

State University of New York at New Paltz
Policy on Proposals submitted without Institutional Approval

Only designated institutional representatives are authorized to endorse sponsored project activities that commit the use of SUNY New Paltz and Research Foundation resources. In instances where a proposal was submitted without institutional approval, the Office of Sponsored Programs will consult with senior leadership in the relevant department or School and with the Provost on appropriate action. The College may contact the sponsor to withdraw the proposal or decline any resulting award.