SUNY New Paltz event focus is affordable healthcare

Wednesday, October 30, 2013

NEW PALTZ >> The Center for Research, Regional Education and Outreach at SUNY New Paltz will host an open information session on “NY State of Health,” an online marketplace offering New Yorkers a gateway to affordable healthcare, on Thursday, Nov. 7, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., Student Union Building Multipurpose Room, on the New Paltz campus.

Presented by the Maternal-Infant Services Network, a local not-for-profit providing health exchange navigator services in Dutchess, Orange, Putnam, Sullivan, and Ulster counties, the session will provide essential cost-savings facts, financial assistance, and explain how to get enrollment assistance.

The session will also offer information and assistance on new coverage options for small businesses, individuals, and families. Uninsured and underinsured individuals, families, and employers with fewer than 50 employees are encouraged to attend.

To preregister contact (845) 257-2901 or send an email to creo@newpaltz.edu. Walk-ins are welcome.
