Elective Courses—12 credits

FOUR courses in literature offered by the English Department, as follows :

- At least TWO of these courses must be 400 or 500 level.
- All 400 and 500-level courses require at least one 300-level survey course in the relevant area of study (i.e. English Literature 1 or 2 for courses in English literature).
- All 500-level courses are open by permission of instructor only.
- Students are advised to consult regularly with both their English and Elementary Education advisors as they select elective courses.
- Note: transfer students may have to take more than 12 credits of electives in order to compensate for 3-credit survey courses (as opposed to our 4-credit courses) taken elsewhere. All students must obtain at least 31 credits.
