ABOUT OUR BRAND

On a daily basis, the State University of New York at New Paltz competes for attention with other academic institutions in a world filled with marketing messages from a wide variety and large number of businesses and organizations, both for-profit and non-profit. Reaching our students, supporters and contributors can be quite a challenge. How do we establish our place in the market?

One way is to project a consistent and clear identity—our brand. Simply put, a brand identity is the sum total of all perceived information about us as communicated through our various messages—it is a marketing and communication tool. Every communication, including our name and related marks, contributes to building our brand identity.

This guide has been developed to help us achieve a consistent identity across all communication vehicles as we reflect the essence of the institution, the strength of our offerings and the quality of our programs. The consistent application of these standards will help ensure that your communication vehicle contributes to a unified image that benefits New Paltz through improved awareness, recognition, and professional appearance.

BRAND POSITIONING STATEMENT

New Paltz provides one of the nation’s most open, diverse, and artistic environments in order to prepare students to excel in rapidly changing times that demand creativity and worldliness. Our tradition of intellectual discovery is enhanced by a location of stunning natural beauty, in a dynamic college town, with easy access to New York City. Our unusually wide array of professional and liberal arts majors fosters a rich academic milieu in which students, selected through a competitive admissions process, can develop to their highest potential.

OUR BRAND PROMISE

New Paltz has crafted a collection of internal brand promise statements that serve to encapsulate for its administration, faculty and staff precisely what the institution can promise to its enrolled students. These promise statements are:

1. We deliver an extraordinary number of majors in Business, Liberal Arts, Sciences and Engineering and are particularly well known for our programs in Fine & Performing Arts, and Education.

2. We provide rigorous academics in a highly selective admission environment where students receive and create close personal links with real scholars and artists who love to teach.

3. New Paltz embraces its culture as a community where talented and independent-minded people foster openness, diversity, artistry, and creativity.

4. Our geographic location is stunning in its natural beauty, located in the heart of a dynamic college town, 90 minutes from metropolitan New York City.

5. In keeping with the tradition of the nation’s great public universities, New Paltz is linked to the health and vitality of the region, state, and nation through the education of its citizens.

NOTE

The brand positioning statement, brand promises, and brand attributes should serve as a basis for crafting external communications rather than as exact language. Note that these messages do not constitute a new slogan or tagline. Audience-appropriate communication can tell a consistent College story in different ways to different people. These key messages will help to achieve that.
NEW PALTZ BRAND ATTRIBUTES

BRAND ATTRIBUTES
The following brand attributes support New Paltz's overall institutional brand by publicly and prominently highlighting the essential characteristics of the college experience. We developed the attributes based on findings from an internal assessment survey we conducted with current New Paltz students, faculty, staff and administrators in July 2008. We then tested the attributes among prospects, current students (graduate and undergraduate), employees and alumni to determine which attributes should be primary or secondary messages for New Paltz.

A DEGREE...AND AN EDUCATION
New Paltz students earn a degree that opens doors to lifelong career opportunities. With that degree comes an education—a true preparation that goes beyond the piece of paper. It is a New Paltz education, one that retains lifelong relevance through what is required to achieve it: broad and specific knowledge, exposure to differing perspectives, open-minded inquiry, and a spirit of inventiveness. This is why two national publications have named New Paltz one of the nation's top leaders in providing college graduates with the best “return on degree investment” over a lifetime.

ENGAGEMENT THROUGH IMPASSIONED TEACHING
The love of learning and a lifelong passion for intellectual and professional growth come from the experiences a student has in close collaboration with an outstanding faculty. Cited for excellence in both teaching and research by SUNY and national and international organizations (New Paltz has been named one of the nation's top producers of Fulbright scholars for master's institutions by the U.S. Department of State), New Paltz faculty challenge, encourage and support students to reach higher, achieve greater, think more broadly and develop skills that serve students well, long after graduation.

CREATIVE ENVIRONMENT OF DISCOVERY
Creativity permeates campus life at New Paltz. The learning atmosphere has an air of imaginative inquiry that bridges all academic endeavors. The faculty encourages students to question, experiment, and discover in ways that lead to innovative thinking. Beyond the classroom, students discover the endless possibilities that exist within a diverse community and the opportunities for scholarship and leadership that will serve them well for their future professional and personal lives.

A LOCATION FOR LIFE
SUNY New Paltz is located at the nexus of the best of yesterday, today and tomorrow—a dynamic community in a stunning natural setting, surrounded by the history and culture of the American story and poised to serve as the educational and research leader for the technologies of the future—notably solar energy and 3D printing, with the spirit of entrepreneurship at the heart of it all. The Hudson Valley corridor, from New York City to Albany, affords New Paltz students with a vibrant and dynamic laboratory to use for research, investigation, appreciation, and enjoyment.

COME AS YOU ARE
New Paltz warmly welcomes students of diverse backgrounds, cultures, perspectives and ambitions. It is the ideal environment for students to explore and flourish, in a community that encourages and supports each student to seek a higher level of scholarship. Students bring their own intellectual experiences and expand on them in close collaboration with a learned faculty and through mentored and sponsored independent study and research activities, enhancing their education beyond the classroom. This comprehensive educational experience allows each New Paltz student to “come as you are” and leave prepared to excel in a rapidly changing world.

ABOUT THE LOGO

The official New Paltz logo is a mark consisting of a customized icon, typography and color. The strength of the icon for the College is in its ability to be interpreted in many ways. Our focus group participants told us it suggested “the mountain,” “the new Student Union addition [The Atrium],” and “an open door.” It was seen as progressive and future oriented. All of these are reflective of the elements of our positioning statement—focus on our very appealing location, our student centeredness, and accessibility, all in a creative and forward moving environment.

The exact arrangement and proportion may not be altered in any way.

PRIMARY LOGO
ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND

The two-color horizontal logo is meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

PRIMARY LOGO
ON A DARK BACKGROUND

ALL APPLICATIONS—INCLUDING APPAREL AND OTHER FABRIC APPLICATIONS

The logo should be reproduced in white on a dark background. White plus orange (PANTONE 165) may be used only on a blue background.

DOWNLOAD

High res logos are available online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link.
The two-color vertical logo is designed only for applications where the format or layout makes it difficult to use the primary (horizontal) logo effectively. Every effort should be made to use the primary logo.

The secondary (vertical) logo is meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

SECONDARY LOGO ON A DARK BACKGROUND:

ALL APPLICATIONS – INCLUDING APPAREL AND OTHER FABRIC APPLICATIONS

The logo should be reproduced in white on a dark background. White plus orange (PANTONE 165) may be used only on a blue background.
To facilitate the size requirements of stitching in embroidery and maintain readability, the proportions of the type to the icon have been adjusted and the “State University of New York” line removed. The color options remain the same as for the primary logo.

ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND
The embroidery logo is also meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

ON A DARK BACKGROUND
On dark backgrounds the embroidery logo may be reproduced in white. On a blue background it may be reproduced in white and orange. In the two-color versions the triangle is in 165, with the top of the icon and New Paltz in white.
LOGO SYSTEM

LOGO WITH DEPARTMENT NAME
The New Paltz logo may have a department name below it in the horizontal format.

LETTERHEAD
The logo is 2.5" long. It is positioned .375" from the top and the left.

A fine rule (.25 pt. stroke) separates the logo from the department name—blue PMS 281.

The department name is 10/12 pt. Akzidenz Grotesk regular, upper and lower case—blue PMS 281. It is aligned flush left to the “N” in New Paltz (as is all other copy in the body of the letter).

All stationery must be ordered through Design Services or Print Services.

OTHER PRINT COLLATERAL
On brochures, flyers, ads, posters, etc. the department name may be up to half the height of the capital letter N in New Paltz in Akzidenz Grotesk regular.

Names should not exceed the length of the “New Paltz” line by more than 50%

Long names may be split onto two lines.

Garamond Pro may be used on note cards or other formal communication.

SIZE
Horizontal logos may not be reproduced smaller than 1.5” measuring from the left side of the icon to the end of the “State University of New York at New Paltz” line.
LOGO INTEGRITY

SIZE
The logos may be enlarged or reduced in size as required. The minimum size of any mark is often determined by the method of reproduction or fabrication. The minimum size, using optimal reproduction methods, can be measured by the length of the horizontal New Paltz logo at 1” and the vertical logo at .75”. Using less than optimal reproduction methods, the logo should only be used at a size that does not compromise quality and legibility.

No other logo on the same page with the SUNY New Paltz logo should be larger than the SUNY New Paltz logo.

SPECIALIZED MARKS
For applications smaller than the minimum size, use either of these specialized marks. These “small” logos are designed primarily for online applications within social media.

CLEAR SPACE
For the logo to communicate effectively, it should not be crowded or overwhelmed by other elements. “Clear space” refers to the area surrounding the mark that should be kept free from visual distraction. No graphic element or text of any kind should be placed within this clear space. The recommended clear space is equal to the letter “e” in the New Paltz wordmark (X = height of letter e) as shown.
LOGO USAGE

Consistent and proper usage of the logo is essential for ensuring the desired perception of New Paltz. The integrity of the New Paltz brand diminishes when the logos are incorrectly applied. Unauthorized versions and unacceptable usage of the logo place their legal protection at risk. Improper usage is confusing and could possibly lead to the eventual loss of copyright.

LOGO USE VIOLATIONS

The logos may not be altered in any way. Any variation or alteration, however small, is unacceptable. Several examples of incorrect usage are shown on this page. If you are faced with using the logo in an application that you find questionable or not included in this manual, please contact Design Services.

• DO NOT change the colors.
• DO NOT outline any part of the logo or apply any effects (drop shadow, 3-D, textures, bevel, glow, etc).
• DO NOT rearrange the components.
• DO NOT distort the logo or scale it disproportionately.
• DO NOT fill the logo with a photograph or any other pattern or texture.
• DO NOT turn the logo sideways, rotate or tilt it.
• DO NOT produce the orange logo on a blue background, or the blue on orange.
• DO NOT cut off (bleed) the logo. The only exception is the official SUNY New Paltz business card.
• DO NOT use the icon alone as a logo. It may be used in specific applications with the approval of Design Services.
LOGO SYSTEM

LOGO POLICY

Consistency in use of the identity standards enhances the collective strength of the College’s identity. Consequently, all areas of the College must use the approved College logos according to the guidelines set forth in our style guides. Our primary, secondary, and ancillary logos are outlined in this style guide. The approved subbrands described on this page have individual standards outlined in separate style guides: The Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art, The Benjamin Center and New Paltz Hawks Athletics.

Specific photographs or symbols may be used consistently in marketing materials for a department or program, but may not replace use of the College logo. Examples: Old Main Building for the School of Education, the clock tower for the School of Business and a photo or drawing of Sojourner Truth for the Sojourner Truth Library.

ANCILLARY LOGOS

Ancillary logos may be developed only by the Office of Communication & Marketing with approval of the Vice President for Communication based on the following criteria:

Fundraising and/or membership groups may be considered for an ancillary logo when a stand-alone identity is determined beneficial to the function of that group. Examples: Lantern Society, Friends of the Library, Tower Society.

Events with a strong external focus and annual activities, which include public advertising and ticket sales, may request development of specialized mark or an ancillary logo. Examples: Distinguished Speakers Series, PianoSummer, 40 Under Forty.

Institutes and special operations within the College may use an ancillary logo, as they are resources to the community, which aid in our regional impact. Examples: the John R. Kirk Planetarium, The Business Institute, Institute for Disaster Mental Health and the Institute for International Business.

An ancillary logo is designed to reflect the College branding, and therefore stand alone. The College logo should not appear with it.

WORDMARK

Programs such as lecture series and other activities that have repeated events, demonstrate a connection to the campus strategic plan, and align with our brand attributes may request a wordmark to be developed by Communication & Marketing.

SUBBRANDS

Logos and identity systems for approved subbrands may be developed only by the Office of Communication & Marketing with approval of the Vice President for Communication.

Each subbrand logo is designed to coordinate with College branding, and therefore stand alone. The College logo should not appear with it.

USE OF LOGOS

All College logos as described in this style guide may be used by offices/departments of the College for official College business only. Logos may be provided to outside agencies to identify the College as a sponsor of an event, with permission from the Office of Communication & Marketing. Because the College logo is the symbol for official College business, other groups such as student clubs and organizations may not use the College logo.

USE OF LOGO/ICON WITH ADDITIONAL TEXT

• The icon may be used for retail purposes in conjunction with identity and compatible typefaces only.
• Typefaces other than identity and compatible approved typefaces may be used in retail applications as appropriate to the event or program as long as they are used alone. That is, they are not to be used in conjunction with the icon.*

* All retail applications must have authorization from the Office of Communication & Marketing/Design Services. See the page on contact information at the end of this guide.

THE DORSKY
The Dorsky Museum logo was specifically designed to establish its stature as a regional resource while maintaining its position as a campus entity.

The Benjamin Center logo is the key to the identity system that was created to identify the Center as a regional resource within the College while maintaining a connection with the College logo and brand. It was unveiled at a launch ceremony on September 30, 2015.

ATHLETIC MARKS
Hawk logos were developed to identify our teams visually; to promote strength, character and energy; and to make a strong and consistent statement that promotes school spirit. They are intended for use by Athletics, Wellness & Recreation for intercollegiate athletic teams, and by the campus community for the promotion of school spirit. This identity system includes the hawk head, several wordmarks and monograms.

STUDENT CLUBS
Sports clubs may use logos designed specifically for them. They incorporate the hawk in a format designed to identify them separately from the intercollegiate teams. They are available through Athletics, Wellness & Recreation.

HUGO
A caricature of our mascot is available for student groups and others on campus to use in the promotion of school spirit. Contact Athletics for information.

The Athletic Identity Graphic Standards style guide is managed by the Office of Communication & Marketing in consultation with Athletics.

UNIVERSITY POLICE LOGO
The UPD logo is used alone on official police business documents such as appearance tickets and arrest reports as long as SUNY New Paltz is identified in text on the document.

The UPD logo may be used in conjunction with the College logo as appropriate, generally not combined as one logo.

PATCH
The UPD patch is used on uniforms and some print collateral.
NEW PALTZ SEAL

The New Paltz seal is used primarily for formal and official documents such as diplomas, legal and official records, transcripts and programs for formal academic ceremonies, and any other legal agreements binding the College.

The seal is only to be reproduced with the primary College colors orange (PMS 165) and blue (PMS 281), or black. Gold and/or silver foil stamping is also permitted.

SUNY SEAL

The SUNY seal is reserved for special events, ceremonies, or representing the heritage of The State University of New York. It is not for general use.

The seal may only be reproduced in the official colors gold (PMS 116) and blue (PMS 294), black, or reversed out for a solid color, according to the SUNY Seal Guidelines.

SUNY LOGO

The SUNY logo is provided to each unit for co-branding. It should appear on all recruitment materials, and may be cropped to bleed according to the SUNY Brand Guidelines.
OFFICIAL TYPEFACES

Berthold Akzidenz Grotesk is a contemporary sans serif family of typefaces that provides New Paltz's brand a simple yet modern appeal. This helps emphasize the progressive qualities of the College.

The Adobe Garamond Pro family of typefaces is a classic serif font that complements Berthold Akzidenz Grotesk and eases in readability with long text blocks.

Both typefaces include a wide variety of fonts (light, medium, demi, bold, etc.)

This is just a sampling of the fonts available in this typeface.

ALTERNATE TYPEFACES

In cases where the primary typefaces are not available, the Arial and Times family of typefaces may be substituted. The use of these alternative typefaces should be limited to body copy, general business documents and the Web. These alternative typefaces should not take the place of the primary typefaces when they are used to build the brand of New Paltz.

WEB STANDARD TYPEFACES

Arial and Oswald are the basic typefaces used on the Web. Georgia is a Web alternative for Garamond Pro.

FONT USAGE

These fonts should be used in all literature and collateral materials. If you do not have these fonts, they can be ordered online from Adobe® at www.adobe.com, www.fonts.com, or www.myfonts.com. Akzidenz Grotesk and Adobe Garamond Pro are Opentype fonts, which are compatible with both Macintosh® and Windows®. Contact Design Services if you need assistance.

COLORS

BLUE AND ORANGE

The school colors of blue and orange can be traced back as far as 1895. The June issue of The Normal Review that year included an article reporting that “…a committee consisting of members of the Faculty and students devoted their best energies to selecting school song, colors, yell, pin and flower.”

The alma mater sung today includes a reference "To the Orange and the Blue." It goes back at least to 1913, when it was published in that year’s yearbook.

ALMA MATER
In a valley fair and beautiful
Guarded well by mount and hill
Beats a heart whose pulse is rich and full
Of life, and pow’r, and thrill.
We love thee, Alma Mater dear.
To thee our hearts are true.
And we’ll sing with voices strong and clear
To the Orange and the Blue.
New Paltz, forever our Alma Mater,
We raise our song to thee.
The hills re-echo with glad crescendo
Our praises full and free.

Over the years, various shades and hues of blue and orange came into and out of use, and in 2002 a campus-wide group was asked to provide input to the Cabinet regarding clarification of the colors. Their recommendation was to follow the historical record for a dark blue and orange. Pantone Matching System colors were specified as 281 blue and 165 orange, and approved in October of that year.

Excerpts from our brand attributes developed in 2008 attest to the appropriateness of blue and orange as our school colors:

• A SUNY New Paltz degree comes with an education, one that retains lifelong relevance through what is required to achieve it: broad and specific knowledge, exposure to differing perspectives, open-minded inquiry, and a spirit of inventiveness.

• New Paltz faculty challenge, encourage, and support students to reach higher, achieve greater, think more broadly, and develop skills that serve students well, long after graduation.

• Creativity permeates campus life at New Paltz. The learning atmosphere has an air of imaginative inquiry that bridges all academic endeavors.

• New Paltz warmly welcomes students of diverse backgrounds, cultures, perspectives and ambitions. It is the ideal environment for students to explore and flourish, in a community that encourages and supports each student to seek a higher level of scholarship.

• This comprehensive educational experience allows each New Paltz student to “come as you are” and leave prepared to excel in a rapidly changing world.

OFFICIAL COLLEGE COLORS

The College’s primary colors are PANTONE 281 and 165. Equivalent values for CMYK, RGB and HEX are listed under each swatch. Consistent use of these colors builds brand recognition and colors in the logo must not be altered.

Note:
There are many factors that can influence accurate color reproduction. In printing these include paper stock, ink coverage and line screen. For merchandise, the materials and types of inks are very different from printed paper. Web and other screen applications employ light, which is altogether different. It is important to use the equivalent colors in order to remain as true as possible to our school colors (PANTONE 281 and 165).

PANTONE
The Pantone Matching System is a widely used system of color specifications. Printers follow specific formulas for mixing ink, providing consistency and accuracy from design to print, and from print to reprint. This is often referred to as flat color or spot color.

CMYK
The three hues of cyan, magenta and yellow are used with black in process color reproduction. This is referred to as full color or four color process.

RGB
Red, green and blue are the hues for light, used on the screen.

HEX
Hexadecimal code is for use in HTML, CSS and other Web applications.

THE COLORS SHOWN ON THIS AND OTHER PAGES WITHIN THIS MANUAL SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR COLOR MATCHING. USE ACTUAL COLOR CHIPS OR USE REFERENCE NUMBERS ABOVE FOR ACCURATE COLOR MATCHING.

PANTONE IS A REGISTERED TRADEMARK OF PANTONE, INC.
CAPTURING THE NEW PALTZ STORY
Images help tell the New Paltz story and express the feel of the campus visually. We do this through the use of dynamic, candid shots of students, photographs of student and faculty collaboration, and diversity and inclusivity of our campus community. New Paltz people are the New Paltz voice, and strong images of the New Paltz community express the qualities of the College best. When possible, capture the New Paltz logo in photographs, such as on podiums or backdrops, to reinforce our brand and help tell the story.

ASSET LIBRARY
The Office of Communication & Marketing maintains an extensive library of images taken by on- and off-campus professionals. High-quality images are critical in order to uphold the integrity of the New Paltz brand, and consistency in photographic style and quality is essential for a successful identity. Only photographs with the appropriate resolution for the output will be used.

PERMISSION/MODEL RELEASE
Written permission and model releases are not required for campus photography, as students have an opt-out option available to them. Photographs of children require written parental permission with no exceptions.

COPYRIGHT
Copyrighted material may not be altered without written permission of the copyright holder. Photographs taken by SUNY New Paltz staff and freelancers hired by SUNY New Paltz should be considered copyrighted materials of SUNY New Paltz.

CREDIT

COVERAGE
The Office of Communication & Marketing offers photography coverage at events or for marketing materials. To request photography services, fill out the Photography Services Request Form at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication and Marketing link.
OVERALL OBJECTIVE
It is vital that our communication efforts are integrated in a unified voice and visual presentation that is instantly recognizable as emanating from New Paltz.

BRANDING GOAL
We will present New Paltz in a dynamic, engaging, truthful way that reflects its culture and unique personality.

TONE
The tone of the copy should evoke the New Paltz identity as forthright, impassioned, curious, creative and inclusive. This is best accomplished by sharing news and telling stories from the perspective of the active, engaged principals—the students, faculty, alumni, staff and community members who define “New Paltz” with their actions, their voices and their ideas.

This approach can be used across all elements and channels, whether it’s a brochure for a particular school, an ad for a student art exhibit, an email to invite prospective students to visit or the alumni magazine. While it is important to consider the unique constraints of audience and situation in crafting individual messages, there should be a general tonal resemblance and a set of common elements evoking New Paltz across the spectrum of communication materials.

A DEGREE...AND AN EDUCATION
This brand concept and our brand attributes should be developed in the copy and may appear as a statement. [See brand attributes]

SOME COPY STYLE DETAILS

HYPHEN:
FOR PHONE NUMBERS
FOR COMBINED WORDS (and all digital applications)

EN DASH: FOR TIME, DATE, ETC. (specifically for print)

EM DASH: ONLY FOR THOUGHT SEPARATOR IN SENTENCE (specifically for print)

DATES
ORDINAL
When the day precedes the month use ordinal words or ordinal numbers if emphasis is needed.

CARDINAL
When the day follows the month use cardinal numbers (Do not use May 1st, or May first, even though those versions reflect the way the date would sound when spoken.)

“DATE” “TIME” “PLACE” (on posters and flyers)
The extra words “date,” “time” and “place” are not necessary to understanding the information. They are actually visual clutter, making it more difficult for the eye to focus on the critical message quickly—especially important on a poster.

TIME
MINUTES
Following AP style, use minutes only if necessary.

AM/PM
Use lower case with periods in text and all formal communication, such as invitations.
Use all caps without periods only on posters/flyers

CLASS YEAR
Do not use a comma between name and year or between undergraduate and graduate years. The graduate designation is a lower case g (no space between the year and the g).

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS
Avoid single lines at the beginning or end of a paragraph, which are left dangling at the top or bottom of a column.

Sometimes confused between which is which, common definitions are:

Widow – A paragraph-ending line that falls at the beginning of the following page or column, thus separated from the rest of the text.

Orphan – A paragraph-opening line that appears by itself at the bottom of a page or column, thus separated from the rest of the text.

Avoid single words on the last line of a paragraph.

LOOK
Visual communication should present the College as welcoming and academically rigorous—evoking New Paltz in the same manner as the copy. To ensure consistency in the visual presentation of our brand messaging there are visual elements that include the College logo, school colors, the color bar, typefaces, strong central image, and hash lines.

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS

NEW PALTZ LOGO
The logo must appear on all collateral. It should appear in the upper left corner for institutional messaging. The logo is placed in the lower right corner with the url and/or tag line for event and program messaging.

- The primary two-color logo should be first choice over one-color or dark background logos whenever possible.
- The logo should be used with a transparent background whenever possible.
- No other logo should be larger than the New Paltz logo.

SCHOOL COLORS
See the section on “Colors” for primary, secondary, and neutral color palette specifications.

THE ATRIUM
The Atrium is the iconic image used to represent New Paltz, as it is a unique identifier and central to student life on campus. Our logo and hash lines reflect and play on the angles of the Atrium, which reflect the mountain and evoke forward movement.

SUNY BRANDMARK
The SUNY brandmark may be used to endorse the campus brand. The circle may be cropped on no more than two sides. When used, we normally place it in the lower left corner.
COLOR BAR

- The color bar is composed of six sections in PMS colors drawn from the primary and secondary palettes: from left to right 281, 165, 639, 7409, 7417 and 583 (evokes diversity and inclusion, important values of the New Paltz community).

- When used, the color bar should appear at the top. It may be the full width of the piece, the width of the image, or shortened to “frame” a key piece of text and draw the eye to the main message.

- The preferred background for the color bar is white. A color block or image background must be a lighter value than any of the sections in the color bar to ensure proper visibility of each section.

- The color bar is most commonly used on posters, online newsletters, and eblasts.

IMAGERY

Images should be candid, depicting some real, unstaged activity/moment at New Paltz. Candid imagery conveys the “Education” portion of “A Degree and an Education”—the experiential, the unique environment, or essence of New Paltz. Additional information is available in the “Photography” section.

- Dynamic, candid people shots
  New Paltz People = New Paltz Voice

- Diversity
BACHELOR'S + MASTER'S PROGRAMS

Programs that provide a pathway to earn a bachelor's and a master's in five years are promoted using the degree, the program names, the "in5" circle, and the "formula." The text must include "five years" (e.g. earn two degrees in five years) to facilitate Google searches for five-year programs; and language to clarify that the graduate program requires application in year three and has criteria that must be met.

LANGUAGE RATIONALE

To be in alignment with SUNY and NYS Education Department (NYSED), these programs are promoted as "bachelor's plus master's programs." Also, research indicates that "4+1" is not common language for these programs.

In SUNY the "5-year" format generally refers to baccalaureate programs, not multi-award programs. The NYSED definition is as follows: "For baccalaureate programs. Indicates that because of the number of credits required, the program is approved as a 5-year program with five-year State student financial aid eligibility." These programs have a single point of entry.

The five-year programs we offer have a second entry point during the initial four years and have two awards.

SPECS
- Bachelor's preceeds master's in text and headings
- Degrees in headings have the plus sign between them, all caps, no periods with space on both sides of the plus sign.
- Degrees preceed the program names
- Program names on cover have a plus sign between them
- "in5" circle follows the program names

NOTE: The circle is the only place where the numeral is used.
- The formula appears on the inside of the undergraduate brochure across the top and above the text in the graduate flyer.

UNDERGRADUATE COLLATERAL
- Folded brochure
- Degrees upper right below bar and above circle
- Program names with plus sign at top
- Orange bar in upper right, blocked to the "in5" circle/degrees, bleed to top
- Formula on inside across top
- Steps in circles on left panel of inside

GRADUATE COLLATERAL
- Flat 8.5 x 11 flyer
- Image bleeds to the top
- Degrees and program names with plus signs upper left
- Orange bar in upper left, blocked to the degrees, bleed to top
- Formula below image
GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate program materials present the degree as the lead message. Design may follow standard campus style with hash lines, logo in lower right, strong images with focus on close, candid photos, etc.

Where appropriate, design may apply the master's degree type treatment. In this case, the degree is set in sans serif bold above New Paltz in lighter text, upper case, with tight leading. This graphic is generally placed in the upper left corner. The College logo must also appear. On a brochure, it may be positioned on the front or back.

Where facilities are important to the message, images should show graduate students working in them whenever possible.

All other recruitment strategies apply, such as showing faculty/student interaction.

Aside from the MFA booklets, graduate program materials are designed as one-sheet flyers. (Undergraduate programs are designed as tri-fold brochures.)

ATRIUM NIGHT SHOT

The night shot of the Atrium is used for graduate marketing materials to evoke the connection with evening classes, which are generally the classes available to, and desired by, graduate students.
FORMS
To ensure brand integrity and ease of use, forms follow specific style parameters.

- Margins 3/8" minimum to 1/2"
- Typeface is Akzidenz Grotesk (alt. is Aria)
- Logo in upper left corner. (Never centered). 2.25" long
- If desired, department name, address, phone and/or url may appear in 10/12 regular below the logo with a .25 rule between them, similar to letterhead.

- Title of form is in 14 pt. bold, upper case, placed in the upper right corner flush right. Any secondary information may be placed below the primary name in lighter type, in upper or lower case, flush right.
- Title never includes the word “form.” It is essentially redundant and leaving it out allows the reader to focus in the essential information of the title.

- Text (always flush left): Body copy 10/12 light; Heads 12/12 bold; Subheads 10/12 bold; Instructions 10/12 italic; text under fill-in lines 8.5/9 light.

- ID or Social Security numbers should be composed of quarter inch boxes. Banner ID numbers should have the N preprinted in the first box. Social Security numbers should have an X preprinted in the first five boxes to comply with privacy policies.

- Check boxes should be used instead of lines, and should be placed before the text it applies to, not after it.

- Tables may be used judiciously for special information, but may not be used for basic information such as name, address, etc..

- Sections should be identified by bold headers in upper case, rather than divider lines, as much as possible. Such lines should be used sparingly, especially on forms with multiple lines to be filled in.
In keeping with sustainability concerns and best practices for digital communication, all campus newsletters are produced online. For branding consistency all newsletter banners have a consistent look.

On this page are screen shots of online newsletters for The School of Business, The School of Education and the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences.

OFFICIAL INSTITUTIONAL MESSAGE

Office of the President

Dear Members of the Campus Community,

Regarding the Headstock Building Complex Housing Dialogue, the Diversity and Inclusion Council has been working diligently to explore all points of view offered and to really understand the range of considerations and sentiments that have been expressed by members of the SUNY New Paltz community, including its alumni, as well as the surrounding community and representatives of Historic Hudson Valley. The Council wants to make sure that the final report reflects the thoughtfulness that they have worked very hard to provide throughout the entire process. Therefore, I am granting the OIC’s request to extend the deadline for submission of the report to May 1.

As I have written before, I will consider the analysis and recommendations of the Council carefully and consult with others, and anticipate finalizing my thinking on this complex issue during the summer for further discussion with the campus community in the fall.

Sincerely,
Donald R. Christian
President

It’s time to become a water saver!

SUNY New Paltz’s Slow the Flow Save H2O water conservation campaign begins October 1st. In late October/early November, the Catamount Aqueduct, which provides water to the Village, the Town, and the College, is shut down for construction this October through December. Please be conscious of water usage around campus!

What can you do to support the Slow the Flow campaign other than becoming a water saver yourself? Invite a student Sustainability Ambassador to give a 5-minute announcement in your class about the Slow the Flow Save H2O Campaign and Competitions between residence halls.

Sign up for a Slow the Flow announcement in your class!

NEWS HUB

The College News Hub collects news releases and posts from around the campus community. News Hub stories are consistent in tone: they conform to AP Style except where otherwise directed by this guide; are generally composed in an objective, journalistic voice; and typically feature images. Visit https://sites.newpaltz.edu/news/ for examples.

Based on feedback from a survey of faculty and staff members conducted in the spring of 2017, the Office of Communication & Marketing made a number of improvements to the College News Hub and the campus news editorial process. A redesigned News Hub launched in January 2018 with a stronger emphasis on stories and powerful visuals, including content that comes directly from campus community members.

Stories on the College News Hub are created with both internal and external audiences in mind. Some articles are designed to disseminate major institutional information that students, faculty and staff need to know; others are press releases about campus events and news targeted at local and national media markets; and some are more light-hearted, meant to showcase the unique successes of our students, faculty, alumni and staff for audiences that include prospective students and their families.

The editorial team strives to source news from all academic departments and professional units on campus, to provide a balanced and diverse presentation of the living and learning environment at SUNY New Paltz.

SUBMIT NEWS

To submit news use the "Submit News" form available online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link.

SIZE AND PLACEMENT OF MARKS

The copyright symbol, or copyright sign, © (a circled capital letter “C”), is the symbol used in copyright notices for works other than sound recordings (which are indicated with the © symbol). This always appear first, followed by the year, then SUNY New Paltz (or State University of New York at New Paltz).

The registered trademark symbol, the encircled R, provides notice that the preceding word or symbol is a trademark or service mark that has been registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. It may only be used with those marks that are registered, and needs to be “displayed with the mark.”

The registration symbol (®) should be placed in upper-right hand corner adjacent to the mark. In text, the symbol should appear directly after the portion of the text that has been registered.

Typically the symbol is placed at a minimum in the first and/or most prominent usage of the mark in collateral. However, the symbol may be used every time when using a trademark.

A trademark is a recognizable sign, design, or expression that identifies products or services of a particular source from those of others, although trademarks used to identify services are usually called service marks.

The TM is not required on unregistered marks, but may be used in the same manner as the registered trademark symbol to provide notice that the mark is filed. It follows the mark as a superscript.
