeply into the communities we serve and provides charitable support for over 200 local, non-profit organizations annually. Throughout this time Trustco Bank has remained true to core banking principles and did not get caught up in any of the latest banking fads that have caused so many other banks to close their doors over the years. In 2002, the company began a large expansion, opening over 80 new branches in Central Florida, Massachusetts, downstate New York, New Jersey, and Vermont. Today, Trustco Bank has 145 branch locations, 51 of which are in the state of Florida.

Youth Mission Outreach is a non-profit organization that is located in the heart of Poughkeepsie, NY. Our name is very symbolic of who we are: Youth – the population we serve, Mission – we have a mission to accomplish and Outreach – we are reaching out to the children and families in our neighborhood as well as training them to reach out to others. Our heart is to serve the community and we accomplish that by providing safe and loving programs that meet the needs of our youth. While each program differs in the service they provide, they all hold fast to our belief: we can inspire change through relationships.
