See the MULTIPLE BENEFITS below!

WHAT IS SEFA AND WHY SHOULD I PARTICIPATE?

SEFA (State Employees Federated Appeal) is managed by a committee of SUNY New Paltz volunteers. SEFA provides ALL New York State Employees (CSEA, UUP, PEF, COUNCIL 82, etc.) the opportunity to support your choice of local, national and international nonprofit organizations all year long through payroll deduction. Whether you like to donate to community service, health, environmental or other causes, SEFA offers an easy and effective way to make your charitable contributions. (Research Foundation employees can participate by submitting a one-time pledge by check to “SEFA.”)

Reap some of the MULTIPLE BENEFITS contributors enjoy:

• Be a part of something big, really big! Collectively we donated over $35,000 last year!
• Inclusion in 26 payday SEFA raffle prize drawings!
• Simplify your charitable giving by donating to numerous organizations through one gift.
• Research now shows that giving is good for your health and can result in a longer life!

WHAT DO I DO NEXT?

1.) Pick any agency(ies) of your choice by going to www.newpaltz.edu/sefa for the online link. You can even search by type of service provided by using the “Charity Lookup Tool” on www.newpaltz.edu/sefa.

2.) Complete the form on the reverse side of this page OR see #4 below to give online. (Even if you participated last year, there is no longer a continuous giving option. You need to complete this form each year.)

3.) Return the completed form in the envelope provided by November 30, 2016, or 4.) Pledge online at giveattheoffice.org/_nyssefa (If you gave online in 2016 your info is stored.) Please note that you can no longer make one time donations online.

Thank you in advance for your support!

If you have any questions call the SEFA Campaign Managers, Sarah Roberson at x3112 or Gerry Torrone at x3155. Special thanks to the additional SUNY New Paltz SEFA Committee members: Lorna Platt, Maria Cathcart, Peter Kaufman, Heather Jones and Malinda Slayton Cruz.

Be part of something good. Please participate. No gift is too small to make an impact!
