Intersession 1 (The days between summer sessions)

MEAL PLANS

Every student living on campus is required to buy a meal plan during the days that classes are in session.

- The total meal charge is determined based the number of weeks that classes are in session during your specific summer session.
- Some summer sessions may run a little shorter or longer than an exact number of weeks. For example, a session 5 weeks and 2 days instead of exactly 5 weeks. The meal plan charge will be adjusted should this be the case.
- Students taking classes during two different summer sessions:
  - If you let us know above that you need to live on campus during an intersession between summer classes, you have the option to eat on campus during those off days.

If you are staying during an intersession between classes, would you like to purchase a meal plan for those off days?
