Report Stresses Collaboration Among School Districts

By ALLISON DUNNE

Listen   0:41

A research center at SUNY New Paltz and the Ulster County School Boards Association want to get the conversation rolling about collaboration among Ulster County school districts.
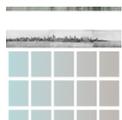

A 2020 Vision for Public Education in Ulster County, a partnership between the Center for Research, Regional Education, and Outreach at the State University of New York at New Paltz and the Legislative Action Committee of the Ulster County School Boards Association has released the first two policy briefs in a planned series. An Agenda for Change through Countywide Collaboration argues that in a time of continuing fiscal and social challenges, a collaborative regional county-wide approach to education is essential. The partnership seeks to promote this approach among the eight Ulster County school districts—Ellenville, Highland, Kingston, New Paltz, Onteora, Rondout Valley, Saugerties and Wallkill.
