ALMA MATER

*In a valley fair and beautiful
Guarded well by mount and hill
Beats a heart whose pulse is rich and full
Of life, and pow'r, and thrill.
We love thee, Alma Mater dear.
To thee our hearts are true.
And we'll sing with voices strong and clear
To the Orange and the Blue.
New Paltz, forever our Alma Mater,
We raise our song to thee.
The hills re-echo with glad crescendo
Our praises full and free.*

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

LILY D. McNAIR

Lily D. McNair's first higher ed teaching position was in the SUNY New Paltz Department of Psychology, and she has enjoyed 30-plus years of tremendous professional success and recognition since that initial role. Most recently she served as the eighth president in the history of Tuskegee University, a private, historically Black institution in Alabama. She was the first woman to lead the university in its 138-year history. Prior to her presidency at Tuskegee, McNair held roles as provost and senior vice president for academic affairs at Wagner College; associate provost for research and professor of psychology at Spelman College; and associate professor of psychology at University of Georgia, where she was the first African American woman to obtain tenure and promotion in the department. As a faculty member in the Department of Psychology at SUNY New Paltz, McNair was a valued mentor to students at a time when there were relatively few faculty of color at the College. She played a vital role in shaping the Scholar's Mentorship Program, which has grown over the decades to become a model in the SUNY system for supporting high retention and graduation rates of students of color. McNair's husband, George W. Roberts, Ph.D., also held his first academic position in the Department of Black Studies at SUNY New Paltz. "This is a special moment for me — to be recognized by SUNY New Paltz, where I started my academic career, and a place I call home. I look forward to speaking with our newest graduates in Liberal Arts and Sciences, and giving them the congratulations that they so rightly deserve."

ED CARROLL '85

Ed Carroll '85 (Communication & Media) served for more than 30 years with AMC Networks, playing a central role in introducing original shows including "Breaking Bad," "Better Call Saul," "Mad Men," "Killing Eve," and "The Walking Dead." Carroll is among the most engaged alumni in the SUNY New Paltz community, a SUNY New Paltz Foundation Board Director who has supported students and the institution for many years. He has returned to campus frequently to lend his expertise and speak with students in the Communication and Digital Media & Journalism programs, and has also hosted alumni engagement events in his home, helped establish an advisory council for the Digital Media & Journalism program, and was a featured speaker for the College's Distinguished Speaker Series. A longtime friend and supporter of his alma mater, Carroll met his wife, Gina '86 (Communication Studies), while they were undergraduates here, and together they created the Edward A. Carroll and Gina O'Brien-Carroll Experiential Scholarship, which supports honors students pursuing engaged learning activities outside the classroom. "It is both gratifying and humbling to be recognized by President Christian and SUNY for this honor," Carroll said. "What seemed like a random decision three decades ago to attend SUNY New Paltz (Stony Brook was too close, Albany too far...) in retrospect was a truly pivotal decision in my life."

EVERTON H. HENRIQUES '78 '83g

Everton H. Henriques '78 '83g (Chemistry) is an engineer, entrepreneur, chemist, inventor, manufacturing consultant, business executive, philanthropist and long-time supporter and friend of SUNY New Paltz. Henriques boasts more than four decades of experience in research and development in manufacturing. He currently serves as the New York Manufacturing Extension Partnership Solutions Director at FuzeHub, a non-profit organization that connects small and mid-sized manufacturing companies to the services they need to grow. He is also president and founder of E.H. Hall, a consulting and supplier firm. Henriques is a dedicated and highly involved member of the campus community. He is an enthusiastic presence at campus-wide celebrations like Commencement and Convocation, and also frequently volunteers his time at student-focused programs and networking events. Henriques is a member of the SUNY New Paltz Foundation Development Committee, and previously served as a Foundation Board director for more than 15 years, among many other contributions. He and his wife, alumna Jeannie Irvine '78 (Mathematics), have made substantial philanthropic gifts to the College, including the establishment and support of 10 endowments benefitting students across academic programs. Their family is part of a legacy tradition at the College, as their children, Everton I. Henriques '10g (Adolescence Education) and Jeannie I. Henriques '08 (Accounting), are proud New Paltz alumni. "When I met with President Christian to discuss this honor, I was deeply touched in a way that I could not express in words at the time," Henriques said. "I was extremely humbled that I would be considered for selection by people and by an institution that I have a lot of love and respect for. I've always identified this campus as a home away from home for me and also my children, and I'm deeply grateful for the honor."

MACE & CHAIN

THE mace and chain of office were designed and created in 1981 by the late Professor Kurt J. Matzdorf, internationally known gold and silversmith and founder of the university's gold and silversmith program, now known as the Metal Program.

THESE two important insignia were donated to the University by the Alumni Association and the SUNY New Paltz Foundation.

THE mace is 38 inches long and is made of sterling silver, acrylic and rosewood. The lower end of the mace is made in the shape of a space capsule and carries the gold-plated seal of the State University of New York. The rosewood shaft, with four bands of sterling silver, is surmounted by an incised inscription, State University of New York, which supports the head of the mace. The head of the mace displays six scenes that summarize the academic activities of the college in sterling silver low relief against a blue acrylic background. Above the head, from an incised inscription reading "The College at New Paltz," arises a flame in blue and orange acrylic (the SUNY New Paltz colors) symbolizing the enlightenment to be gained from higher education.

THE presidential chain of office is 45 inches long. It consists of 10 fields of blue acrylic framed in sterling silver shaped like the contour of the head of the mace. These alternate with nine apples in red and green acrylic framed in silver indicating the principal non-academic product of the New Paltz community. The four links in the back of the chain carry the SUNY logo in sterling silver relief.

ORIGINALLY, there were six blue links on the front of the chain corresponding to the sterling silver reliefs on the mace. Each link represents Education, Humanities and Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Fine Arts, Performing Arts, and Graduate programs, respectively. In 2002, two blue links were added representing Engineering and Business, acknowledging the School of Science and Engineering and the School of Business. The medallion displays the gold-plated seal of the State University of New York surrounded by an incised inscription, "The College at New Paltz," against a blue acrylic background. It hangs from a center link that shows the date New Paltz was converted from an academy to a normal school, 1885.

ACADEMIC COSTUME & PROCESSION

ACADEMIC gowns represent a tradition that dates back to medieval Britain. When Oxford University was founded in the 12th century, the chancellors of the institution were representatives of the bishop. For this reason, students and faculty wore clerical garb. This eventually evolved into the familiar cap and gown. The tradition of wearing academic costumes was continued in America with the founding of colonial colleges.

EXPERTS differ on the origin of the “mortarboard” cap. Originally round, it later became square. Some say that the square shape represents a scholar’s books, while others argue that it was derived from the master workman’s mortarboard. Others say this was patterned after the quadrangular Oxford campus.

AMERICAN academic costume was standardized in 1895, with the issuing of a code of dress by Intercollegiate Commission. The code sets the styling standards for bachelor’s, master’s and doctor’s robes, and provides a color code for the hood, which identifies the degree and the institution granting the degree. The color of the border indicates the field of study, and the lining is in the official color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. As you look out across the faculty participating in today’s ceremony, you will see the various colors that represent the degrees they have received.

OUR academic procession follows what is considered to be a traditional order: The candidates for all graduate degrees are followed by the Faculty. The Faculty Grand Marshal will lead the platform party and the President of the College.

FOR all academic purposes, including trimmings of doctors’ gowns, edging of hoods, and tassels of caps, the colors associated with the different disciplines are as follows:

Arts, Letters, Humanities	White
Commerce, Accountancy, Business	Drab
Economics	Copper
Education	Light Blue
Engineering	Orange
Fine Arts	Brown
Journalism	Crimson
Music	Pink
Nursing	Apricot
Philosophy	Blue
Science	Golden Yellow
Social Work	Citron

MASTER HOODS AND TASSEL COLORS:

Certificate of Advanced Study	Light Blue
Master of Arts	White
Master of Arts in Art Studio	White
Master of Arts in Teaching	Light Blue
Master of Business Administration	Light Brown
Master of Fine Arts	Dark Brown
Master of Professional Studies	Light Blue
Master of Science	Gold
Master of Science in Education	Light Blue
Master of Science for Teachers	Light Blue

PHOTOS & ETIQUETTE

TAKING PHOTOS

Today is a special day for everyone, and we're all proud of our graduates. By sitting down immediately after you photograph your student or staying clear of the procession route and stage, you will not be blocking the view of your fellow guests. SUNY New Paltz thanks you in advance for this act of kindness.

STUDENT ETIQUETTE

This is a special day for all graduates, family, and friends. Please help us honor all members of this year's graduating class by encouraging your student to stay through the entire commencement ceremony. This expectation is a courtesy to all students, especially those whose names are called later in the program.
