New Paltz event on April 23 will explore future of Wallkill River

Monday, March 23, 2015

WHAT: Event, "The Future of the Wallkill"

WHEN: April 23 from 4 to 8 p.m.

WHEN: Student Union Building at State University of New York at New Paltz, 1 Hawk Drive, New Paltz

DETAILS: The Center for Research, Regional Education and Outreach at SUNY New Paltz is hosting an event to bring attention to the Wallkill River, one of the Hudson River's largest tributaries. The event is designed to build public support for restoration efforts on the river and begin to define both a publicly supported vision for the future of the river and steps that can be taken in the short and long term to achieve that vision. There will be talks and engagement with the audience in an exchange of ideas about the river and its future. The event registration fee is $10, due at check-in on the day of the conference. Fee includes regionally sourced refreshments and all event materials for one person. Mastercard and Visa accepted. Make checks payable to the Center for Research, Regional Education and Outreach.
