Thinking about withdrawing from a course this semester?

Sunday, November 6 is the last day to submit your request to withdraw from a COURSE. Withdrawal from part of term courses can be found here.

Are you sure withdrawing in the right move? Get the facts!

Before withdrawing from a course, speak with your course instructor and advisor. You might discover that there are options for successfully completing the course. Your advisor can help you determine if a course withdrawal will impact your spring 2023 registration plans or plans for timely graduation.

Both Student Accounts and Student Financial Services can help you determine if the course withdrawal will have a negative effect on your aid status.
