ABOUT OUR BRAND

On a daily basis, the State University of New York at New Paltz competes for attention with other academic institutions in a world filled with marketing messages from a wide variety and large number of businesses and organizations, both for-profit and non-profit. Reaching our students, supporters and contributors can be quite a challenge. How do we establish our place in the market?

One way is to project a consistent and clear identity—our brand. Simply put, a brand identity is the sum total of all perceived information about us as communicated through our various messages—it is a marketing and communication tool. Every communication, including our name and related marks, contributes to building our brand identity.

This guide has been developed to help us achieve a consistent identity across all communication vehicles as we reflect the essence of the institution, the strength of our offerings and the quality of our programs. The consistent application of these standards will help ensure that your communication vehicle contributes to a unified image that benefits New Paltz through improved awareness, recognition and professional appearance.

BRAND POSITIONING STATEMENT

Our unusually wide array of professional and liberal arts majors fosters a rich academic milieu in which students, selected through a competitive admissions process, can develop to their highest potential.

OUR BRAND PROMISE

New Paltz has crafted a collection of internal brand promise statements that serve to encapsulate for its administration, faculty and staff precisely what the institution can promise to its enrolled students. These promise statements are:

1. We deliver an extraordinary number of majors in Business, Liberal Arts, Sciences and Engineering and are particularly well known for our programs in Fine and Performing Arts and Education.

2. We provide rigorous academics in a highly selective admission environment where students receive and create close personal links with real scholars and artists who love to teach.

3. New Paltz embraces its culture as a community where talented and independent-minded people foster openness, diversity, artistry and creativity.

4. Our geographic location is stunning in its natural beauty, located in the heart of a dynamic college town, 90 minutes from metropolitan New York City.

5. In keeping with the tradition of the nation’s great public universities, New Paltz is linked to the health and vitality of the region, state and nation through the education of its citizens.
NEW PALTZ BRAND

BRAND ATTRIBUTES
The following brand attributes support New Paltz’s overall institutional brand by publicly and prominently highlighting the essential characteristics of the College experience. We developed the attributes based on findings from an internal assessment survey we conducted with current New Paltz students, faculty, staff and administrators in July 2008. We then tested the attributes among prospects, current students (graduate and undergraduate), employees and alumni to determine which attributes should be primary or secondary messages for New Paltz.

A DEGREE...AND AN EDUCATION
New Paltz students earn a degree that opens doors to lifelong career opportunities. With that degree comes an education – a true preparation that goes beyond the piece of paper. It is a New Paltz education, one that retains lifelong relevance through what is required to achieve it: broad and specific knowledge, exposure to differing perspectives, open-minded inquiry and a spirit of inventiveness. This is why two national publications have named New Paltz one of the nation’s top leaders in providing college graduates with the best “return on degree investment” over a lifetime.

ENGAGEMENT THROUGH IMPASSIONED TEACHING
The love of learning and a lifelong passion for intellectual and professional growth come from the experiences a student has in close collaboration with an outstanding faculty. Cited for excellence in both teaching and research by SUNY and national and international organizations (New Paltz has been named one of the nation’s top producers of Fulbright scholars for master’s institutions by the U.S. Department of State), New Paltz faculty challenge, encourage and support students to reach higher, achieve greater, think more broadly and develop skills that serve students well, long after graduation.

CREATIVE ENVIRONMENT OF DISCOVERY
Creativity permeates campus life at New Paltz. The learning atmosphere has an air of imaginative inquiry that bridges all academic endeavors. The faculty encourages students to question, experiment and discover in ways that lead to innovative thinking. Beyond the classroom, students discover the endless possibilities that exist within a diverse community and the opportunities for scholarship and leadership that will serve them well for their future professional and personal lives.

A LOCATION FOR LIFE
SUNY New Paltz is located at the nexus of the best of yesterday, today and tomorrow—a dynamic community in a stunning natural setting, surrounded by the history and culture of the American story and poised to serve as the educational and research leader for the technologies of the future—notably solar energy and 3D printing, with the spirit of entrepreneurship at the heart of it all. The Hudson Valley corridor, from New York City to Albany, affords New Paltz students with a vibrant and dynamic laboratory to use for research, investigation, appreciation and enjoyment.

COME AS YOU ARE
New Paltz warmly welcomes students of diverse backgrounds, cultures, perspectives and ambitions. It is the ideal environment for students to explore and flourish, in a community that encourages and supports each student to seek a higher level of scholarship. Students bring their own intellectual experiences and expand on them in close collaboration with a learned faculty and through mentored and sponsored independent study and research activities, enhancing their education beyond the classroom. This comprehensive educational experience allows each New Paltz student to “come as you are” and leave prepared to excel in a rapidly changing world.

ABOUT THE LOGO

The official New Paltz logo is a mark consisting of a customized icon, typography and color. The strength of the icon for the College is in its ability to be interpreted in many ways. Our focus group participants told us it suggested “the mountain,” “the new Student Union addition [The Atrium],” “an open door.” It was seen as progressive and future oriented. All of these are reflective of the elements of our positioning statement—focus on our very appealing location, our student centeredness, and accessibility, all in a creative and forward moving environment.

The exact arrangement and proportion may not be altered in any way.

PRIMARY LOGO

ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND

The two-color horizontal logo is meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

ON A DARK BACKGROUND

ALL APPLICATIONS – INCLUDING APPAREL AND OTHER FABRIC APPLICATIONS

The logo should be reproduced in white on a dark background. White plus orange (PANTONE 165) may be used only on a blue background.

DOWNLOAD

High res logos are available online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link.
The two-color vertical logo is designed only for applications where the format or layout makes it difficult to use the primary (horizontal) logo effectively. Every effort should be made to use the primary logo.

The secondary (vertical) logo is meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

SECONDARY LOGO
ON A DARK BACKGROUND:
ALL APPLICATIONS – INCLUDING APPAREL AND OTHER FABRIC APPLICATIONS
The logo should be reproduced in white on a dark background. White plus orange (PANTONE 165) may be used only on a blue background.
To facilitate the size requirements of stitching in embroidery and maintain readability, the proportions of the type to the icon have been adjusted and the “State University of New York” line removed. The color options remain the same as for the primary logo.

ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND

The embroidery logo is also meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

ON A DARK BACKGROUND

On dark backgrounds the embroidery logo may be reproduced in white. On a blue background it may be reproduced in white and orange. In the two-color versions the triangle is in 165, with the top of the icon and New Paltz in white.
The New Paltz logo may have a department name below it in the horizontal format.

LETTERHEAD
The logo is 2.5" long. It is positioned .375" from the top and the left.

A fine rule (.25 pt. stroke) separates the logo from the department name — blue PMS 281.

The department name is 10/12 pt. Akzidenz Grotesk regular, upper and lower case — blue PMS 281. It is aligned flush left to the "N" in New Paltz (as is all other copy in the body of the letter).

All stationery must be ordered through Design Services or Print Services.

OTHER PRINT COLLATERAL
On brochures, flyers, ads, posters, etc. the department name may be up to half the height of the capital letter N in New Paltz in Akzidenz Grotesk regular.

Names should not exceed the length of the “New Paltz” line by more than 50%.

Long names may be split onto two lines.

Garamond Pro may be used on note cards or other formal communication.

SIZE
Horizontal logos may not be reproduced smaller than 1.5” measuring from the left side of the icon to the end of the “State University of New York at New Paltz” line.
DEPARTMENTAL LOGO POLICY

Departmental logos in horizontal and vertical formats may be used on merchandise such as clothing, mugs, or flash drives. They may not be used on stationery, nor should they in any way replace the main logo on official documents and publications.

WHY NOT ON STATIONERY?
The New Paltz logo is the primary or umbrella identifier, and must appear at the top to maintain brand integrity. This helps ensure that documents are recognized as official College correspondence. Departments may be listed below the logo. (Samples are included in the stationery section.)

FORMATS
All versions of departmental logos include the line “State University of New York at New Paltz”

Names should not exceed the length of the “State University of New York at New Paltz” line by more than 1/4” on a 3” logo

SIZE
Horizontal logos may not be reproduced smaller than 1.5” measuring from the left side of the icon to the end of the “State University of New York at New Paltz” line.

Vertical logos may not be reproduced smaller than 1.25” measuring the line “State University of New York at New Paltz”
SIZE
The logos may be enlarged or reduced in size as required. The minimum size of any mark is often determined by the method of reproduction or fabrication. The minimum size, using optimal reproduction methods, can be measured by the length of the horizontal New Paltz logo at 1” and the vertical logo at .75”. Using less than optimal reproduction methods, the logo should only be used at a size that does not compromise quality and legibility.

No other logo on the same page with the SUNY New Paltz logo should be larger than the SUNY New Paltz logo.

SPECIALIZED MARKS
For applications smaller than the minimum size, use either of these specialized marks. These “small” logos are designed primarily for online applications within social media.

CLEAR SPACE
For the logo to communicate effectively, it should not be crowded or overwhelmed by other elements. “Clear space” refers to the area surrounding the mark that should be kept free from visual distraction. No graphic element or text of any kind should be placed within this clear space. The recommended clear space is equal to the letter “e” in the New Paltz wordmark (X = height of letter e) as shown.
LOGO USAGE

Consistent and proper usage of the logo is essential for ensuring the desired perception of New Paltz. The integrity of the New Paltz brand diminishes when the logos are incorrectly applied. Unauthorized versions and unacceptable usage of the logo place their legal protection at risk. Improper usage is confusing and could possibly lead to the eventual loss of copyright.

LOGO USE VIOLATIONS

The logos may not be altered in any way. Any variation or alteration, however small, is unacceptable. Several examples of incorrect usage are shown on this page. If you are faced with using the logo in an application that you find questionable or not included in this manual, please contact Design Services.

• DO NOT change the colors.
• DO NOT outline any part of the logo or apply any effects (drop shadow, 3-D, textures, bevel, glow, etc).
• DO NOT rearrange the components.
• DO NOT distort the logo or scale it disproportionately.
• DO NOT fill the logo with a photograph or any other pattern or texture.
• DO NOT turn the logo sideways, rotate or tilt it.
• DO NOT produce the orange logo on a blue background, or the blue on orange.
• DO NOT cut off (bleed) the logo. The only exception is the official SUNY New Paltz business card.
• DO NOT use the icon alone as a logo. It may be used in specific applications with the approval of Design Services.
LOGO SYSTEM

LOGO CRITERIA POLICY

Consistency in use of the identity standards enhances the collective strength of the College’s identity. All areas of the college will use the approved college logos according to the guidelines set forth in these style guides. There are individual standards for the College, The Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art, The Benjamin Center and athletics.

ANCILLARY LOGOS

Departmental logos are included in the campus identity standards. They may be used on things such as clothing, mugs or note cards. They may not be used on stationery (other than a note card), nor should they in any way replace the main logo on official documents and publications.

Ancillary logos may be developed only by the Office of Communication & Marketing with approval of upper management, based on the following criteria:

Fundraising and/or membership groups may be considered for an ancillary logo when a stand-alone identity is determined beneficial to the function of that group. Examples: Lantern Society, Friends of the Library, Tower Society.

Events with a strong external focus and annual activities, which include public advertising and ticket sales, may request development of a symbol or logo from Communication & Marketing to use in their materials. Examples: Distinguished Speakers Series, PianoSummer.

Institutes and special operations within the College may use a separate identifier as part of their communication, as they are resources to the community, which aid in our regional impact. Examples: the John R. Kirk Planetarium, The Business Institute, Institute for Disaster Mental Health and the Institute for International Business.

Internal programs primarily for students that have a strong focus to build awareness may use a symbol. Examples: “R3: Respect, Responsibility, Rights” and NPAlert.

Ancillary logos are designed to reflect the college branding, and therefore stand alone. The college logo should not appear with it.

Specific photographs or symbols may be used consistently in marketing materials for a department or program, but may not replace use of the college logo. Examples: Old Main Building for the School of Education, the clock tower for the School of Business and a photo or drawing of Sojourner Truth for the Sojourner Truth Library.

THE BENJAMIN CENTER LOGO

The Benjamin Center logo is the key to the identity system that was created to identify the Center as an independent agency within the College while maintaining a connection with the College logo and brand. It was unveiled at a launch ceremony on September 30, 2015. There is a separate style guide for this logo.

DORSKY MUSEUM LOGO

The Dorsky Museum logo was specifically designed to establish its stature as a regional resource while maintaining its position as a campus entity. There is a separate style guide for this logo.

ATHLETIC MARKS

Hawk logos were developed to identify our teams visually; to promote strength, character and energy; and to make a strong and consistent statement that promotes school spirit. They are intended for use by Athletics, Wellness & Recreation for intercollegiate athletic teams, and by the campus community for the promotion of school spirit.

Sports clubs may use logos designed specifically for them. They incorporate the hawk in a format designed to identify them separately from the intercollegiate teams. They are available through Athletics, Wellness & Recreation.

HUGO

A caricature of our mascot is available for student groups and others on campus to use in the promotion of school spirit.

There is a separate style guide for this identity system.

OFFICIAL TYPEFACES

Berthold Akzidenz Grotesk is a contemporary sans serif family of typefaces that provides New Paltz’s brand a simple yet modern appeal. This helps emphasize the progressive qualities of the College.

The Adobe Garamond Pro family of typefaces is a classic serif font that complements Berthold Akzidenz Grotesk and eases in readability with long text blocks.

Both typefaces include a wide variety of fonts (light, medium, demi, bold, etc.)

This is just a sampling of the fonts available in this typeface.

ALTERNATE TYPEFACES

In cases where the primary typefaces are not available, the Arial and Times family of typefaces may be substituted. The use of these alternative typefaces should be limited to body copy, general business documents and the Web. These alternative typefaces should not take the place of the primary typefaces when they are used to build the brand of New Paltz.

WEB STANDARD TYPEFACES

Arial and Oswald are the basic typefaces used on the Web. Georgia is a Web alternative for Garamond Pro.

FONT USAGE

These fonts should be used in all literature and collateral materials. If you do not have these fonts, they can be ordered online from Adobe® at www.adobe.com, www.fonts.com, or www.myfonts.com. Akzidenz Grotesk and Adobe Garamond Pro are Opentype fonts, which are compatible with both Macintosh® and Windows®. Contact Design Services if you need assistance.
OFFICIAL COLLEGE COLORS

The College’s primary colors are PANTONE 281 and 165. Equivalent values for CMYK, RGB and HEX are listed under each swatch. Consistent use of these colors builds brand recognition and colors in the logo must not be altered.

Note:
There are many factors that can influence accurate color reproduction. In printing these include paper stock, ink coverage and line screen. For merchandise, the materials and types of inks are very different from printed paper. Web and other screen applications employ light, which is altogether different. It is important to use the equivalent colors in order to remain as true as possible to our school colors (PANTONE 281 and 165).

PANTONE

The Pantone Matching System is a widely used system of color specifications. Printers follow specific formulas for mixing ink, providing consistency and accuracy from design to print, and from print to reprint. This is often referred to as flat color or spot color.

CMYK

The three hues of cyan, magenta and yellow are used with black in process color reproduction. This is referred to as full color or four color process.

RGB

Red, green and blue are the hues for light, used on the screen.

HEX

Hexadecimal code is for use in HTML, CSS and other Web applications.
CAPTURING THE NEW PALTZ STORY
Images help tell the New Paltz story and express the feel of the campus visually. We do this through the use of dynamic, candid shots of students, photographs of student and faculty collaboration, and diversity and inclusivity of our campus community. New Paltz people are the New Paltz voice, and strong images of the New Paltz community express the qualities of the College best. When possible, capture the New Paltz logo in photographs, such as on podiums or backdrops, to reinforce our brand and help tell the story.

ASSET LIBRARY
The Office of Communication & Marketing maintains an extensive library of images taken by on- and off-campus professionals. High-quality images are critical in order to uphold the integrity of the New Paltz brand, and consistency in photographic style and quality is essential for a successful identity. Only photographs with the appropriate resolution for the output will be used.

PERMISSION/MODEL RELEASE
Written permission and model releases are not required for campus photography, as students have an opt-out option available to them. Photographs of children require written parental permission with no exceptions.

COPYRIGHT
Copyrighted material may not be altered without written permission of the copyright holder. Photographs taken by SUNY New Paltz staff and freelancers hired by SUNY New Paltz should be considered copyrighted materials.

CREDIT
Photo credits must be given for all published photography. Either the photographer’s name next to the photo, or “Photography by [name(s)]” in a publication’s credit section.

COVERAGE
The Office of Communication & Marketing offers photography coverage at events or for marketing materials. To request photography services, fill out the Photography Services Request Form at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication and Marketing link.
OVERALL OBJECTIVE
It is vital that our communication efforts are integrated in a unified voice and visual presentation that is instantly recognizable as emanating from New Paltz.

BRANDING GOAL
We will present New Paltz in a dynamic, engaging, truthful way that reflects its culture and unique personality.

TONE
The tone of the copy should evoke the New Paltz identity as forthright, impassioned, curious, creative and inclusive. This is best accomplished by sharing news and telling stories from the perspective of the active, engaged principals – the students, faculty, alumni, staff and community members who define “New Paltz” with their actions, their voices and their ideas.

This approach can be used across all elements and channels, whether it’s a brochure for a particular school, an ad for a student art exhibit, an email to invite prospective students to visit or the alumni magazine. While it is important to consider the unique constraints of audience and situation in crafting individual messages, there should be a general tonal resemblance and a set of common elements evoking New Paltz across the spectrum of communication materials.

A Degree…and an Education
This brand concept and our brand attributes should be developed in the copy and may appear as a statement. [See brand attributes]

Your Public University
Used primarily in local and regional awareness campaigns.

In New York State, the number of days that children spend in school—and how some of those must be used, for example, for statewide exams—is determined by New York State legislation.

DATES

ORDINAL
When the day precedes the month use ordinal words or ordinal numbers if emphasis is needed.

CARDINAL
When the day follows the month use cardinal numbers (Do not use May 1st, or May first, even though those versions reflect the way the date would sound when spoken.)

"DATE" "TIME" "PLACE" (on posters and flyers)
The extra words "date," "time" and "place" are not necessary to understanding the information. They are actually visual clutter, making it more difficult for the eye to focus on the critical message quickly—especially important on a poster.

Following AP style, use minutes only if necessary.

Use lower case with periods in text and all formal communication, such as invitations.

Use all caps without periods only on posters/flyers

TONE & LOOK

LOOK
Visual communication should present the College as welcoming and academically rigorous – evoking New Paltz in the same manner as the copy. To ensure consistency in the visual presentation of our brand messaging there are visual elements that include the College logo, school colors, the color bar, typefaces, strong central image and hash lines.

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS

NEW PALTZ LOGO
The logo must appear on all collateral. It should appear in the upper left corner for institutional messaging. The logo is placed in the lower right corner with the url and/or tag line for event and program messaging.

- The primary two-color logo should be first choice over one-color or dark background logos whenever possible.
- The logo should be used with a transparent background whenever possible.
- No other logo should be larger than the New Paltz logo.

SCHOOL COLORS
See the section on “Colors” for primary, secondary, and neutral color palette specifications.

THE ATRIUM
The Atrium is the iconic image used to represent New Paltz, as it is a unique identifier and central to student life on campus. Our logo and hash lines reflect and play on the angles of the Atrium, which reflect the mountain and evoke forward movement.

SUNY BRANDMARK
The SUNY brandmark may be used to endorse the campus brand. The circle may be cropped on no more than two sides. When used, we normally place it in the lower left corner.

• The color bar is composed of six sections in PMS colors drawn from the primary and secondary palettes: from left to right 281, 165, 639, 7409, 7417 and 583 (evokes diversity and inclusion, important values of the New Paltz community)
• When used, the color bar should appear at the top. It may be the full width of the piece, the width of the image, or shortened to “frame” a key piece of text and draw the eye to the main message.
• The preferred background for the color bar is white. A color block or image background must be a lighter value than any of the sections in the color bar to ensure proper visibility of each section.

IMAGERY
Images should be candid, depicting some real, unstaged activity/moment at New Paltz. Candid imagery conveys the “Education” portion of “A Degree and an Education” – the experiential, the unique environment, or essence of New Paltz. Additional information is available in the “Photography” section.
• Dynamic, candid people shots
  New Paltz People = New Paltz Voice
• Diversity
TONE & LOOK

HASH LINES

- Hash lines are meant to be subtle and not overpower the image.
- The hash lines may be used in the frame, a bar, or extend in from the frame or edge.
- Hash lines move from the upper right to the lower left at a 55° angle.
- Hash lines are 20% black.
- Hash lines may be reversed to white over a dark image.
- Space between lines is twice the width of the mark.

FRAME

- A white frame or a frame of hash lines may be used to contain an image.
- Copy may appear in the frame, but should be used judiciously and only when necessary to facilitate readability of the message.
- Official campus eblasts use a solid frame of Pantone Cool Gray 1, or a split frame made of hash lines for the top and solid gray for the bottom. See the section on eblasts for additional details regarding specific applications.
- The thickness of the frame must be at least .375” on pieces up to 8.5 x 11, and at least .5” on 11 x 17.

MFA NEW PALTZ

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate program materials present the degree as the lead message. Design may follow standard campus style with hash lines, logo in lower right, strong images with focus on close, candid photos, etc.

Where appropriate, design may apply the masters degree type treatment. In this case, the degree is set in sans serif bold above New Paltz in lighter text, upper case, with tight leading. This graphic is generally placed in the upper left corner. The college logo must also appear. On a brochure, it may be positioned on the front or back. In the sample of the MFA poster on this page, the MFA text and logo are positioned to provide a dynamic tension on the page.

Where facilities are important to the message, images should show graduate students working in them whenever possible.

All other recruitment strategies apply, such as showing faculty/student interaction.

GRADUATE SCHOOL IDENTITY

Because of the unique position of The Graduate School as an umbrella identity for programs from various areas within the College, the name of The Graduate School should be placed below the logo in Akzidenz Grotesk medium in PMS 281 blue. It should be in upper and lower case, and placed in the same position as defined by general guidelines for a departmental name. That is, flush left aligned with the “N” in New Paltz, preferably blocked to the text “New Paltz.” (See the MSED ad sample on this page.)
In keeping with sustainability concerns and best practices for digital communication, all campus newsletters are produced online. For branding consistency all newsletter banners have a consistent look.

On this page are screen shots of online newsletters for The School of Business, The School of Education and the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences.
POWERPOINT

Four templates are available online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link.

EBLAST

Official campus eblasts incorporate the color bar at the top of the message, the logo at the bottom and a border of hash lines with white background on the top portion and gray background on the bottom.

Eblasts for departments are designed with a border of Pantone Cool Gray 1 instead of hash lines.

Maximum width is 650 pixels, including the hash lines and gray frame.
CAMPUS VEHICLES
All campus vehicles are marked with the College logo. The two color logo is used on white vehicles, and the white logo is used on any dark color vehicles. The logo is placed to fit on the door, and must not cross panels. No department names are used on campus vehicles.
STATIONERY

For a successful college identity, the consistency of all materials, including the stationery system, is critical. All stationery must be ordered through Design Services or Print Services.

New Paltz stationery is printed in PANTONE 281 and PANTONE 165 on 24# Mohawk Via Smooth Writing stock.

ELECTRONIC LETTERHEAD

The generic letterhead is available in electronic format online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link. Departmental electronic letterhead may be ordered through Design Services.

Do not use electronic letterhead as a template to produce correspondence in print. Variations in color and quality output can negatively affect institutional brand.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

Use official typefaces for body copy if available (Akzidenz Grotesk or Adobe Garamond Pro). Otherwise, use Arial or Times.

Do not use photocopied stationery for official correspondence.
DEPARTMENTAL STATIONERY
Requests for departmental stationery may be placed with Design Services. It is important for the integrity of the brand identity that the departmental name appears in the typeface, Akzidenz Grotesk. You may not insert your departmental name in any other typeface.

NEW PALTZ SEAL

The New Paltz seal is used primarily for formal and official documents such as diplomas, legal and official records, transcripts and programs for formal academic ceremonies, and any other legal agreements binding the College.

The seal is only to be reproduced with the primary college colors orange (PMS 165) and blue (PMS 281), or black. Gold and/or silver foil stamping is also permitted.
WEB PAGES

All websites that the college maintains adhere to the New Paltz style guide visually and editorially.

The college currently maintains three separate web templates: a “main” template for the majority of college websites, a template for the School of Fine and Performing Arts, and a template for the Center for International Programs. Any new template designs must be approved by the VP for Communication.

Font colors and sizes are restricted to the college's primary and secondary color palate, and custom graphics must be approved by OCM before being published on the website.

Department content managers, (usually secretaries or chairs) may make changes to their website using the college's content management system. To request for access and training, visit www.newpaltz.edu/terminalfour. There is also a request system in place via my.newpaltz.edu.

The college also maintains the Dorsky Museum and Benjamin Center websites, which adhere to their own separate style guides.

SIZE AND PLACEMENT OF MARKS

The copyright symbol, or copyright sign, © (a circled capital letter “C”), is the symbol used in copyright notices for works other than sound recordings (which are indicated with the © symbol). This always appear first, followed by the year, then SUNY New Paltz (or State University of New York at New Paltz).

The registration symbol (®) should be placed in upper-right hand corner adjacent to the mark. In text, the symbol should appear directly after the portion of the text that has been registered.

Typically the symbol is placed at a minimum in the first and/or most prominent usage of the mark in collateral. However, the symbol may be used every time whenever using a trademark.

™

A trademark is a recognizable sign, design, or expression which identifies products or services of a particular source from those of others, although trademarks used to identify services are usually called service marks. The TM is not required on unregistered marks, but may be used in the same manner as the registered trademark symbol to provide notice that the mark is filed. It follows the mark as a superscript.
