Avery Nimblette
Owner
MSM Services, Inc. dba Green Valley Landscaping

Avery Nimblette graduated with a bachelor’s degree in business economics and accounting from Grenada National College. As a former educator, he taught high school and continuing adult education at a local college.

Avery later took a position at General Motors (GM) as an engineer. He later found his way to New York. Sometimes working two or three jobs, he was employed as a dishwasher, barber, security guard, and night auditor at a hotel. When Avery learned that the hotel was searching for a landscaper, he found himself inspired by the opportunity to start his own business.

As a solo entrepreneur in 2000, Avery launched his successful Kingston-based landscaping business, which has steadily grown into a multi-million-dollar company. Avery also currently buys and sells real estate, and has dabbled in fast food franchises and restaurants, making himself a diversified business man.

Avery is an active dad to his three children, and he credits his success and strength to his wife. Melody, has always supported and believed in Avery and his dreams.
