ABOUT OUR BRAND

On a daily basis, SUNY New Paltz competes for attention with other academic institutions in a world filled with marketing messages from a wide variety and large number of businesses and organizations, both for-profit and non-profit. Reaching our students, supporters and contributors can be quite a challenge. How do we establish our place in the market?

One way is to project a consistent and clear identity—our brand. Simply put, a brand identity is the sum total of all perceived information about us as communicated through our various messages—it is a marketing and communication tool. Every communication, including our name and related marks, contributes to building our brand identity.

This guide has been developed to help us achieve a consistent identity across all communication vehicles as we reflect the essence of the institution, the strength of our offerings and the quality of our programs. The consistent application of these standards will help ensure that your communication vehicle contributes to a unified image that benefits New Paltz through improved awareness, recognition, and professional appearance.

BRAND POSITIONING STATEMENT

New Paltz provides one of the nation’s most open, diverse, and artistic environments in order to prepare students to excel in rapidly changing times that demand creativity and worldliness. Our tradition of intellectual discovery is enhanced by a location of stunning natural beauty, in a dynamic college town, with easy access to New York City. Our unusually wide array of professional and liberal arts majors fosters a rich academic milieu in which students, selected through a competitive admissions process, can develop to their highest potential.

OUR BRAND PROMISE

New Paltz has crafted a collection of internal brand promise statements that serve to encapsulate for its administration, faculty and staff precisely what the institution can promise to its enrolled students. These promise statements are:

1. We deliver an extraordinary number of majors in Business, Liberal Arts, Sciences and Engineering and are particularly well known for our programs in Fine & Performing Arts, and Education.

2. We provide rigorous academics in a highly selective admission environment where students receive and create close personal links with real scholars and artists who love to teach.

3. New Paltz embraces its culture as a community where talented and independent-minded people foster openness, diversity, artistry, and creativity.

4. Our geographic location is stunning in its natural beauty, located in the heart of a dynamic college town, 90 minutes from metropolitan New York City.

5. In keeping with the tradition of the nation’s great public universities, New Paltz is linked to the health and vitality of the region, state, and nation through the education of its citizens.

NOTE

The brand positioning statement, brand promises, and brand attributes should serve as a basis for crafting external communications rather than as exact language. Note that these messages do not constitute a new slogan or tagline. Audience-appropriate communication can tell a consistent University story in different ways to different people. These key messages will help to achieve that.
BRAND ATTRIBUTES
The following brand attributes support New Paltz’s overall institutional brand by publicly and prominently highlighting the essential characteristics of the university experience. We developed the attributes based on findings from an internal assessment survey we conducted with current New Paltz students, faculty, staff and administrators in July 2008. We then tested the attributes among prospects, current students (graduate and undergraduate), employees and alumni to determine which attributes should be primary or secondary messages for New Paltz.

A DEGREE…AND AN EDUCATION
New Paltz students earn a degree that opens doors to lifelong career opportunities. With that degree comes an education—a true preparation that goes beyond the piece of paper. It is a New Paltz education, one that retains lifelong relevance through what is required to achieve it: broad and specific knowledge, exposure to differing perspectives, open-minded inquiry, and a spirit of inventiveness. This is why two national publications have named New Paltz one of the nation’s top leaders in providing university graduates with the best “return on degree investment” over a lifetime.

ENGAGEMENT THROUGH IMPASSIONED TEACHING
The love of learning and a lifelong passion for intellectual and professional growth come from the experiences a student has in close collaboration with an outstanding faculty. Cited for excellence in both teaching and research by SUNY and national and international organizations (New Paltz has been named one of the nation’s top producers of Fulbright scholars for master’s institutions by the U.S. Department of State), New Paltz faculty challenge, encourage and support students to reach higher, achieve greater, think more broadly and develop skills that serve students well, long after graduation.

CREATIVE ENVIRONMENT OF DISCOVERY
Creativity permeates campus life at New Paltz. The learning atmosphere has an air of imaginative inquiry that bridges all academic endeavors. The faculty encourages students to question, experiment, and discover in ways that lead to innovative thinking. Beyond the classroom, students discover the endless possibilities that exist within a diverse community and the opportunities for scholarship and leadership that will serve them well for their future professional and personal lives.

A LOCATION FOR LIFE
SUNY New Paltz is located at the nexus of the best of yesterday, today and tomorrow—a dynamic community in a stunning natural setting, surrounded by the history and culture of the American story and poised to serve as the educational and research leader for the technologies of the future—notably solar energy and 3D printing, with the spirit of entrepreneurship at the heart of it all. The Hudson Valley corridor, from New York City to Albany, affords New Paltz students with a vibrant and dynamic laboratory to use for research, investigation, appreciation, and enjoyment.

COME AS YOU ARE
New Paltz warmly welcomes students of diverse backgrounds, cultures, perspectives and ambitions. It is the ideal environment for students to explore and flourish, in a community that encourages and supports each student to seek a higher level of scholarship. Students bring their own intellectual experiences and expand on them in close collaboration with a learned faculty and through mentored and sponsored independent study and research activities, enhancing their education beyond the classroom. This comprehensive educational experience allows each New Paltz student to “come as you are” and leave prepared to excel in a rapidly changing world.

ABOUT THE LOGO

The official New Paltz logo is a mark consisting of a customized icon, typography and color. The strength of the icon for the University is in its ability to be interpreted in many ways. Our focus group participants told us it suggested “the mountain,” “the new Student Union addition [The Atrium],” and “an open door.” It was seen as progressive and future oriented. All of these are reflective of the elements of our positioning statement—focus on our very appealing location, our student centeredness, and accessibility, all in a creative and forward moving environment.

The exact arrangement and proportion may not be altered in any way.

PRIMARY LOGO

ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND

The two-color horizontal logo is meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

PRIMARY LOGO

ON A DARK BACKGROUND

ALL APPLICATIONS—INCLUDING APPAREL AND OTHER FABRIC APPLICATIONS

The logo should be reproduced in white on a dark background. White plus orange (PANTONE 165) may be used only on a blue background.

DOWNLOAD

High res logos are available online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link.
SECONDARY LOGO

ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND

The two-color vertical logo is designed only for applications where the format or layout makes it difficult to use the primary (horizontal) logo effectively. Every effort should be made to use the primary logo.

The secondary (vertical) logo is meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

ON A DARK BACKGROUND:

ALL APPLICATIONS – INCLUDING APPAREL AND OTHER FABRIC APPLICATIONS

The logo should be reproduced in white on a dark background. White plus orange (PANTONE 165) may be used only on a blue background.
To facilitate the size requirements of stitching in embroidery and maintain readability, the proportions of the type to the icon have been adjusted and the “State University of New York” line removed. The color options remain the same as for the primary logo.

ON A LIGHT BACKGROUND

The embroidery logo is also meant to be reproduced in two colors. When that is not possible, it may be reproduced in one color, either blue (PANTONE 281), orange (PANTONE 165) or all black.

ON A DARK BACKGROUND

On dark backgrounds the embroidery logo may be reproduced in white. On a blue background it may be reproduced in white and orange. In the two-color versions the triangle is in 165, with the top of the icon and New Paltz in white.
LOGO WITH DEPARTMENT NAME
The New Paltz logo may have a department name below it in the horizontal format.

LETTERHEAD
The logo is 2.5" long. It is positioned .375" from the top and the left.

A fine rule (.25 pt. stroke) separates the logo from the department name—blue PMS 281.

The department name is 10/12 pt. Akzidenz Grotesk regular, upper and lower case—blue PMS 281. It is aligned flush left to the "N" in New Paltz (as is all other copy in the body of the letter).

All stationery must be ordered through Design Services or Print Services.

OTHER PRINT COLLATERAL
On brochures, flyers, ads, posters, etc. the department name may be up to half the height of the capital letter N in New Paltz in Akzidenz Grotesk regular.

Names should not exceed the length of the “New Paltz” line by more than 50%

Long names may be split onto two lines.

Garamond Pro may be used on note cards or other formal communication.

SIZE
Horizontal logos may not be reproduced smaller than 1.5" measuring from the left side of the icon to the end of the “State University of New York New Paltz” line.
LOGO INTEGRITY

SIZE

The logos may be enlarged or reduced in size as required. The minimum size of any mark is often determined by the method of reproduction or fabrication. The minimum size, using optimal reproduction methods, can be measured by the length of the horizontal New Paltz logo at 1” and the vertical logo at .75”. Using less than optimal reproduction methods, the logo should only be used at a size that does not compromise quality and legibility.

No other logo on the same page with the SUNY New Paltz logo should be larger than the SUNY New Paltz logo.

SPECIALIZED MARKS

For applications smaller than the minimum size, use either of these specialized marks. These “small” logos are designed primarily for online applications within social media.

CLEAR SPACE

For the logo to communicate effectively, it should not be crowded or overwhelmed by other elements. “Clear space” refers to the area surrounding the mark that should be kept free from visual distraction. No graphic element or text of any kind should be placed within this clear space. The recommended clear space is equal to the letter “e” in the New Paltz wordmark ($X = \text{height of letter e}$) as shown.
LOGO USAGE

Consistent and proper usage of the logo is essential for ensuring the desired perception of New Paltz. The integrity of the New Paltz brand diminishes when the logos are incorrectly applied. Unauthorized versions and unacceptable usage of the logo place their legal protection at risk. Improper usage is confusing and could possibly lead to the eventual loss of copyright.

LOGO USE VIOLATIONS

The logos may not be altered in any way. Any variation or alteration, however small, is unacceptable. Several examples of incorrect usage are shown on this page. If you are faced with using the logo in an application that you find questionable or not included in this manual, please contact Design Services.

- DO NOT change the colors.
- DO NOT outline any part of the logo or apply any effects (drop shadow, 3-D, textures, bevel, glow, etc).
- DO NOT rearrange the components.
- DO NOT distort the logo or scale it disproportionately.
- DO NOT fill the logo with a photograph or any other pattern or texture.
- DO NOT turn the logo sideways, rotate or tilt it.
- DO NOT produce the orange logo on a blue background, or the blue on orange.
- DO NOT cut off (bleed) the logo. The only exception is the official SUNY New Paltz business card.
- DO NOT use the icon alone as a logo. It may be used in specific applications with the approval of Design Services.
LOGO POLICY

Consistency in use of the identity standards enhances the collective strength of the University’s identity. Consequently, all areas of the University must use the approved University logos according to the guidelines set forth in our style guides. Our primary, secondary, and ancillary logos are outlined in this style guide. The approved subbrands described on this page have individual standards outlined in separate style guides: The Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art, The Benjamin Center and New Paltz Hawks Athletics.

Specific photographs or symbols may be used consistently in marketing materials for a department or program, but may not replace use of the University logo. Examples: Old Main Building for the School of Education, the clock tower for the School of Business and a photo or drawing of Sojourner Truth for the Sojourner Truth Library.

ANCILLARY LOGOS

Ancillary logos may be developed only by the Office of Communication & Marketing with approval of the Vice President for Communication based on the following criteria:

Fundraising and/or membership groups may be considered for an ancillary logo when a stand-alone identity is determined beneficial to the function of that group. Examples: Lantern Society, Friends of the Library, Tower Society.

Events with a strong external focus and annual activities, which include public advertising and ticket sales, may request development of specialized mark or an ancillary logo. Examples: Distinguished Speakers Series, PianoSummer, 40 Under Forty.

Institutes and special operations within the University may use an ancillary logo, as they are resources to the community, which aid in our regional impact. Examples: the John R. Kirk Planetarium, The Business Institute, Institute for Disaster Mental Health and the Institute for International Business.

An ancillary logo is designed to reflect the University branding, and therefore stand alone. The University logo should not appear with it.

WORDMARK

Programs such as lecture series and other activities that have repeated events, demonstrate a connection to the campus strategic plan, and align with our brand attributes may request a wordmark to be developed by Communication & Marketing.

SUBBRANDS

Logos and identity systems for approved subbrands may be developed only by the Office of Communication & Marketing with approval of the Vice President for Communication.

Each subbrand logo is designed to coordinate with University branding, and therefore stand alone. The University logo should not appear with it.

USE OF LOGOS

All University logos as described in this style guide may be used by offices/departments of the University for official University business only. Logos may be provided to outside agencies to identify the University as a sponsor of an event, with permission from the Office of Communication & Marketing. Because the University logo is the symbol for official University business, other groups such as student clubs and organizations may not use the University logo.

USE OF LOGO/ICON WITH ADDITIONAL TEXT

• The icon may be used for retail purposes in conjunction with identity and compatible typefaces only.

• Typefaces other than identity and compatible approved typefaces may be used in retail applications as appropriate to the event or program as long as they are used alone. That is, they are not to be used in conjunction with the icon.*

* All retail applications must have authorization from the Office of Communication & Marketing/Design Services. See the page on contact information at the end of this guide.

THE BENJAMIN CENTER
The Benjamin Center logo is the key to the identity system that was created to identify the Center as a regional resource within the University while maintaining a connection with the University logo and brand. It was unveiled at a launch ceremony on September 30, 2015.
ATHLETIC MARKS
Hawk logos were developed to identify our teams visually; to promote strength, character and energy; and to make a strong and consistent statement that promotes school spirit. They are intended for use by Athletics, Wellness & Recreation for intercollegiate athletic teams, and by the campus community for the promotion of school spirit. This identity system includes the hawk head, several wordmarks and monograms.

STUDENT CLUBS
Sports clubs may use logos designed specifically for them. They incorporate the hawk in a format designed to identify them separately from the intercollegiate teams. They are available through Athletics, Wellness & Recreation.

HUGO
A caricature of our mascot is available for student groups and others on campus to use in the promotion of school spirit. Contact Athletics for information.

INDIVIDUAL STANDARDS
The Athletic Identity Graphic Standards style guide is managed by the Office of Communication & Marketing in consultation with Athletics.

The UPD logo is used alone on official police business documents such as appearance tickets and arrest reports as long as SUNY New Paltz is identified in text on the document.

The UPD logo may be used in conjunction with the University logo as appropriate, generally not combined as one logo.

PATCH
The UPD patch is used on uniforms and some print collateral.
NEW PALTZ SEAL
The New Paltz seal is used primarily for formal and official documents such as diplomas, legal and official records, transcripts and programs for formal academic ceremonies, and any other legal agreements binding the University.

The seal is only to be reproduced with the primary University colors orange (PMS 165) and blue (PMS 281), or black. Gold and/or silver foil stamping is also permitted.

SUNY SEAL
The SUNY seal is reserved for special events, ceremonies, or representing the heritage of The State University of New York. It is not for general use.

The seal may only be reproduced in the official colors gold (PMS 116) and blue (PMS 294), black, or reversed out for a solid color, according to the SUNY Seal Guidelines.

SUNY LOGO
The SUNY logo is provided to each unit for co-branding. It should appear on all recruitment materials, and may be cropped to bleed according to the SUNY Brand Guidelines.

The school colors of blue and orange can be traced back as far as 1895. The June issue of The Normal Review that year included an article reporting that “...a committee consisting of members of the Faculty and students devoted their best energies to selecting school song, colors, yell, pin and flower.”

The alma mater sung today includes a reference “To the Orange and the Blue.” It goes back at least to 1913, when it was published in that year’s yearbook.

ALMA MATER
In a valley fair and beautiful
Guarded well by mount and hill
Beats a heart whose pulse is rich and full
Of life, and pow'r, and thrill.
We love thee, Alma Mater dear.
To thee our hearts are true.
And we'll sing with voices strong and clear
To the Orange and the Blue.
New Paltz, forever our Alma Mater,
We raise our song to thee.
The hills re-echo with glad crescendo
Our praises full and free.

Over the years, various shades and hues of blue and orange came into and out of use, and in 2002 a campus-wide group was asked to provide input to the Cabinet regarding clarification of the colors. Their recommendation was to follow the historical record for a dark blue and orange. Pantone Matching System colors were specified as 281 blue and 165 orange, and approved in October of that year.

Excerpts from our brand attributes developed in 2008 attest to the appropriateness of blue and orange as our school colors:

• A SUNY New Paltz degree comes with an education, one that retains lifelong relevance through what is required to achieve it: broad and specific knowledge, exposure to differing perspectives, open-minded inquiry, and a spirit of inventiveness.

• New Paltz faculty challenge, encourage, and support students to reach higher, achieve greater, think more broadly, and develop skills that serve students well, long after graduation.

• Creativity permeates campus life at New Paltz. The learning atmosphere has an air of imaginative inquiry that bridges all academic endeavors.

• New Paltz warmly welcomes students of diverse backgrounds, cultures, perspectives and ambitions. It is the ideal environment for students to explore and flourish, in a community that encourages and supports each student to seek a higher level of scholarship.

• This comprehensive educational experience allows each New Paltz student to “come as you are” and leave prepared to excel in a rapidly changing world.
The University's primary colors are PANTONE 281 and 165. Equivalent values for CMYK, RGB and HEX are listed under each swatch. Consistent use of these colors builds brand recognition and colors in the logo must not be altered.

Note:
There are many factors that can influence accurate color reproduction. In printing these include paper stock, ink coverage and line screen. For merchandise, the materials and types of inks are very different from printed paper. Web and other screen applications employ light, which is altogether different. It is important to use the equivalent colors in order to remain as true as possible to our school colors (PANTONE 281 and 165).

PANTONE
The Pantone Matching System is a widely used system of color specifications. Printers follow specific formulas for mixing ink, providing consistency and accuracy from design to print, and from print to reprint. This is often referred to as flat color or spot color.

CMYK
The three hues of cyan, magenta and yellow are used with black in process color reproduction. This is referred to as full color or four color process.

RGB
Red, green and blue are the hues for light, used on the screen.

HEX
Hexidecimal code is for use in HTML, CSS and other Web applications.

Note: Many of these colors have the potential to cause contrast concerns based on the rules established in the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.0 AA. See p. 21 for alternative color choices for web applications.

THE COLORS SHOWN ON THIS AND OTHER PAGES WITHIN THIS MANUAL SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR COLOR MATCHING. USE ACTUAL COLOR CHIPS OR USE REFERENCE NUMBERS ABOVE FOR ACCURATE COLOR MATCHING.

PANTONE IS A REGISTERED TRADEMARK OF PANTONE, INC.
The University adheres to all WCAG 2.0 AA standards, which include a specific algorithm for color contrast requirements. Certain colors within the standard New Paltz color palette, including primary and secondary orange and some secondary blue colors (see p. 20), violate the standard for color contrast when used as a text color on a white or other light background. Additional replacement colors and their pantone, CMYK, and hexadecimal values are shown on this page. These replacement colors can be used in most instances where orange or other colors have been used in past applications.
CAPTURING THE NEW PALTZ STORY
Images help tell the New Paltz story and express the feel of the campus visually. We do this through the use of dynamic, candid shots of students, photographs of student and faculty collaboration, and diversity and inclusivity of our campus community. New Paltz people are the New Paltz voice, and strong images of the New Paltz community express the qualities of the University best. When possible, capture the New Paltz logo in photographs, such as on podiums or backdrops, to reinforce our brand and help tell the story.

ASSET LIBRARY
The Office of Communication & Marketing maintains an extensive library of images taken by on- and off-campus professionals. High-quality images are critical in order to uphold the integrity of the New Paltz brand, and consistency in photographic style and quality is essential for a successful identity. Only photographs with the appropriate resolution for the output will be used.

PERMISSION/MODEL RELEASE
Written permission and model releases are not required for campus photography, as students have an opt-out option available to them. Photographs of children require written parental permission with no exceptions.

COPYRIGHT
Copyrighted material may not be altered without written permission of the copyright holder. Photographs taken by SUNY New Paltz staff and freelancers hired by SUNY New Paltz should be considered copyrighted materials of SUNY New Paltz.

CREDIT

COVERAGE
The Office of Communication & Marketing offers photography coverage at events or for marketing materials. To request photography services, fill out the Photography Services Request Form at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication and Marketing link.
OVERALL OBJECTIVE
It is vital that our communication efforts are integrated in a unified voice and visual presentation that is instantly recognizable as emanating from New Paltz.

BRANDING GOAL
We will present New Paltz in a dynamic, engaging, truthful way that reflects its culture and unique personality.

TONE
The tone of the copy should evoke the New Paltz identity as forthright, impassioned, curious, creative and inclusive. This is best accomplished by sharing news and telling stories from the perspective of the active, engaged principals—the students, faculty, alumni, staff and community members who define “New Paltz” with their actions, their voices and their ideas.

This approach can be used across all elements and channels, whether it’s a brochure for a particular school, an ad for a student art exhibit, an email to invite prospective students to visit or the alumni magazine. While it is important to consider the unique constraints of audience and situation in crafting individual messages, there should be a general tonal resemblance and a set of common elements evoking New Paltz across the spectrum of communication materials.

A DEGREE...AND AN EDUCATION
This brand concept and our brand attributes should be developed in the copy and may appear as a statement. [See brand attributes]

DATES

ORDINAL

When the day precedes the month use ordinal words or ordinal numbers if emphasis is needed.

CARDINAL

When the day follows the month use cardinal numbers (Do not use May 1st, or May first, even though those versions reflect the way the date would sound when spoken.)

"DATE" "TIME" "PLACE" (on posters and flyers)

The extra words "date," "time" and "place" are not necessary to understanding the information. They are actually visual clutter, making it more difficult for the eye to focus on the critical message quickly—especially important on a poster.

SERIAL COMMA
In publications other than media relations products, such as news releases, media relations-oriented Web content, and other periodicals, the serial comma may be used for clarity as long as it is used consistently within the document.

See the "Punctuation" entry in the Editorial Style Guide.

EXAMPLES
UNCLEAR: To my parents, Ann and Joe.
CLEAR: To my parents, Ann, and Joe.

NOT:
Copyrighted material may not be altered without written permission of the copyright holder.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS
Avoid single lines at the beginning or end of a paragraph, which are left dangling at the top or bottom of a column.

Sometimes confused between which is which, common definitions are:
Widow – A paragraph-ending line that falls at the beginning of the following page or column, thus separated from the rest of the text.
Orphan – A paragraph-opening line that appears by itself at the bottom of a page or column, thus separated from the rest of the text.

Avoid single words on the last line of a paragraph.

COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL
Copyrighted material may not be altered. Photographs taken by SUNY New Paltz staff

UNIVERSITY NAME
Keep New Paltz together. Do not split it between two lines.
CLASS YEAR
Do not use a comma between name and year or between undergraduate and graduate years. The graduate designation is a lower case g (no space between the year and the g). Majors are added in brackets after the class year.

EXAMPLES
John Smith '20 (History)
Jane Brown '16 '18g (Computer Science)
Chris Dell '15 (Music) '17g (Music Therapy)

DEGREES
Lower case except when directly preceeding or following a name.
Singular apostrophe.
Capitalize when formal.
No periods in abbreviations.
Comma after a person’s name and their degree.

New Paltz offers:

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES
BA = Bachelor of Arts

TONE & LOOK

REGIONAL AD

TRAVEL GUIDE AD

LOOK
Visual communication should present the University as welcoming and academically rigorous—evoking New Paltz in the same manner as the copy. To ensure consistency in the visual presentation of our brand messaging there are visual elements that include the University logo, school colors, the color bar, typefaces, strong central image, and hash lines.

GRAPHIC ELEMENTS

NEW PALTZ LOGO
The logo must appear on all collateral. It should appear in the upper left corner for institutional messaging. The logo is placed in the lower right corner with the url and/or tag line for event and program messaging.

- The primary two-color logo should be first choice over one-color or dark background logos whenever possible.
- The logo should be used with a transparent background whenever possible.
- No other logo should be larger than the New Paltz logo.

SCHOOL COLORS
See the section on “Colors” for primary, secondary, and neutral color palette specifications.

THE ATRIUM
The Atrium is the iconic image used to represent New Paltz, as it is a unique identifier and central to student life on campus. Our logo and hash lines reflect and play on the angles of the Atrium, which reflect the mountain and evoke forward movement.

SUNY BRANDMARK
The SUNY brandmark may be used to endorse the campus brand. The circle may be cropped on no more than two sides. When used, we normally place it in the lower left corner.
COLOR BAR

• The color bar is composed of six sections in PMS colors drawn from the primary and secondary palettes: from left to right 281, 165, 639, 7409, 7417 and 583 (evokes diversity and inclusion, important values of the New Paltz community)

• When used, the color bar should appear at the top. It may be the full width of the piece, the width of the image, or shortened to “frame” a key piece of text and draw the eye to the main message.

• The preferred background for the color bar is white. A color block or image background must be a lighter value than any of the sections in the color bar to ensure proper visibility of each section.

IMAGERY

Images should be candid, depicting some real, unstaged activity/moment at New Paltz. Candid imagery conveys the “Education” portion of “A Degree and an Education”—the experiential, the unique environment, or essence of New Paltz. Additional information is available in the “Photography” section.

• Dynamic, candid people shots

• Hash lines are meant to be subtle and not overpower the image.

This NEW program offers a fast track to the BA and MA degrees in English. Students can earn undergraduate and graduate credits as students on the traditional track. Students enrolled in the program complete 10 graduate-level credits and have the option to complete a faculty-advised thesis, to enable students to thrive in the established mentoring relationships with faculty. The program can help you develop a highly marketable and flexible skill set that will equip you to work alongside peers who are similarly engaged. Students working together form a community of students who are passionate about learning, prepared for an advanced curriculum and seeking to open a world of opportunities.

The bachelor’s + master’s in English program is designed to help students accelerate to fulfilling careers in a variety of fields such as education, the arts, and business. The program is approved as a 5-year program with five-year State student financial aid eligibility. This five-year program is promoted as "bachelor’s plus master’s programs." Also, research indicates that "4+1" is not common language for these programs. In SUNY the “5-year” format generally refers to baccalaureate programs, not multi-award programs. The NYSED definition is as follows: “For baccalaureate programs. Indicates that because of the number of credits required, the program is approved as a 5-year program with five-year State student financial aid eligibility.” These programs have a single point of entry. The five-year programs we offer have a second entry point during the initial four years and have two awards.

BACHELOR’S + MASTER’S PROGRAMS

Programs that provide a pathway to earn a bachelor’s and a master’s in five years are promoted using the degree, the program names, the "in5" circle, and the "formula." The text must include "five years" (e.g. earn two degrees in five years) to facilitate Google searches for five-year programs; and language to clarify that the graduate program requires application in year three and has criteria that must be met.

LANGUAGE RATIONALE
To be in alignment with SUNY and NYS Education Department (NYSED), these programs are promoted as "bachelor's plus master's programs." Also, research indicates that "4+1" is not common language for these programs.

In SUNY the “5-year” format generally refers to baccalaureate programs, not multi-award programs. The NYSED definition is as follows: “For baccalaureate programs. Indicates that because of the number of credits required, the program is approved as a 5-year program with five-year State student financial aid eligibility.” These programs have a single point of entry.

The five-year programs we offer have a second entry point during the initial four years and have two awards.
GRADUATE PROGRAMS

Graduate program materials present the degree as the lead message. Design may follow standard campus style with hash lines, logo in lower right, strong images with focus on close, candid photos, etc.

Where appropriate, design may apply the master’s degree type treatment. In this case, the degree is set in sans serif bold above New Paltz in lighter text, upper case, with tight leading. This graphic is generally placed in the upper left corner. The University logo must also appear. On a brochure, it may be positioned on the front or back.

Where facilities are important to the message, images should show graduate students working in them whenever possible.

All other recruitment strategies apply, such as showing faculty/student interaction.

Aside from the MFA booklets, graduate program materials are designed as one-sheet flyers. (Undergraduate programs are designed as tri-fold brochures.)

ATRIUM NIGHT SHOT

The night shot of the Atrium is used for graduate marketing materials to evoke the connection with evening classes, which are generally the classes available to, and desired by, graduate students.
In keeping with sustainability concerns and best practices for digital communication, all campus newsletters are produced online. For branding consistency all newsletter banners have a consistent look.

On this page are screen shots of online newsletters for Strategic Planning and Assessment and The College of Liberal Arts & Sciences.
POWERPOINT
Templates are available online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link.

File names include keys to the type of PowerPoint:
"hashlines" or "ruleline" indicate style
"bottom" or "top" indicate placement of the logo
"blue" indicates solid blue background

size in ratio is indicated as:
"std4.3" for 4:3 ratio
"wide" for widescreen or 16:9 ratio
"16.10" for 16:10 ratio

NOTE: 16:10 is used in most classroom AV systems with projectors.

Use of proper size for the presentation will avoid distortion of the logo, which happens when a PowerPoint is resized.
CAMPUS VEHICLES

THE FLEET
All campus vehicles are marked with the University logo. The two-color logo is used on white vehicles, and the white logo is used on any dark color vehicles. The logo is placed to fit on the door, and must not cross panels. No department names are used on campus vehicles.

FIRE SAFETY
Vehicles are marked with the University logo on the doors and have "FIRE SAFETY" in red block letters on the hood and tailgate or trunk.

UNIVERSITY POLICE
Vehicles are marked with police-style graphics approved by the Office of Communication & Marketing.
For a successful college identity, the consistency of all materials, including the stationery system, is critical. All stationery must be ordered through Design Services or Print Services.

New Paltz stationery is printed in PANTONE 281 and PANTONE 165 on 24# Mohawk Via Smooth Writing stock.

The generic letterhead is available in electronic format online at my.newpaltz.edu in the Communication & Marketing link. Departmental electronic letterhead may be ordered through Design Services.

Do not use electronic letterhead as a template to produce correspondence in print. Variations in color and quality output can negatively affect institutional brand.

Use official typefaces for body copy if available (Akzidenz Grotesk or Adobe Garamond Pro). Otherwise, use Arial or Times.

Do not use photocopied stationery for official correspondence.
DEPARTMENTAL STATIONERY
Requests for departmental stationery may be placed with Design Services. It is important for the integrity of the brand identity that the departmental name appears in the typeface, Akzidenz Grotesk. You may not insert your departmental name in any other typeface.

Those who work an 8-hour day will have no change in meal period but may work different hours, depending on the operating needs of their department. For classified staff employees represented by PSENY and NYSCORA, there will be no change in work hours or meal period.

Professional, exempt full-time employees represented by CUP are expected to continue to perform their full professional obligation, which may include coverage during the core office hours.

Non-exempt and/or part-time professional employees should discuss the effect of the core hours change with their immediate supervisor. Any questions may be directed to your immediate supervisor.

The current Telecommuting Vist Program has a summer date of Dec. 31, 2022. Employees with approved telecommuting plans on file may continue to observe the approved plan. Any update on the status of the current telecommuting program past Dec. 31 will be communicated as soon as that information becomes available.

Working all members of our community a safe, healthy, and joyous holiday season.

SPECIAL EBLAST
The University News Hub collects news releases and posts from around the campus community. News Hub stories are consistent in tone: they conform to AP Style except where otherwise directed by this guide; are generally composed in an objective, journalistic voice; and typically feature images. Visit https://sites.newpaltz.edu/news/ for examples.

Based on feedback from a survey of faculty and staff members conducted in the spring of 2017, the Office of Communication & Marketing made a number of improvements to the University News Hub and the campus news editorial process. A redesigned News Hub launched in January 2018 with a stronger emphasis on stories and powerful visuals, including content that comes directly from campus community members.

Stories on the University News Hub are created with both internal and external audiences in mind. Some articles are designed to disseminate major institutional information that students, faculty and staff need to know; others are press releases about campus events and news targeted at local and national media markets; and some are more light-hearted, meant to showcase the unique successes of our students, faculty, alumni and staff for audiences that include prospective students and their families.

The editorial team strives to source news from all academic departments and professional units on campus, to provide a balanced and diverse presentation of the living and learning environment at SUNY New Paltz.

SOCIAL MEDIA

The Office of Communication & Marketing is excited to help departments and offices across campus tell the New Paltz story on social media. These standards help keep our official accounts branded, consistent with strategic messaging, and secure.

CREATING A SOCIAL MEDIA STRATEGY

Our team is available to help you define your goals and identify the social media platforms and techniques to help you achieve them. Please contact our Assistant Director of Marketing & Social Media John Oles (olesj@newpaltz.edu) for an initial meeting before setting up any social media accounts. Our team can help you evaluate what platforms will work best for your department, and whether posting through existing New Paltz accounts may be the best way to deliver your message to the greatest number of followers.

1. Identify your target audience: Your target audience may include current and prospective students, as well as parents, faculty/staff, alumni, members of the general public and donors.

2. Define your goals: The goals of your social media strategy should be to increase awareness of your program, department or organization, educate the community on ways they can join or get involved, and encourage engagement.

3. Choose the right platforms: The most effective platforms for reaching your target audience may vary. For parents, faculty and staff, Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter work well. For current and prospective students, you’ll want to use Instagram. If you have interest in TikTok, please contact John Oles to collaborate on creating content for the main SUNY New Paltz TikTok account.

4. Create a content calendar: Plan out a content calendar that includes a mix of educational posts, exciting updates, and invitations for others to engage with your account.

5. Engage with your audience: Encourage engagement by asking questions, hosting polls, and responding to comments.

6. Monitor analytics: Use analytics on each platform to track the success of the social media strategy and make adjustments as needed.

7. Collaborate with other departments: Collaborate with other departments on campus to share content and reach a wider audience.

8. Use visually appealing and branded media: Attractive photos and compelling videos increase engagement and make the content more shareable. Try to stay away from posting too many event flyers to your account.

9. Be consistent: A regular, steady posting schedule and tone helps build trust and engagement with the audience.

10. Keep it simple: Your core message should be easy to understand, while staying on brand and relevant to the target audience to ensure the highest engagement.

To learn more, please visit our “Best Practices” guide: www.newpaltz.edu/ocm/best-practices/. The short guide online is intended to help faculty and staff understand how to use social media to broadcast important information to your intended audiences in a fun and engaging way.

SIZE AND PLACEMENT OF MARKS

©
The copyright symbol, or copyright sign, © (a circled capital letter “C”), is the symbol used in copyright notices for works other than sound recordings (which are indicated with the © symbol). This always appear first, followed by the year, then SUNY New Paltz.

R
The registered trademark symbol, the encircled R, provides notice that the preceding word or symbol is a trademark or service mark that has been registered with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. It may only be used with those marks that are registered, and needs to be “displayed with the mark.”

The registration symbol (®) should be placed in upper-right hand corner adjacent to the mark. In text, the symbol should appear directly after the portion of the text that has been registered.

Typically the symbol is placed at a minimum in the first and/or most prominent usage of the mark in collateral. However, the symbol may be used every time when using a trademark.

TM
A trademark is a recognizable sign, design, or expression that identifies products or services of a particular source from those of others, although trademarks used to identify services are usually called service marks.

The TM is not required on unregistered marks, but may be used in the same manner as the registered trademark symbol to provide notice that the mark is filed. It follows the mark as a superscript.
