Finishing your degree in the spring 2023 semester?

Are you finishing in May 2023? Degree applications for May 2023 degree conferral were due January 1. If you submitted the application already, you do not need to submit it again.

Missed the deadline?

No worries. We can still accept it. APPLY NOW!

The application will take less than one minute to complete. Go to my.newpaltz.edu > Graduation > Degree Application

May degrees are dated with the last day of the fall semester, May 19, 2023.

Students who submit applications after April 1 for May degree conferral will not have their names listed in the commencement program.

Degree application review

After you submit your degree application, we review your academic record and compare it to information on your progress report. If we find any deficiencies, we send an email to your New Paltz email address. It is important that you act on those notices as soon as possible to avoid delays to degree conferral.

Your transcript will be updated to show the degree awarded right after the degree is conferred, which can take up to two weeks after all grades are posted. Diplomas are mailed up to 6 weeks after conferral.

How will I find out about the commencement ceremony?

The Commencement Office will invite you to attend the May 2023 ceremony. Make sure to start checking your New Paltz email account starting in Spring 2023. You can also check out their website for updates.
