UNDERGRADUATE CATALOG

About the Undergraduate Catalog

The Undergraduate Catalog contains information about SUNY New Paltz, its mission and history, degree requirements, major and minor programs, course descriptions, academic policies, and other important details of interest to current and prospective students.

Though New Paltz does not print the Undergraduate Catalog, the complete document for the current academic year can be downloaded as a printable .pdf file. A summary of undergraduate majors, degree types, and program codes is also available for reference and to print. During the academic year, minor course revisions (course number or description changes, for example) may be entered in the online catalog only. Should there be discrepancies between the online and printable (.pdf) catalogs for the current academic year, the printable (.pdf) catalog serves as the official version, as noted in the Catalog Disclaimer below.

Since actual course offerings vary from semester to semester, please consult the Schedule of Classes to learn whether a particular course is offered in a given term.

For questions about the Undergraduate Catalog, please contact the Academic Program Specialist in the Office of the Provost/Vice President for Academic Affairs (mcallisv@newpaltz.edu or 845-257-3379).

About New Paltz

Mission

In the proud tradition of SUNY, the State University of New York at New Paltz is committed to providing high quality, affordable education to students from all social and economic backgrounds. We are a faculty and campus community dedicated to the construction of a vibrant intellectual/creative public forum which reflects and celebrates the diversity of our society and encourages and supports active participation in scholarly and artistic activity. SUNY New Paltz is an active contributor to the schools, community institutions and economic/cultural life of our region. We are selective in admitting students who show promise of thriving in a learning environment which is challenging, student-centered, and personalized. Our goal is for students to gain knowledge, skills, and confidence to contribute as productive members of their communities and professions and active citizens in a democratic nation and a global society.

We are the only residential public university in the mid-Hudson region. We offer undergraduate and graduate programs in the liberal arts and sciences which serve as a core for professional programs in the fine and performing arts, education, health care, business, and engineering. Our location in the scenic Hudson Valley midway between the State Capital of Albany and metropolitan New York City provides unique opportunities for enriching our academic programs. We are a diverse faculty of distinguished scholars and artists who collaborate across the disciplines and professional areas to inspire our students to a love of learning, a meaningful engagement with the life of the mind, and an involvement in public service.

Campus-wide Goals

We strive to carry out the above philosophy across the campus through:

- Faculty engagement in innovative pedagogy across all disciplines;
- Faculty-student collaboration in research, performance, scholarship, exhibitions and presentations, internships and fieldwork, community service, and international studies and practica;
- Capstone activities through which students can demonstrate expertise in a specialized area;
- Support for risk-taking and innovation in research and scholarly/creative activity;
- Writing intensive courses and seminars;
- Educational and clinical centers that provide professional development and services to the region;
- Library and information technology resources which support the curriculum, independent study, research, and information literacy;
- Lectures, conferences, concerts, gallery shows, theatrical performances (as the largest cultural institution in the Hudson Valley), and other opportunities for life-long learning;
- Leadership opportunities for students in campus and community organizations and in governance;
- A well-rounded program in residence life to support student social, emotional, recreational, and academic needs.

Institutional Learning Outcomes

The motto of the State University of New York is “To Learn. To Search. To Serve.” An education at SUNY New Paltz develops knowledge. More than that, it helps our students recognize that life is complex and worthy of endless curiosity. Our students come away from their classrooms, residence halls, and service activities with an understanding of how the thoughtful application of knowledge and collaborative learning promote active engagement in communities (from local to global), critical reflection, and personal responsibility.

As a student at SUNY New Paltz, you will:

1. acquire a foundation of knowledge that will enable you to engage with different aspects of our world. You will gain exposure to the ways in which artists, humanists, mathematicians, and natural and social scientists address questions about the world and ourselves. You will explore and learn to apply quantitative reasoning, qualitative interpretation, and creative activity as means of addressing those questions.
2. explore questions of identity and community, including reflecting on who you are and your commonality and difference with respect to others. Through interacting with our diverse student body, studying or visiting regions of the world, exploring the activities and communities within and surrounding the university, and learning about diversity within the US and elsewhere, you will become an informed global citizen.
3. learn how to organize, synthesize, and apply many types of information in a variety of formats; make and critique arguments; and express yourself clearly in multiple modes. These analytical, critical, and communicative skills will serve you at the university and beyond.
4. specialize in at least one disciplinary area of knowledge so you can succeed in that field, apply your expertise in other arenas, and/or go on to advanced study prepared to engage confidently with other practitioners or scholars.

You will have the opportunity to:

1. apply your learning within and outside the classroom. Through directed research, internships, and service learning, you experience what you can do with what you know.
2. develop the tools to become a lifelong learner and a productive contributor to learning communities, including SUNY New Paltz.
3. attain an understanding of yourself as a citizen and community member with the knowledge and ability to engage others in progress toward a more sustainable world.

History of the Campus

The SUNY New Paltz campus stands on land that is the traditional territory of people of the Munsee, Esopus and Lenape tribes.

In 1828, the New Paltz Classical School opened its doors on North Front Street, the direct ancestor of the State University of New York at New Paltz. It offered Greek and Latin along with reading, writing, and arithmetic. In 1833, it was reorganized into an academy on Huguenot Street and the banks of the Wallkill River. The academy educated local children until a serious fire in 1884 compelled it to rebuild.

Rather than simply rebuilding, the school shifted its mission, becoming a state normal school that trained teachers for New York State public schools. Even then, New Paltz was innovative; a course of study was available to students interested in subjects beyond teacher training.

Yet another fire destroyed the school in April 1906, and once again it was rebuilt, this time at a new location on a ten-acre hillside plot a mile away. The new building, dedicated in January 1909, still stands as “Old Main.”

In 1932, the Lawrence H. van den Berg School of Practice, named for the last Normal School principal and the first New Paltz college president (1923-43) opened. For 50 years, it served as a locus for teacher training and the education of local school children.

The Normal School became an official college with a four-year curriculum in 1938: the State Teachers College at New Paltz. The first bachelor's degrees were awarded to the 112 members of the Class of 1942, and in 1947 the school began offering graduate studies in education. In 1948, New Paltz became one of the original campuses to join the newly established State University of New York System.

As society changed, the curriculum at SUNY New Paltz changed to meet new needs of New Yorkers. Survey courses in African and Asian cultures were introduced. In 1968, a program in Black Studies was established. Alice Chandler (president from 1980-1996) added professional degree programs in journalism, engineering, business, and nursing. In 1994, the school was renamed once again, as the State University of New York at New Paltz.

Like other SUNYs, New Paltz experienced significant physical expansion during the 1960s and 1970s, with several new buildings constructed to form a modern university campus on 216 acres.

In 1991, a power "spike" resulting from an off-campus traffic accident seriously damaged electrical transformers in five buildings on campus, contaminating them with PCBs. The school wasted no time in summoning county and state health departments for guidance on a massive clean-up. In response to this incident, PCBs have not been used on the campus since 1994.

The Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art, which opened in 2001, is one of the largest museums in SUNY, with more than 9,000 square feet of exhibition space in six galleries. The Dorsky's permanent collection comprises more than 5,000 works of American art (with emphasis on the Hudson Valley and Catskill regions), 19th, 20th and 21st-century photography, metals, and a “world collection” of art and artifacts dating back to ancient times and representing diverse cultures. Through its collections, exhibitions, and public programs, the Dorsky supports and enriches the university’s academic programs, presents a broad range of world art for study and enjoyment, and serves as a center for Hudson Valley arts and culture.

New Paltz has always embraced international education. In 1991, the college welcomed 50 female students from Cuba. Today, the school has a robust and award-winning study-abroad program that offers students the opportunity to study in 120 countries. In 2015, the college received the Heiskell Award from the Institute for International Education, recognizing its success programming to create study-abroad opportunities for economically disadvantaged and historically underrepresented students.

Today, the State University of New York at New Paltz includes the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences, the School of Business, the School of Science & Engineering, the School of Fine & Performing Arts, and the School of Education; Graduate, Professional and Interdisciplinary Studies; and Continuing and Online Education. Largely as an outgrowth of a forward-looking, 5-year (2008-2013) SUNY capital plan, the physical campus has improved dramatically in the 21st century, including the construction of new residence halls (2001, 2004, and 2015) and major renovation of existing residence halls; the opening of the Athletic and Wellness Center (2006); renovation of the Student Union Building, including the addition of a now-iconic pyramidal glass “Atrium” (2010); renovation of Old Main (2012), the Sojourner Truth Library (2016) and renovation and repurposing of Wooster Hall (2016); construction of a new science building (2017), and construction of the Engineering Innovation Hub (2019). These changes represent the most significant investment in infrastructure to support New Paltz’s educational mission since the Governor Nelson Rockefeller era in the 1960s and '70s.

Since launching the Hudson Valley Additive Manufacturing Center in spring 2013, the campus’s groundbreaking 3D printing initiative has integrated the college’s strengths in engineering, computer science, technology, and the arts. New Paltz has added state-of-the-art 3D printing equipment, created an undergraduate minor and a graduate degree program in digital design and fabrication, forged public-private partnerships with industry leaders, garnered over $12 million in state and private funding, and promoted collaboration among students, faculty and regional businesses on 3D design projects. In partnership with MakerBot, the leading manufacturer of desktop 3D printers, the college opened the nation’s first MakerBot Innovation Center in 2014.

In June 2016, SUNY New Paltz was the first institution of higher education to be designated a Stratasys-MakerBot Additive Research & Teaching or SMART lab by Stratasys, the largest 3D printer company in the world. At that time, the University also announced the launch of an 18-credit minor in digital design and fabrication (DDF)—the result of a unique partnership between the Schools of Fine & Performing Arts and Science & Engineering to prepare a new generation of students to conceptualize and design for 21st-century manufacturing. A Master of Arts degree in digital design & fabrication received approval in 2021.

Over time, the curricular mission of the school has broadened from the nearly single-track of the Normal School to more than 140 programs in seven units. All students experience a liberal arts core curriculum coupled with a major in the liberal arts, the arts, the sciences, or a pre-professional offering. All students receiving certification in education must have a liberal arts or sciences major. In 2021-2022, the college added a fully online degree-completion program, a Bachelor of Arts degree in General Studies to reach a new audience in the region and New York State. The college has regularly appeared on Kiplinger's list of "100 Best Values in Public Colleges," and continues to climb in U.S. News and World Report and Princeton Review rankings for the best public regional universities in the Northeast. New Paltz ranks in the top 3% nationwide on a social mobility index that measures a schools’ ability to help students – especially those from disadvantaged backgrounds – climb the socioeconomic ladder.

From its inception as the Classical School, SUNY New Paltz has established a reputation for excellence and creativity to serve the educational needs of the Hudson Valley and other regions of New York State, a tradition that continues to this day.
Leadership

The State University of New York is the largest comprehensive system of higher education in the United States. SUNY New Paltz is one of 64 SUNY campuses and one of the system’s 13 University Colleges. University Colleges are leaders in undergraduate instruction and provide bachelor’s and master’s degrees in liberal arts and sciences and professional disciplines. Student success is the primary focus as evidenced by faculty and staff interactions through honors programs, independent study opportunities, research and study abroad.

Freshmen: General Admission Requirements

1. Official high school transcript.
2. An essay as part of the Common Application or the SUNY Application.
3. A letter of recommendation from the guidance counselor or an academic teacher.
4. Extracurricular activities & involvement (including, but not limited to, jobs, athletic teams, clubs, volunteer positions).

Required High School Coursework

A college preparatory program containing the five core subject areas:

- 4 units of English
- 3-4 units of social sciences/history
- 3-4 units of college prep mathematics (select majors require Algebra II/Trigonometry for admission)
- 3-4 units of science
- 2-4 units of a language other than English

Average High School GPA

Our review of an applicant’s academic work will be by academic year so that we can get a clear, year-by-year picture of achievement and motivation throughout the course of the applicant’s high school career.

Weighted high school averages: As so many high schools use weighted averages, we will recalculate the overall average in accordance with the high school profile. We use only the five core subjects when recalculating the average.

Is the SAT/ACT required?

SUNY New Paltz is currently SAT/ACT optional, unless applying to an accelerated medical program (see next paragraph). Application review will focus on the strength of the high school coursework taken, the grades achieved in academic course work, letters of recommendation, the extracurricular activities, as well as the structure and quality of the student essay.

Accelerated medical programs: Students applying for the accelerated 3+4 Osteopathic Medical Programs and the accelerated 3+4 Optometry Medical Programs will be required to submit either the SAT or the ACT test score to be considered for admission into these programs.

What does "conditional admission" mean?
Students may be granted admission to SUNY New Paltz or the Culinary Institute of America even without the minimum English proficiency requirement for direct admission, if they meet the academic requirements. They can matriculate and begin full-time academic studies once they complete the highest level of the Pathway Program.

Learn More
Consult the Pathway Program website for additional details about the program, including information about English proficiency test scores, application deadlines, program levels and duration, Pathway courses, dates and cost of the program, and instructions for newly admitted students.

Intensive English Program
Overview
The Intensive English Program is designed to help general English language learners to improve all of the major language skill sets, including:

- Listening and Speaking
- Reading and Writing
- Grammar

Each semester includes selected topics that may focus on culture (such as language through American pop culture), focused skills (such as pronunciation), or English for specific purposes (such as Business English).

Learn More
Visit the Intensive English Program website for information about English proficiency test scores, application deadlines, orientation, courses, program levels and duration, and dates and cost of the program.

Levels and Duration
Students enrolled in the Haggerty English Language Program, whether for Intensive English or the Pathway Program, will start in one of the following levels depending on placement:
A level can be completed in one 16-week semester (Fall/August start or Spring/January start). Students may be able to complete a level by enrolling in our intensive 5-Week Summer Session.

Students have completed the Pathway Program and meet our English language proficiency requirements for admission to undergraduate or graduate programs upon completion of Level 4 – Academic Purposes.

Students in the Intensive English Program are not required to complete Level 4 – Academic Purposes. All students will receive a certificate of completion indicating the highest level they have finished.

The total time in the program will depend upon the student’s initial placement level and other factors.

Frequently Asked Questions

Office of Academic Advising

About the OAA

OAA advisors provide academic advising to New Paltz students from onboarding through graduation. In addition, students will have a dedicated faculty advisor once they declare their major. OAA advising includes an array of services including guidance with academic policies and procedures, holistic academic support and educational planning, and informed referrals to campus resources. OAA staff includes a School of Education specialist and degree completion specialist.

For general advising inquiries, contact us at advising@newpaltz.edu or (845) 257-3015.

Our Mission

The mission of academic advising at SUNY New Paltz is to assist students as they develop meaningful educational plans to help them achieve their academic, career, and life goals. The Office of Academic Advising (OAA) supports this mission by advising SUNY New Paltz undergraduates who are in the process of selecting majors. The OAA is integrated with the Center for Student Success to provide whole student support and partners with faculty in support of advising efforts.

What is the role of the OAA advisor and how do they partner with faculty advisors?

OAA advisors are primarily responsible for advising undeclared students, while faculty advisors are responsible for advising declared students in their respective major.

When students declare a major, they are assigned a faculty advisor for advisement in the major. The student remains connected, however, with their OAA advisor as a general advisee. In this dual role, OAA advisors maintain a caseload of undeclared and declared students.

In their role as a general advisor, the OAA advisors will always refer students to their major advisor for registration clearance and for educational planning in their major.

Faculty advisors may find it helpful to know that the OAA advisors complement the faculty advisor’s role by providing their caseload students (declared and undeclared) with the following forms of guidance and assistance:

- Degree Requirements/Policies. General advisors assist students in understanding their degree requirements and answer questions pertaining to their progress report. General advisors can also provide information regarding academic policies (i.e. add/drop, course withdrawal, etc.) and submit requests for General Education (GE) equivalencies.
- Educational Planning. Students may visit their general advisor to discuss adding a minor and changing their major, as well as to review study abroad plans and their General Education (GE) requirements.
- Student Support & Performance-based Interventions. The Office of Academic Advising (OAA)’s general advisors use Starfish as a student management system to monitor their caseload students’ academic progress and by providing timely student support in response to flags raised by their instructors in Starfish. General advisors work with students to create an individualized success plan to support their needs within the context of holistic educational planning throughout the semester.
- Campus-wide Resource Referrals. General advisors are equipped and positioned to refer students to the appropriate campus resources to support their individual needs, including the student’s faculty advisor, Center for Student Success, Career Resource Center, Psychological Counseling Center, among others.

Liaison Model

OAA advisors serve as liaisons between the Office of Academic Advising and undergraduate programs across the College. The liaison’s role is to support faculty in their role as academic advisors. Faculty advisors in need of support or training are encouraged to communicate directly with their designated liaison.

About

The Honors Program is not just about academics, though that is certainly our focus. We are interested in creating an experience that is both challenging and rewarding. Therefore, in addition to offering seminars attended by interested students and enthusiastic professors, we offer camaraderie and a venue for rest and relaxation. The Honors Program allows you to join a network of students and professors who are committed to the life of the mind but are also interested in different and active ways of learning. Being an honors student is about being motivated and involved in multiple facets of the college life.

The Honors Program consists of around 320 students. Once admitted to the program, students take special Honors seminars, which are interdisciplinary and small in size (usually around 15 students). Unlike traditional lecture courses, Honors seminars emphasize dialogue and non-lecture based learning; students are expected to come to class with something to say and to actively participate in debate and discussion.

Mission

The mission of the Honors Program is to provide an enhanced intellectual experience in a climate conducive to interaction among highly motivated students and faculty. This experience will seek to develop and intensify skills from a conceptual point of view in a diverse, multidisciplinary analytical environment that nurtures independent thinking, creativity, respect and social responsibility.

Goals and Outcomes

Goals

• To build and sustain a diverse community that reflects the student body of the campus.
• To integrate this scholarly community within the larger campus.
• To promote deep engagement with ideas through innovative pedagogy and creative, interdisciplinary curriculum.
• To nurture intellectual leadership as well as a sense of social responsibility and civic engagement - on campus, in the village, within the state, or, ideally, internationally.

Learning Outcomes

• To demonstrate excellence in analysis and problem solving skills.
• To demonstrate an ability to theorize using interdisciplinary processes.
• To develop communication skills (oral, written, collaborative).
• To develop skills to communicate with general and specialized audiences.
• To practice and reflect on civic engagement.

Program Requirements

Honors students must:

• Maintain a GPA of 3.3 in order to stay in the program.
• Complete 40 hours of community service before graduation.
• Take the introductory course HON201 The Individual and Society (required for first-year students entering the program).
• Take at least 4 Honors seminars before graduation.
• Complete a Senior Thesis or Project and present it in a public forum.

Seminar/Course Requirements and Schedule Planning
Honors Program seminar requirements vary based on when a student is accepted into the program. Beyond HON201 The Individual and Society (the mandatory seminar for first-year students entering the program), the Honors Program offers students the flexibility to take their seminars when it is conducive to their schedule. Interdisciplinary seminars change every semester, and most fulfill General Education requirements. Enrollment in Honors seminars is limited to 15 students to ensure direct and regular interaction with professors and engage in active discussion during class sessions.

Honors-designated major courses are meant to engage Honors students with the course material on a deeper level. Honors students in these courses do additional work to receive Honors Program credit.

Tuition

Tuition is charged for all credit-bearing courses. The rate of tuition is based upon the number of registered credits a student has, the student type (undergraduate or graduate), and the student’s residency status.

Each student is billed only for those courses for which they have actually registered at the time the bill is created. If a student is on a wait-list for a course, these credits are not included in their credit total and will not be billed at this time. It is the student’s responsibility to follow up with the appropriate new payment when their registration becomes finalized and wait-listed classes are actual registered classes.

An updated semester bill will be available on the student’s my.newpaltz.edu account. Charges for courses added after the beginning of the semester are due immediately upon registration. To avoid late penalties, students must log on to their individual my.newpaltz.edu account to confirm and accept their financial responsibility for the semester bill and to make any necessary payments or payment arrangements.

Please be aware that additional costs such as currency exchange rates and credit card service fees may be incurred for international transactions. Total costs are displayed when selecting your payment method in Flywire.

New Paltz Time Payment Plan
The New Paltz Time Payment Plan allows you to make equal monthly payments toward the cost of tuition, fees, and on-campus room and board during the fall and spring semesters. (The payment plan is not available during summer session due to its short duration.) By utilizing the Time Payment Plan, you and your family can incorporate the cost of college into the family budget for up to five months (please refer to published enrollment deadlines). This is not a loan. There is no interest charged. There are no hidden costs. Just add the $30.00 application fee to your initial down payment. Even if you are receiving scholarships or some financial aid, you may enroll in the Time Payment Plan. It is an easy way to pay the balance of your bill that is NOT covered by aid or other resources. As long as the amount due exceeds $500 for the semester, you may enroll in the Time Payment Plan for the balance. Log in at my.newpaltz.edu to enroll and to view your payment plan online.

Deadlines and Late Fees
As noted above, students accept their financial responsibility upon registration. Once registered, students must confirm their enrollment prior to the start of the semester, as well as make payment arrangements (see above).

Payment arrangements for the fall and spring can include enrollment in the Time Payment Plan; proof of external funding through a 529 Plan or a scholarship; Access VR benefits, and/or approved tuition waivers.

Note that Work Study awards are not considered "external funding" for payment purposes and should not be deducted from the invoice total. Work Study funds are paid directly to students for work performed and cannot be applied to any university fees.

All Student Accounts notifications regarding a student’s invoice will be sent to the student’s newpaltz.edu e-mail.

Charges that are incurred after the first day of classes must be paid within 24 hours. Students who have not made proper payment arrangements toward their balance may be subject to late fees, holds, deregistration, and/or eventual referral to an outside collection agency.

Cash Transactions of $10,000 or More
According to IRS publication 1544, SUNY New Paltz is required to report all cash payments in excess of $10,000 made in a single transaction, or two or more related transactions, to the IRS Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). Please be advised that the receipt of cash in excess of $10,000 in a single transaction, or two or more related transactions, from the same person (or agent) received within a 12-month period will be reported.

An IRS Form 8300 (Reporting of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business) must be filed by the 15th day subsequent to the transaction that causes the total cash payment(s) to exceed $10,000. The following procedures have been established to ensure SUNY New Paltz is in compliance with this Federal regulation:

1. At the time of the transaction, the SUNY New Paltz department representative who received payment completes IRS Form 8300.
2. By the end of the day in which payment was received, the SUNY New Paltz department representative who received payment notifies Accounting Services via email that the transaction took place and that IRS Form 8300 has been completed. The department representative forwards Form 8300 to Accounting Services no later than the following business day.
3. Within 14 days of posting payment, Accounting Services reviews Form 8300 and files it with the IRS and FinCEN.
4. Accounting Services maintains a copy of the completed Form 8300 for at least 5 years from the date of the transaction.

Tuition Refund Policy
Students who drop a course before the end of the fourth week of a semester will receive a refund for their tuition and student service fee dependent on the date of the course withdrawal. For students who are leaving the university, this is the date that a properly completed “Leave of Absence” or “Withdrawal from School” form is received by the Office of Student Accounts. The exception to the refund policy is the College Fee, which is non-refundable as of the official first day of the semester. For the fall semester, students will receive a refund for the following percentages of tuition, based on the official first day of class.

Please refer to the Academic Calendar for other important dates.

If the student’s semester invoice is paid in full at the time financial aid is applied, the student will receive a refund. If the student initially paid for the course with a credit card, the refund will be applied to the credit card that was used to make the payment. All other refunds will be paid by EFT deposit to the student’s bank account, as set up in BankMobile. Failure to set up a BankMobile account may cause a delay in your refund. If the initial payment was made by check, a 30-day hold from the date the payment was received is in effect before a refund can be issued.

The amount of financial aid a student qualifies for can be affected when a student decreases their credit load, even if the university has received the financial aid funds. In some cases, a student who drops classes may owe more money because of a reduction in the student’s aid.

Students who need to add or drop courses are strongly encouraged to do so by the end of the official first week of the semester.

After the end of the official first week of the semester, students who "switch" classes (drop one class and add another class during the same day, maintaining the same number of credits) will not incur additional tuition charges. However, students who drop a class one day and add another class on a different day will incur additional tuition and fee liability.

Dropping courses after the end of the first week of the semester can be costly, so students need to plan their schedules carefully and take care of any changes during the first week of the semester.

Note: Total tuition charges for a semester will not exceed the maximum allowed by SUNY for undergraduate or graduate studies.
A student who is dismissed for academic or disciplinary reasons prior to the end of an academic term shall be liable for all tuition and fees due for that term.

Special Circumstances (CBC)

Notwithstanding any other provisions for refund, when a student has withdrawn through circumstances beyond the student's control, under conditions in which the denial of refund would cause undue hardship, the campus President or designee may, in their discretion, determine that no liability for tuition has been incurred by the student, provided the student has not completed more than one-half of the term and has not received, or will not receive, academic credit for the term, and that the request for refund is made within one year after the end of the term in question. Such action, including the reason therefor, shall be in writing and signed by the president or designee and retained by the campus. Please be aware that all classes must be withdrawn from by the mid-point of the semester to be considered for the CBC.

Additional Refund Information

Refunds are issued when the total amount of Financial Aid exceeds the charges on a student's account. When this happens, Student Accounts will issue a refund of the credit balance to the student. In cases where the credit is generated by a parent PLUS loan, the refund be issued to the borrower.

In most cases, credit balances are derived from a combination of New York State grants, such as TAP and the SUNY Tuition Credit, and Federal Title IV aid, which includes Pell and FSEOG grants and direct subsidized, direct unsubsidized and PLUS loans.

When the combination of all these awards exceeds the invoice amount, a refund is generated and issued to the student within 14 days.

State Debt Collection Laws Affecting All Past Due Debts Owed to the State Of New York

Certain State laws that became effective on January 1, 1993 have granted additional enforcement powers to New York State agencies for collection of non-tax debts. If you have a current or outstanding debt with the State, you are strongly urged to settle this matter immediately.

Important Provisions

- Interest or Penalty on Overdue Non-Tax Debt (State Finance Law §18): State agencies are authorized to assess interest or late payment penalty charges on overdue debts.
- Collection Fee (State Finance Law §18): State agencies may charge collection fees to cover the estimated costs of processing, handling, and collecting delinquent debts. The amount can be as much as 22% of the outstanding debt.
- Referral of the Debt to the Tax Department (State Tax Law § 171-f): State agencies are authorized to certify to the Department of Taxation and Finance that past-due legally enforceable debts should be offset against any tax refunds, contracts, or other State payments.
- Authority Not to Renew (State Executive Law §32): State agencies are authorized not to renew licenses, permits, etc., if an individual or business owes an overdue debt to those agencies.
- Returned Check Charge (State Finance Law §19): State agencies are authorized to charge a returned check fee when a check is dishonored.
- Authority to Deny Registration (§ 302.1 (j) of Chapter V, Title 8 of the Official Compilation of Codes, Rules and Regulations): No person shall be allowed to re-register until all tuition, fees and all other charges authorized by SUNY have been paid or SUNY student loan obligations have been satisfied.

Outstanding Balances

New York State Finance Law Section 18

Failure to Pay the Debt Described Below Will Result in an Increase in Your Liability

This section is in relation to any debts due to SUNY New Paltz (State University of New York at New Paltz). Failure to pay any debt in full within thirty days of the deadline will result in the assessment of interest or a late payment charge, whichever is greater.

Interest will be assessed from the date of your presumed receipt of notice (primarily via electronic billing, e-mail notifications, and subsequent collection letters) at the corporate underpayment set by the Commissioner of Taxation and Finance minus four percent. Interest will be compounded daily on your principal balance.

To avoid assessment of interest or a late payment charge, you should pay the amount due in full on or prior to the deadline. In addition, should you fail to pay this debt in full within ninety days of your deadline, a collection fee equal to 22% of the outstanding debt, including interest, may be added to the amount which you owe.

Please write your account number on all checks or correspondence and make checks payable to SUNY New Paltz. Please provide written notification regarding any change of name or address. If you are replying by mail, please include your current phone number.

How to Apply for Financial Aid

See A Minute to Learn It - Applying for Financial Aid and other video resources on Student Financial Services’ website.

1. Create a Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID: The FSA ID is used to access several websites for Federal Student Aid and acts as an electronic signature. First-time filers, and at least one parent in the household for dependent students, should create an FSA ID. Create an account at StudentAid.gov. The FSA ID is confidential and should not be shared with anyone.

2. Complete the FAFSA: Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at StudentAid.gov. Students should complete the FAFSA as close as possible to October 1, preferably no later than March 1, to have the best chance to receive all financial aid funding available at SUNY New Paltz. Remember to include SUNY New Paltz as one of your school selections (Federal Code 002846). After completion of the FAFSA, a confirmation email from FAFSA will be sent so you can review the results and make any changes, if needed. Contact the Federal Student Aid Information Center at 800-433-3243 with questions regarding the FAFSA.

3. Complete the TAP/NYS Student Aid Payment Application: New York State residents have the opportunity to apply for the Tuition Assistance Program (TAP). After completing the FAFSA, select the link to the state aid application on the FAFSA Confirmation page. If you miss this link, complete the TAP application directly through Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC). The SUNY New Paltz School Code is 0925. Contact HESC at 888-697-4372 with questions regarding NYS grants and scholarships.

4. Apply for the Excelsior Scholarship (first-time Excelsior applicants only): New York State residents can learn more about this scholarship opportunity including program requirements, application deadlines, and guidelines for maintaining this scholarship at HESC's Excelsior web page. The Excelsior Scholarship application typically becomes available for new applicants in mid-spring for the fall semester.

The best way to keep informed about application availability and deadlines is to sign up for email alerts on the HESC website.

5. Review Financial Aid Eligibility Notification: The Office of Student Financial Services will begin notifying prospective students of their estimated financial aid eligibility in mid-February. Students with a completed FAFSA application, with all requested documentation submitted and processed, will begin receiving their actual Financial Aid Packages by email after the deposit deadline in early May. Financial aid can be accepted/declined on the student's my.newpaltz.edu account.

Students and/or parents planning to apply for Federal Direct Loans will need to complete applicable loan requirements at StudentAid.gov before a loan can disburse.

Students will be notified via their New Paltz e-mail account if they need to submit additional documents before financial aid determination can be made.

Tips

• Apply for financial aid early.
• Use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool when completing the FAFSA to pull accurate tax data directly from your tax return into your FAFSA.
• Be sure to file the correct FAFSA for the correct academic year.
• Contact a Financial Aid Administrator if you have unusual circumstances.
• Check your New Paltz e-mail account – all important communications are e-mailed there.
• Organize your financial aid materials. Remember, you will need to use the FSA ID in subsequent years.
• Keep your local and permanent address up to date on your my.newpaltz.edu account.
• Eligibility for federal aid is determined by the results of the submitted FAFSA.

Stay on track! Refer to our Financial Aid Checklist to see what’s next for financial aid.

General Eligibility Criteria

Basic requirements for Title IV aid:

• Be enrolled at least half-time (except for Pell in some cases)
• Be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen
• Have a valid social security number
• Maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress
• Not in default of any loan or owing repayment on a Federal Grant
• Demonstrate financial need (if applicable)
• Have a high school diploma or equivalent
• Be accepted into a degree-granting or approved certificate program

2023-2024 Verification

Verification is the process of comparing the information reported on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) with information on your tax returns and other financial documents and making corrections as necessary. SUNY New Paltz uses the verification process to check for accuracy of FAFSA data. The purpose is to reduce error rates in applicant-reported data and to ensure eligible applicants receive the correct amount of financial assistance. It is a requirement under federal financial aid regulations.
The Federal Central Processing Center (CPS) selects financial aid applicants for verification and targets the verification of error-prone data items. When using FAFSA online, students and the parents of dependent students who indicate they already completed federal income tax returns are eligible to retrieve income data directly from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) with the IRS Data Retrieval tool. This time-saving process allows eligible financial aid applicants and the parents of dependent students to access their IRS tax record and to automatically transfer that information to the FAFSA application. SUNY New Paltz may also select an applicant if there appears to be conflicting or inconsistent information on the application.

See 2023-2024 Verification for more information about the process, including required documentation and links to verification resources.

Types of Aid

Student Loans

Undergraduate Federal Student Loans

- Eligibility: Matriculated undergraduates must file the FAFSA to qualify for federal student loans, also known as subsidized and/or unsubsidized loans. Undergraduates must be enrolled for 6 credits or more per semester to be eligible and must be making satisfactory academic progress towards their degree. Note that non-matriculated students are not eligible for loans.

- Requirements: First-time borrowers are required to complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN) and Entrance Counseling on the Federal website StudentAid.gov. Login using your FSA ID to satisfy both requirements.

- Yearly Loan Amounts for Dependent Undergraduates
  1. 0-29 credits: $5,500 (no more than $3,500 of this amount may be subsidized)
  2. 30-59 credits: $6,500 (no more than $4,500 of this amount may be subsidized)
  3. 60+ credits: $7,500 (no more than $5,500 of this amount may be subsidized)
  4. Aggregate total of $31,000 (no more than $23,000 of this amount may be subsidized)

- Yearly Loan Amounts for Independent Undergraduates (or dependent students with a Parent PLUS denial)
  1. 0-29 credits: $9,500 (no more than $3,500 of this amount may be subsidized)
  2. 30-59 credits: $10,500 (no more than $4,500 of this amount may be subsidized)
  3. 60+ credits: $12,500 (no more than $5,500 of this amount may be subsidized)
  4. Aggregate total of $57,500 (no more than $23,000 of this amount may be subsidized)

- Loan Fees & Rates: The 2023-2024 interest rates for subsidized and unsubsidized loans effective July 1, 2023 is 5.50%. The origination fee is 1.057%. Origination fees are taken out of the loan before dispersal.

- Repayment: Repayment begins 6 months after the student graduates or falls below half-time. Standard repayment is ten years. If you have any questions about federal loan repayment, do not hesitate to contact your servicer. They have been contracted by the Department of Education to help you! You can ask them questions about the varying payment plans, interest, etc. Also, if you are having a hard time making your payments after graduation, you'll want to contact them to discuss it. There may be options for you so that you can avoid ruining your credit with late or skipped loan payments.

For more information on repayment and repayment plans, please visit the Federal Student Aid site.

1 Subsidized means interest will NOT accrue while enrolled in college at least half-time, while unsubsidized means interest will accrue while enrolled. Your ratio of subsidized to unsubsidized loan eligibility is based on your FAFSA results, and not everyone qualifies for a subsidized loan.

Alternative/Private Student Loans

Alternative student loans (also known as "private loans") are educational loans obtained from various financial institutions. The federal government does not guarantee them and interest generally begins to accrue from the date of disbursement. It's important to know that you cannot consolidate federal and private loans together. Alternative loans usually require a co-signer unless the student applicant can prove substantial income and credit-worthiness. The student may borrow up to the cost of education less all other financial aid received. The student cannot borrow more than the cost of attendance regardless of the amount the lender has approved.

To ensure the integrity of the student aid process and ethical conduct of employees in regard to student loan practices, SUNY New Paltz aid officers do not recommend lenders.

Applying for an alternative loan

1. You may apply for a loan from any lender of your choice. Due to the large number of lenders with various terms and rates, students are encouraged to carefully review, compare and contact lenders with any questions.

2. After completing your loan application, your lender will review the application and complete a credit check. You may also be required to complete a self-certification form that discloses important information regarding the terms of your private loan.

3. The lender will send SUNY New Paltz a request for certification of your eligibility status.

4. SUNY New Paltz will certify the loan request from the lender.

5. The lender will send SUNY New Paltz a request for certification of your eligibility status.

6. The lender will issue final approval for the loan.

Upon receipt, the funds will be applied to the student's account and any remaining credit balance refunded to the student. The entire application process can take approximately 4-6 weeks.

An alternative student loan can help students who have a past-due balance. This includes students who:

- Have an existing balance to pay for an enrollment period within the past 365 days.
- Are taking one or just a few classes or attending less than half-time.
- Are seeking a professional certification or enrolled in a continuing education program.
- Are a U.S. citizen enrolled in a foreign institution or study abroad program.
- Are a non-U.S. citizen student, including Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) students, attending a school located in... the U.S. with a credit-worthy cosigner (who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. permanent resident).

Need a loan to help pay for college? Compare Federal and Private Student Loans!

Parent Loans
The student’s biological parent (or, in some instances, step-parent) can apply for a Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan. To do so, the parent borrower must complete the PLUS Loan Application. An application must be completed each year for which a parent wishes to borrow a PLUS Loan.

Upon submission of the PLUS application, a credit check will be performed. A parent must not have adverse credit history to qualify for the PLUS Loan. The parent borrower will choose to begin payments 60 days after the final disbursement for the academic year or defer repayment until 6 months after the student graduates or falls below 6 credits of enrollment.

Upon approval of the PLUS Loan, a first-time borrower will be directed to complete the Master Promissory Note (MPN). The PLUS Loan interest rate is fixed and the interest rate for the 2023-2024 year is 8.05%. The Federal Direct Loan origination fees for a Parent (PLUS) Loan is 4.228%.

Interest begins to accrue after the loan disburses to the student’s account. The PLUS Loan will disburse in equal amounts split between fall and spring semesters unless otherwise noted on application. The maximum PLUS Loan eligibility for an academic year is the Cost of Attendance less other student aid as detailed in the student’s financial aid package. If the Parent Loan credit check is denied, the applicant can appeal or add an endorser. If the Parent Loan is denied, the student can email fao@newpaltz.edu and request additional federal direct unsubsidized loan (increase of up to $4,000 annually for first- and second-year students and up to $5,000 annually in years 3 and beyond). If you need assistance with any part of the Parent Loan application process, please contact the Applicant Services Department at (800) 557-7394.

Grants
If you have filed the appropriate application, you will be automatically packaged with any of the below-mentioned grants that you are eligible for.

Pell Grant
The Federal Pell program provides assistance in the form of a grant to matriculated undergraduate students who have not earned a prior undergraduate degree. Pell eligibility is determined by the Expected Family Contribution (EFC) calculated from the information provided on the FAFSA. The 2023-2024 awards range from $750 to $7,395 for full-time enrollment for two semesters. The amount of the Pell Grant may be prorated based on a student’s enrollment status. Students may not receive Pell Grant funds from more than one school at a time.

Students who are eligible for a refund from the Pell Grant may make arrangements with the Office of Student Accounts for a credit (Hawk Dollars) for the purchase of books.

All students are limited to receiving Pell for a maximum equivalent of twelve full-time semesters or six years, inclusive of any prior years. See Pell Grant Lifetime Eligibility for details of the regulations.

Pell-eligible students whose parent or guardian died as a result of military service in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001 will receive the maximum award amount for the year. You must be under 24 years old and enrolled at least part-time at the time of your parent’s or guardian’s death.

Year-Round Pell
Students may be eligible to receive up to 150 percent of their Scheduled Award for an award year. This provision is called “Year-Round Pell” because it allows students to receive additional Pell funds, often in summer terms. For example, let’s say a student receives a Pell Grant of $5,000 ($2,500 each semester). If enrolled for Summer Session, that student is eligible to receive up to $2,500 in additional Pell funds for the summer term. Note that students who are eligible for Year-Round Pell awards are still subject to normal Pell Grant duration of eligibility and LEU (Lifetime Eligibility Used) limits.

Pell Recalculation Rate
Federal Guidelines require Title IV-eligible institutions to establish a Pell Recalculation Policy. The Office of Student Financial Services sets a Pell Recalculation Date (PRD) for each semester. The PRD is the date upon which the student incurs full tuition liability. On the established PRD, a student’s Pell Grant eligibility is locked for the semester based on their enrollment status as of that date. Generally, any changes in enrollment status after the PRD will not increase or decrease a Pell award.

Please note:

• Students who withdraw from college may be subject to a recalculation of all federal aid based on the amount of time attended.

• Students adding additional courses late in the semester will not be eligible for an increased Pell Grant if the coursework is added after the PRD.

• Federal regulations require recalculation of Pell eligibility if the student fails to begin attendance in any coursework used to calculate a Pell Grant, even if it occurs after the PRD.

Tuition Assistance Program (TAP)
TAP is a New York State grant entitlement program for residents of the State. Applicants must be enrolled in at least 12 credits per semester and matriculated in an approved New York State post-secondary program. Awards range from $500 to $5,665 for undergraduates. A FAFSA must be filed first in order to receive the TAP application link online. The TAP application is also used to apply for other New York State grant programs and scholarship awards.

Visit the Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) website for additional information on TAP.

Estimated TAP Grant
There are several reasons why your award package may include an estimated TAP grant rather than an actual grant amount. Estimated TAP grants indicate that action is required on your part. For more information, visit the HESC website or call (888) NYS-HESC.

Part-time TAP
TAP is also available for students attending a SUNY, CUNY and not-for-profit independent degree-granting college on a part-time basis and taking 6 or more credit hours per semester in their program of study. To be eligible for Part-time TAP you must have been a first-time freshman in or after the 2006-07 academic year, have earned 12 credits or more in each of two consecutive semesters, and maintain a “C” average.

Visit the HESC website for additional information on Part-time TAP.
STEM Incentive Program
The NYS STEM Incentive Program provides a full SUNY or CUNY tuition scholarship for the top 10 percent of students in each New York State high school if they pursue a STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math) degree in an associate’s or bachelor’s degree program and agree to work in a STEM field in New York State for five (5) years after graduation. View our SUNY STEM flyer.

Note that all NYS STEM award monies received shall convert to a 10-year student loan plus interest for recipients who fail to meet the statutory, regulatory, contractual, administrative or other requirements of this program.

More information on this program and how to apply can be found at HESC.

New York State Aid for Part-Time Study (APTS)
APTS is a New York State tuition-assistance program for matriculated undergraduate students enrolled in 3 to 11 credits per semester. Applicants need to complete and submit the APTS application with a signed copy of their prior year New York State tax return.

Visit HESC for more information on APTS.

Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Program Grant (FSEOG)
This federal grant is awarded by SUNY New Paltz to matriculated undergraduate students with exceptional need. It is a campus-based program, and the awards may range from $100 to $4,000 per year, depending on funding and the expected family contribution (EFC). These grants are only awarded to Pell-eligible students. A student may receive FSEOG for the period required to complete a first baccalaureate degree. The FAFSA is used to apply.

Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) Grant
EOP is a grant program for New York State residents who are admitted to the university through the Educational Opportunity Program (p. 17) at the beginning of their post-secondary study. Students must be full-time matriculated undergraduates. Awards are based on need and may range up to $2,800 per year. The FAFSA is used to apply.

To learn more, see the Office of Undergraduate Admissions’ Information for EOP Students page.

Out-of-State Grants
Students who are from a state other than New York or who are considered out-of-state residents should check with their state higher education agency for sources of information about grants and financial assistance that may be available to them.

Senator José Peralta New York State DREAM Act
The DREAM Act gives undocumented and other students access to New York State-administered grants and scholarships that support their higher education costs. It opens the doors of higher education to thousands of students, providing access to the Excelsior Scholarship, the Tuition Assistance Program, and other state-administered scholarships that were not previously available to them.

Miscellaneous New York State Grants and Scholarships
Visit HESC’s website for details about other NYS grants, scholarships and loan programs.

Scholarships
See Student Financial Services’ Scholarships page for information and resources related to freshman and transfer student scholarships, scholarships for currently enrolled students, and private scholarships. Also posted there is a slide presentation titled Exploring Scholarship Opportunities.

New York State Excelsior Scholarship Program
The New York State Excelsior Scholarship is a state-funded scholarship program designed to support full-time undergraduate students from working and middle-income households who are on track for on-time degree completion.

The Excelsior Scholarship is administered by Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC). Visit HESC’s website for Excelsior Scholarship Program Information and Excelsior Scholarship Frequently Asked Questions.

Work Study
Students whose financial aid package for 2023-2024 included a Federal Work Study award receive an email in mid-August with instructions on how to apply for jobs for the new school year.

The following resources will guide 2023-2024 Work Study students through the online application and hiring process:

1. Hiring instructions
2. The Student Employment page for New Paltz is where students review and apply for a Work Study position.

To gain access to Work Study job listings, students must have been awarded Work Study in their financial aid package. Students who have not been awarded Work Study in their financial aid package are not permitted to find a Work Study job.

A Work Study award is not a guarantee of a job. Positions are limited. Students are limited to only one work study position. Work Study allows students the potential to earn a specified sum of money by turning in biweekly time sheets for the hours they have worked. Note that Federal Work Study will not be awarded for the sole purpose of helping students become eligible for additional government benefits, such as Food Stamps.

For non-Work Study student employment alternatives, see the Payroll Office’s Student Employment page and/or Student Financial Services’ Off-Campus Jobs page.

Non-resident and Undocumented Students
The Office of Student Financial Services publishes links to resources for undocumented/non-resident students related to immigration, federal and state financial aid, and scholarships.

Winter Financial Aid
Financial aid is not offered specifically for winter session; however, winter session charges can be included in a matriculated student’s cost of attendance. This may allow for additional loan eligibility for the academic year. Winter session enrollment can also be added to spring enrollment to determine federal grant eligibility. For example, if a student is registered for 3 credits for winter and 9 credits for spring, the federal Pell Grant for the combined enrollment period will be determined based on 12 credits. A student who is already registered full time for the spring semester will not receive any additional grants. If a student qualifies for additional funds due to winter session enrollment, they will be disbursed with scheduled spring semester disbursements.

Initiate eligibility review by completing the Winter Aid Request Form. The form will be available in November on the Office of Student Financial Services Forms Page.

Keeping Your Aid

Federal Financial Aid Attendance Requirement

Federal regulations require that students receiving Title IV aid (Pell, FSEOG, Federal Work Study, Student Loans and PLUS Loans) begin attendance in each course for which they are registered. This requirement pertains to both seated and online courses. Each semester, after the add/drop period, instructors will confirm attendance or non-attendance of each registered student at the Enrollment Census Date, which is published in the Academic Calendar. Students who have not begun attendance in the courses for which they are registered will have their federal financial aid revised based on the number of credits the student actually attended. Financial aid funds that have been disbursed may need to be returned and may require repayment.

Students will still be responsible for tuition and fees for courses they registered for and did not drop, even though the cost cannot be covered by financial aid due to non-attendance.

Drug Convictions

Under the Higher Education Act, a student may become ineligible for federal student aid upon conviction of any offense involving the possession or sale of illegal drugs while receiving Title IV federal financial aid. Federal aid includes Federal Direct Loans, Federal PLUS Loans, Federal Graduate PLUS Loans, Federal Pell Grants, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG), and Federal Work Study. For information about penalties and how to regain eligibility for federal student aid, see Drug Convictions and Financial Aid Eligibility.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP): Federal Title IV SAP Policy

Federal regulations require schools to review students’ academic records at least annually to ensure that students are making adequate progress toward degree completion to maintain eligibility for Federal Title IV financial aid funds. Federal funds include Direct Loans (student and parent loans), Pell Grant, FSEOG Grant, and Federal Work Study. Minimum academic standards for meeting Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements are outlined below. Students must meet both the qualitative and quantitative standards and not exceed maximum timeframe standards to remain eligible for federal financial aid. The SAP review is performed annually at the end of the spring semester. SAP standards apply to all students wishing to be considered for federal financial aid regardless of whether or not aid was received in prior semesters. Students who fail to meet SAP standards are considered ineligible to receive any federal financial aid funds until they have successfully gone through the appeal process and been placed on Financial Aid Probation or they are able to meet the standards at a subsequent review point.

Standard #1 Qualitative Requirements (GPA)

Undergraduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.0. Graduate students must maintain a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0.

Standard #2 Quantitative Requirements (Pace)

Undergraduate students must complete a percentage of credits attempted each year as shown on the following academic progress chart. Transfer credits accepted by the university and applied to the New Paltz degree are considered to be both attempted and completed credits for this purpose. The following are considered to be attempted credits, but are not considered to be successfully completed: F, I, R, U, W.

Standard #3 Maximum Timeframe

Federal aid recipients must demonstrate continued progress towards degree requirements to ensure that they will complete the program within the maximum time frame. Students generally may attempt up to 150% of the credits required to complete the degree requirements. Once the maximum time frame has been reached, the student becomes ineligible for further federal financial aid. If at any point a determination is made that a student will not be able to meet their degree requirements within 150% of the program length, or graduate with the required GPA, they become immediately ineligible for federal financial aid. There are no appeals for the maximum timeframe standard. For examples, see Student Financial Services’ Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) page. Students officially enrolled in a second baccalaureate degree program may attempt a maximum of 240 credits and may only be considered for student loan funds.

Repeated Coursework

All repeated courses are included in the quantitative and maximum time frame components of the SAP review. Inclusion in the qualitative component of the review process is based on the academic grading policy defined in the college catalog. Only courses taken at SUNY New Paltz will count towards the GPA calculation. Only one repeated course can be funded with federal financial aid once a passing grade for a course has been achieved. See also Repeat Coursework.

Withdrawals

Credits for courses with a grade of W will be counted as attempted credits, but not credits earned in determining federal SAP. Receiving a W grade will impact pace as outlined in the Undergraduate Academic Progress Chart since the course will count as attempted credits, but not earned.

Remedial and ESL Coursework

Non-credit remedial and ESL courses will not be counted as attempted or earned credits in determining federal SAP and are not included in the student’s GPA calculation.
Incomplete Grades
Credits for courses with grades of Incomplete will count toward credits attempted but not count toward credits earned. If an ‘Incomplete’ grade is changed to a ‘passing’ grade by the midpoint of the subsequent semester, the credits may then count towards credits earned and be included in the GPA calculation.

Transfer Credits
Transfer credits accepted by SUNY New Paltz and applied toward the New Paltz degree are considered to be attempted and completed credits in determining federal SAP. Only grades for courses taken at SUNY New Paltz are included in the GPA measure.

Change of Major/Double Major
Students may change or add majors prior to degree completion; however, all attempted credits in all degree programs are included in maximum timeframe calculations. Completion of program requirements for one major concludes eligibility unless pursuing a second baccalaureate degree.

Maximum Pell Grant Semesters
Students may receive a maximum of 12 full-time (or full-time equivalent) semesters of Pell Grant awards. This includes all Pell Grants received at all schools attended.

Degree Completion
Students may only receive federal financial aid for courses which are required for degree completion. Students enrolled in credits beyond the number required for the degree or enrolled in courses that are not applicable to a degree requirement will have financial aid adjusted accordingly. A student who has completed all coursework required for a major or degree is ineligible even if a degree application has not been filed or the student has not exceeded the maximum time frame allowed (150%).

Federal financial aid eligibility will be terminated when the Office of Student Financial Services determines it is not mathematically possible for a student to complete his/her degree program within the maximum time frame.

SAP Status Notification
All students are reviewed for satisfactory academic progress after the spring semester has concluded. Students will receive an electronic notification beginning in June as FAFSAs are received. SAP status is also posted on my.newpaltz.edu. Students may reestablish their eligibility for federal financial aid through the appeal process or by improving their academic record to meet the SAP standards.

SAP Appeal Process
Students who have not exceeded their maximum timeframe may submit an appeal application to the Office of Student Financial Services if they feel there were extenuating circumstances beyond their control that affected their ability to make academic progress. The appeal process only pertains to federal financial aid eligibility, not general academic standing or New York State aid programs. Filing an appeal does not guarantee reinstatement of financial aid. Reasons for appeal may include a death in the student’s immediate family, serious injury or illness, or other mitigating circumstances beyond the student’s control. Students can find the Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP Appeal Request Instructions) and form on Student Financial Aid’s SAP page. The written appeal must specify what has changed that will allow the student to be successful moving forward. A maximum of two appeals will be considered. These appeals must indicate separate and distinct circumstances to be considered. SAP appeals are to be submitted before the start of the semester in order to determine financial aid status for the semester. Students submitting a SAP Appeal after semester bills are due will need to make payment arrangements with the Office of Student Accounts, as financial aid will be removed from the account and reinstatement is not guaranteed. The semester deadline for appeals will be two weeks prior to the last day of class. Appeals submitted without supporting documents will not be considered. Appeals should be submitted to:

Office of Student Financial Services
200 Hawk Drive, Wooster Hall 124
New Paltz, NY 12561
Fax: (845) 257-3568

SAP Appeal Determination
Upon review by the SAP Appeals Committee, a determination will be communicated electronically to the student within approximately 15 business days of receipt of the completed appeal form. All committee decisions are final and cannot be appealed further. Determined SAP status will also be posted on my.newpaltz.edu.

Appeal Approved/Probation
If an appeal is approved, the student will be eligible for federal financial aid for the following semester and will be placed on Financial Aid Probation. All students on probation will be assigned a SAP Financial Aid Probation Plan. This plan will outline the standards that the student must meet in order to maintain federal financial aid eligibility. The standard SAP Financial Aid Probation Plan is used for students who can reasonably expect to meet regular SAP standards after one semester. This plan requires completion of 67% of credits attempted with a 2.0 GPA. Customized SAP Financial Aid Probation Plans may be different and may extend beyond one semester. Progress will be reviewed after the semester ends to determine if the student met the requirements of their plan for continued eligibility. Students who have not met the terms and conditions of their plan while on probation will be ineligible for federal financial aid for the remainder of the academic year. Appeals are only valid for courses taken at New Paltz and are not retroactive. Progress will be evaluated at the next checkpoint.

Appeal Denied
If the appeal is denied the student will not be eligible for federal financial aid for the academic year. Their SAP status will then be reevaluated again after the following spring semester, per the annual schedule. Eligibility may be reestablished by successfully completing coursework, without the benefit of federal financial aid, to meet the standards outlined in the SAP policy.

Withdrawal and Return of Title IV Federal Financial Aid
If you completely withdraw or stop attending all classes at SUNY New Paltz before completing more than 60% of the term, a portion of the total federal aid you received may need to be returned to the US Department of Education immediately. This process is called Return of Title IV Funds.

Title IV Aid Programs at New Paltz
Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended (Title IV and HEA program), establishes general rules that apply to the student financial assistance programs. For the purposes of Return of Title IV Funds, these programs include Federal Pell Grants, Federal Subsidized and Unsubsidized Direct Loans, Federal PLUS Loans, and Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOGs). Federal Work Study funds which have been earned will not be included.
Impact of Withdrawing Before Completing at Least 60% of the Term
If you begin but do not complete the semester at SUNY New Paltz and receive Title IV funds, the college has to return any Title IV funds that were not earned. If you attended more than 60% of the term, all Title IV aid is considered earned and no return of funds will be required. If you, the university, or a parent (on your behalf) received less assistance than the amount that you earned, you may be able to receive those additional funds.

Calculation of Return of Title IV Funds
The Office of Student Accounts will determine if you will receive a full or partial refund of your tuition and fees, based on the published Refund Policy (see Tuition & Fees (p. 24)) and your official withdrawal date (which is the date your withdrawal form was completed and submitted).

The Student Accounts Office also calculates the amount of financial aid you have earned prior to withdrawing. Any aid received in excess of the earned amount must be returned to the respective programs. The amount of assistance that you have earned is figured on a prorated basis. This is determined by multiplying the percentage of term attended (calculated by dividing the number of days up to the withdrawal date by the number of calendar days in the semester, including weekends and holidays but not including breaks of five days or longer) by the Title IV aid received.

All types of federal aid are used in this calculation. For example, if you completed 30% of your payment period or period of enrollment, you earn 30% of the assistance you were originally scheduled to receive. Once you have completed more than 60% of the term, you earn all of the assistance that you were scheduled to receive for that period.

If you received more assistance than you earned, the excess funds must be returned by New Paltz and/or you. If you did not receive all of the funds that you earned because the funds had not paid to your account by the time you withdrew, you may be due a post-withdrawal disbursement. If the post-withdrawal disbursement includes loan funds, you may choose to decline the loan funds so that you do not incur additional debt.

After the amount of Title IV aid to be returned is calculated, a determination is made as to how much must be returned by SUNY New Paltz and by the student. Any funds returned by the institution are credited in the following order: Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loan, Federal Subsidized Direct Loan, Federal PLUS Loan, Federal Pell Grant, FSEOG Grant, and other Title IV aid. If you have any loans which have been used in the calculation, this obligation will be due and payable by the terms of the promissory note. Any grant funds to be returned by you will be reduced by 50%. For example, if a calculation determines that your grant obligation is $300, the repayment will be $150.

In person at the time of withdrawal or about two weeks thereafter, Student Accounts will provide you with a statement and copy of the calculations and any money owed to SUNY New Paltz and/or to the Federal Student Aid programs. Student Accounts will also notify you if you are eligible to receive a post-withdrawal disbursement. You must respond within 14 days from the date of the notification to accept the post-withdrawal disbursement, or it will be canceled.

The requirements for Federal Student Aid program funds when you withdraw are separate from any refund policy the university may have. Therefore, you may still owe funds to the school to cover unpaid institutional charges. SUNY New Paltz may also charge you for any Federal Student Aid program funds that were used to pay charges and that the school was required to return.

Terms & Conditions
- Financial eligibility is determined annually based on the results of the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA should be filed prior to March 1 each year.
- Financial Aid recipients must be matriculated and making Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP). Please review our SAP policy.
- Financial aid eligibility is initially calculated based on full-time enrollment, defined as 12 or more credits per semester. Students who plan to enroll for less than 12 credits per semester must complete and submit the Part-Time Enrollment Form found on Student Financial Services’ website.
- Students selected for verification must submit all requested documentation before funds can be accepted and deducted from the semester invoice. Awards may be revised after verification has been completed if information was found to be incorrect. Students selected for verification will be notified via email. Requirements will also be posted on my.newpaltz.edu.
- Financial aid packages may be revised due to FAFSA corrections, changes in federal or state regulations or funding levels, enrollment status changes, or receipt of additional resources such as private scholarships or tuition waivers.
- It is the student’s responsibility to notify the Office of Student Financial Services of outside resources, such as private scholarships. Packaging revisions may be required as aid from all sources cannot exceed the established budget. Self-help aid (loans and work study) is reduced first.
- New York State aid, such as TAP and the Excelsior Scholarship, are estimated until Higher Education Services Corporation (HESC) has received and processed the appropriate application and communicated a final award determination to the university. NYS funds are also subject to academic credit requirements. The application for the Excelsior Scholarship typically becomes available in mid-spring. Visit the HESC website for application and program information.
- First-time Federal Direct Student Loan borrowers must complete Entrance Counseling and a Master Promissory Note online at studentaid.gov. Loan funds will not disburse until these electronic documents have been completed.
- Federal Direct Student Loan amounts are determined by class level at the time of packaging. Additional credits including transfer credits may increase eligibility once final grades/transcripts are received and evaluated.
- Parents wishing to apply for a Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) must complete the application process at studentaid.gov each year after May 1. The parent will need to sign in using their Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID and password used to sign the FAFSA electronically. Once signed in, select Apply for a Direct PLUS Loan under the Parent tab. After completing the application and authorizing the credit check, the applicant will be immediately notified of the credit decision. If credit is approved, first-time borrowers will be prompted to complete the Loan Agreement (Master Promissory Note).
- Federal Work Study funds will not appear as a credit on the invoice since funds are paid directly to students in the form of a bi-weekly paycheck. Eligible students will receive an email in August with instructions on how to access the online employment system.
- Financial aid funds are typically calculated for an academic year with equal payments for the fall and spring semesters. Funds will appear as credits on the student’s invoice once all requirements have been met. If aid exceeds the balance due, a refund will be issued once the aid is disbursed. Excess aid may also be converted into Hawk Dollars to purchase books at the Campus Bookstore. Balances not covered by financial aid are the responsibility of the student. Payment plans are available through the Office of Student Accounts. Invoices will be generated electronically following registration.

• Students are responsible for being aware of the financial implications of academic decisions such as withdrawing from courses, repeating coursework, changing majors, and enrolling for courses not required to meet graduation requirements. More information can be found under “Keeping Your Aid,” above and on Student Financial Services’ website.

• Course selections must be applicable to the student’s primary program of study to be eligible for coverage from federal and NYS aid programs.

• Students are not eligible for most financial aid once degree requirements for the first major have been met. Only federal direct loans are available to earn a second degree.

• Students are required to complete Federal Student Loan Exit Counseling at studentaid.gov before they graduate or when they cease to be enrolled at least half-time, defined as 6 or more credits.

• Students who withdraw officially or unofficially during a period of enrollment are subject to the federally mandated Title IV Recalculation to determine if any portion of their aid must be repaid to the government. More information can be found above (see Withdrawal and Return of Title IV Federal Financial Aid) or consult Student Financial Services’ website.

• Students are strongly encouraged to create a login to utilize the interactive SUNY Smart Track financial literacy software.

• Students are required to monitor their campus email accounts and their my.newpaltz.edu accounts for important communications.

Costs and Planning

2023-2024 Cost of Attendance 1

Below is the total estimate of direct billed and indirect (non-billed) costs for a full-time undergraduate student at New Paltz for one year (fall and spring). This estimated cost of attendance, also known as a budget, is an estimate of what a family may spend for an academic year at New Paltz. The budget is not a bill; instead, it helps you estimate your total yearly costs and is also used for financial aid eligibility. The fall and spring billing invoices will be issued electronically by the Office of Student Accounts and will only include direct billed costs such as tuition, fees, etc., whereas the budget below includes additional expenses you may incur, such as transportation and books.

Costs are current as of July 2023 and are subject to change.

Financial Literacy

Important Financial Literacy Topics for Students

CashCourse

The CashCourse Financial Resource Program offers a financial glossary, six core financial management courses, a variety of worksheets, quizzes, videos, financial calculators, and a Budget Wizard - resources that will help students build the skills needed to navigate their financial journey and achieve financial independence.

Credit Scores

After graduation, you’ll want to make timely payments on your student loans because your credit score can affect you in more ways than you realize. Read the Federal Reserve’s guidance on Credit Reports and Credit Scores to see who may look at your credit score and what impact this may have on you.

Avoiding Scams

Before applying for financial aid, learn how to spot potential fraud and prevent identity theft. Visit Avoiding Student Aid Scams at studentaid.gov, and check out Student Financial Services’ 10 Tips on How to Avoid Getting Scammed.
Loan Payments
If you have any questions about your federal loans, do not hesitate to contact your servicer. They have been contracted by the Department of Education to help you. You can ask them questions about repayment, the various payment plans, interest, etc. Also, if you are having a hard time making your payments after graduation, you'll want to contact them to discuss it. There may be options to help you avoid ruining your credit with late or skipped loan payments.

Do you know who your loan servicers are? If not, visit studentaid.gov and select "Manage Loans" at the top of the page.

Net Price Calculator
SUNY’s Net Price Calculator is a planning tool that provides students and their families with an early estimate of the financial aid for which they might qualify. Based on information provided regarding the family’s financial situation and the student’s education preferences, the calculator will return a net price. That price reflects the estimated costs of attending SUNY as a freshman or transfer student less any estimated financial aid.

Tax Benefits
There’s great news for parents and students: the federal government provides a number of tax incentives that can help defray the cost of higher education. These incentives come in a couple of forms:

1. tax credits, which directly reduce the amount of tax you are liable for; and
2. tax deductions, which reduce the amount of income on which you pay taxes.

These federal tax benefit resources for higher education provide an overview of the options that may be available to you:

- Federal Student Aid Tax Benefit Resources
- Understanding the 1098T Form
- IRS Publication on tax credits

See also the short video Education Tax Benefits and Credits, posted on Student Financial Services’ website.

Important Financial Aid Information

Loan Counseling
Student Financial Services publishes general information about student loan requirements, including entrance and exit interviews, along with a glossary and links to several calculators.

Loan Repayment
Visit Student Financial Services’ Loan Repayment page for information about finding and repaying your loans; what to do when graduating, leaving or taking a break from your studies; and steps to take if you’re having trouble making payments.

Special Circumstances
Special Circumstances and the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA)
Students and their families may have "Special Circumstances" due to COVID-19 or other unforeseen circumstances beyond their control that impact their ability to pay for expenses associated with college attendance. Students who have experienced a change in financial circumstances not reflected on the 2023-2024 FAFSA may initiate a review of their federal aid eligibility by completing the 2023-2024 Special Circumstances Form.

Please review the list of qualifying circumstances below before submitting the appeal form and remember to attach all required documents. Submit all documents to the Office of Student Financial Services in person, by mail, or email documents to faodocuments@newpaltz.edu.

Students will be notified via their campus email address if their federal aid eligibility has changed. It is important to note that not all appeals will result in increased grant eligibility. However, if you or your family have documented, COVID-19-caused loss of income resulting in an educational expense that is no longer accurately reflected in your calculated Cost of Attendance (COA), you can submit a Professional Judgement-Special Circumstances COA Appeal. If that situation applies to you, please document and describe in detail the COA budget component that needs to be considered for a potential adjustment and increase in financial aid award funds. In addition, reviews resulting in increased grant eligibility may also result in revisions to the Excelsior Scholarship due to NY State regulations that require Pell, as well as other certain grants and scholarships, to be deducted before the Excelsior Scholarship award amount is determined.

Students may contact Student Financial Services before submitting an appeal to discuss potential outcomes based on individual circumstances.

The 2023-2024 priority document submission deadline is May 1, 2023 for Fall 2023 and October 1, 2023 for Spring 2024. Submitting documents after the priority deadline may result in limited funding.

Qualifying Special Circumstances
- involuntary loss of employment or income from other sources
- legal separation or divorce
- death of parent or spouse
- substantial medical or dental expenses you paid that were not covered by insurance
- one-time lump-sum payments

Federal financial aid appeals are made on a case-by-case basis based on guidance provided by the U.S. Department of Education and flexibility provided under the American Rescue Plan Act. All decisions are final and cannot be appealed further.

The appeal process takes approximately four weeks to complete and does not extend the payment deadline. Students must make payment arrangements with the Office of Student Accounts prior to billing deadlines.

Additional Resources
In addition to the scholarships, loans, time payment plan, and tax benefits/credits noted above, the following resources are described on Student Financial Services’ website:

- SUNY New Paltz Food Pantry
- Student Crisis Fund
- Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021 (eligibility for SNAP benefits)
- Department of Education discounts on broadband internet service for Pell Grant recipients
- Resources for undocumented and non-resident students

Student Rights & Responsibilities
Education after high school costs you time, money, and effort. It is a big investment and you should carefully evaluate the school(s) you are considering. To help you make an educated choice, you should have information on the school's academic programs, facilities, cost of education, refund policy, and financial aid programs. We encourage you to also review the Student Consumer Information List for further information on items of interest to you.

You have the right to ask a school:

• the names of its accrediting and licensing organizations. You also have the right to ask for a copy of the documents describing the institution's accreditation or licensing.
• about its programs; instructional, laboratory and other physical facilities; and faculty.
• about its completion and transfer-out rates.
• if the school advertises its job placement rates as a means of attracting students and what information it has to back up its claims.
• what the cost of attending is, what it is composed of, and what the policy is on refunds to students who drop out.
• what financial assistance is available, including information on all federal, state, local, private, and institutional financial aid programs.
• who its financial aid personnel are, where they are located, how to contact them for information, and what the counseling procedures are.
• what the procedures and deadlines are for submitting applications for each available financial aid program.
• how it selects financial aid recipients.
• how it determines your financial need. This process includes how costs for tuition and fees, room and board, travel, books and supplies, and personal and miscellaneous expenses are considered in your cost of education. It also includes the resources considered in calculating your need (such as parental contribution, other financial aid, assets, etc.).
• how much of your financial need, as determined by the school, has been met.
• how and when you will receive your financial aid.
• to explain each type and amount of assistance in your financial aid package.
• what the interest rate is on any student loan you have, the total amount you must repay, the length of time you have to repay, when you must start repaying, and what cancellation or deferment (postponement) provisions apply.
• if you are offered a Federal Work-Study job, what kind of job it is, what hours you must work, what your duties will be, what the rate of pay will be, and how and when you will be paid.
• about its loan default rates.
• for a copy of its campus security report.
• how the school determines whether you are making satisfactory academic progress, and what happens if you are not.
• to reconsider your aid package if you believe a mistake has been made, or if your enrollment or financial circumstances have changed.
• what special facilities and services are available to students with disabilities.

It is your responsibility to:

• know which course(s) apply to your degree.
• review and consider all information about a school's program before you enroll.

• pay special attention to your application for student financial aid, complete it accurately, and submit it on time to the right place. Errors can delay or prevent your receiving aid.
• know all the deadlines for applying or reapplying for aid, and meet them.
• provide all documentation, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the financial aid office or the agency to which you submitted your application.
• notify your school of any information that has changed since you applied for financial aid.
• read, understand, and keep copies of all forms you are asked to sign.
• be aware of and meet any of the terms of an award that you may accept, including maintaining Satisfactory Academic Progress.
• repay any student loans you have. When you sign a promissory note, you are agreeing to repay your loan.
• conduct a pre-loan and an exit interview at your school if you have a Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Nursing Loan, Federal Stafford Loan (subsidized or unsubsidized), Federal PLUS or Parent's Loan, or any type of federal loan.
• notify your school of a change in your name, address, or attendance status (half-time, three-quarter time, or full-time). If you have a loan, you must also notify your lender of these changes.
• satisfactorily perform the work agreed upon in a Federal College Work-Study job, if you have one.
• understand your school's refund policy. If you drop out of school within a short time after you start, you may be able to get a part of your education expenses returned to you, but after a certain date, you will not get any money back. Check with your school to find out what expenses you may have to pay if you drop.

Veterans & Military Financial Aid

Prospective Military Students and/or Dependents

The following websites contain information on resources, aid options, default rates, and graduation rates and provide comparative school costs so that prospective students can make informed decisions about where to attend school.

1. College Scorecard is a planning tool and resource to assist prospective students and their families as they evaluate options in selecting a school.

2. College Navigator is a consumer tool that provides school information to include tuition and fees, retention and graduation rates, use of financial aid, student loan default rates and features a cost calculator and school comparison tool.

3. The College Financing Plan is a model aid award letter designed to simplify the information that prospective students receive about costs and financial aid so they can easily compare institutions and make informed decisions about where to attend school.

The Johnny Isakson and David P. Roe, M.D. Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2020 requires educational institutions to make certain disclosures to students using federal military and/or VA educational benefits. You can access a personalized data sheet by visiting the SUNY Net Price Cost Calculator and selecting SUNY New Paltz from the dropdown. Additional financial information can be found at the NCES College Navigator site.

The SUNY Financial Aid Plan (FAP) will provide a more in-depth analysis and accurate picture of student cost once the student has filed their FAFSA, completed a SUNY application, and been accepted by a campus.

4. Paying for College can be used by prospective students to enter the names of up to three schools, receive detailed financial information on each one, and enter actual financial aid award information.

5. Our college's Student Financial Services website details how to apply for all types of aid, including Title IV.

Military Leave of Absence Policy

SUNY New Paltz acknowledges and appreciates the important contributions of our students who are currently serving in the United States Armed Services. In order to support these students, SUNY New Paltz, its academic and professional faculty and the Office of Veteran and Military Services pledge to make every effort to provide reasonable accommodations to individuals who must be absent due to military obligations.

Under the guidance of the Department of Education (ED) (34 C.F.R 668.18 & 34 C.F.R 688.8), SUNY Tuition, Fees and Other Charges Policy; SUNY’s Billing, Refunds, Collection and Write-offs Policy for Tuition, Fees, and Other Charges; Section 487b of the US Higher Education Act as amended, and SUNY New Paltz, this policy ensures students shall not be penalized for class absences due to military obligations. Military-related absences will not constitute a class absence. SUNY New Paltz and its academic and professional faculty will provide reasonable accommodations to complete assignments and other coursework. These accommodations may include, but not limited to:

- An opportunity to submit coursework on an alternative schedule agreed upon by the student and faculty member;
- Selection of comparable coursework as assigned by the faculty member;
- Completing coursework as an Independent Study, being given an incomplete grade for the course, using the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory grading option, or withdrawing from the course.

Both the student and the faculty member must agree that the length of the absence is reasonable, given the type and structure of the course. The student and faculty member will agree upon a plan in writing that details expectations for successful completion of the course in question. If a faculty member offers the option of dropping a quiz/test grade, military-related absences will not constitute the dropped quiz/test unless the student chooses. In situations where the length of absences is detrimental to the student’s ability to successfully complete the agreed upon plan, it may be within the student’s best interest to take a military leave of absence. Should a student exercise this option, SUNY New Paltz will remove the course(s) from their transcript. All subsequent financial aid, GI BILL® funds, TA, etc. will be recalculated and returned to its original source.

Students’ Responsibility

Students who are actively participating in the United States Military Reserve or National Guard are highly encouraged to provide each faculty member, as well as the Office of Veteran and Military Services, a copy of their Reserve and/or National Guard schedule during the first week of class each semester. In the event that the student must perform duties outside of this schedule, a signed memorandum from his/her Unit Commander must be provided with said dates of service and supplied to each instructor.

Military Obligation is defined as, but not limited to, activations, deployments, mobilizations, permanent change of station, temporary duty assignments, drills, and unit training assemblies.

Presidential Executive Order 13067 (April 27, 2012): Establishing Principles of Excellence for Educational Institutions Serving Service Members, Veterans, Spouses, and other Family Members

Return of DoD Tuition Assistance Funds

Military Tuition Assistance (TA) is awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the assistance is awarded. When a student withdraws, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of TA funds originally awarded.

To comply with Department of Defense policy SUNY New Paltz will return any unearned TA funds on a prorated basis through the 60% portion for which the funds were provided. TA funds are earned proportionally during an enrollment period, with unearned funds returned based upon when a student stops attending. These funds are returned to the military service branch.

Return of TA rates for each semester length are available from the Office of Veteran & Military Services. For withdrawals due to military service obligations, please see the Military Leave of Absence policy.
Degree Requirements

Following are the degree requirements for undergraduate students who matriculate at New Paltz in fall 2023 or after. Please note:

• Only those students who have been formally admitted to the university through the general admission process are considered to be degree candidates.
• No student may graduate under degree requirements obsolete more than 10 years.

Student are eligible for a New Paltz degree upon completion of:

• At least 120 academic credits
• The General Education program\footnote{1}
• A minimum number of Liberal Arts credits. The difference between degree types is the minimum number of credits completed in liberal arts courses (p. 187):
  • 90 for the Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree
  • 60 for the Bachelor of Science (BS) degree
  • 30 for the Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) degree

Most courses offered by SUNY New Paltz are liberal arts courses and are designated as such in the Undergraduate Catalog and the Schedule of Classes. Transfer credits evaluated as liberal arts credits are applied to the Liberal Arts requirement.

• At least 45 upper-division credits, of which at least 24 are in the major

Any course at the 300 or 400 level (e.g., ECO303 Money and Banking) is an upper-division course and its credits are applied to this requirement. Transfer credits evaluated as upper division are also applied to this requirement.

• At least 30 credits in residence

• Courses taken while enrolled as a non-matriculated student at the university;
• SUNY New Paltz courses offered at locations other than the main campus;
• New Paltz courses offered online.

Credits that do not count toward the university’s residency requirement include:

• Transfer credits;
• Credit earned through examination;
• Online courses taken elsewhere, including courses taken through Open SUNY. These are considered transfer credits.

• Academic major requirements

Students will be expected to fulfill the major requirements that are in effect at the date of the declaration or redeclaration of their major. One-half of the major credits must be taken in residence, as defined above. See also Progress Towards Degree (p. 190), “Degree Time Limitation” section.

• A minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of C (2.00 on a 4.00 grading scale)

For information on how to compute a cumulative average, see Academic Policies: Grade Point Average (GPA) (p. 184).

This applies to all New Paltz students, including transfer students, except those who are pursuing a second bachelor’s degree.

General Education Program

Introduction to General Education

SUNY New Paltz’s General Education (GE) program lays the foundation for students’ intellectual development by providing a broad knowledge base, essential communication skills, and opportunities to explore new perspectives, ways of thinking, arguing, and being. GE courses teach students how to think instead of what to think. Through New Paltz’s diverse GE course offerings, students develop a capacity for lifetime learning and adaptability in a rapidly changing world.

In fall 2023, New Paltz introduced GE 5, our newest General Education program. GE 5 aligns with SUNY’s General Education Framework and shares its goals of addressing essential skills and competencies, exploring disciplinary and interdisciplinary ways of knowing, and encouraging engaged learning and student success.

The GE 5 program applies to students who matriculate in or after fall 2023. Students who matriculated at New Paltz prior to fall 2023 will complete the General Education program under which they entered the university:

- The GE4 program applies to students who matriculated at New Paltz from fall 2019 through spring 2023.
- Students who matriculated at New Paltz prior to fall 2019 will complete the program known as GE III (GE3).

General Education 5 (GE 5)

New Paltz’s General Education 5 (GE 5), in keeping with SUNY’s system-wide General Education Framework, addresses the fundamental aims of undergraduate education, including proficiency with essential skills and competencies, familiarization with disciplinary and interdisciplinary ways of knowing, and enhancement of the values and disposition of an engaged 21st-century global citizenry.

What will GE 5 look like for you?

Starting college at SUNY New Paltz?

The GE 5 program offers ten knowledge and skills areas that will expose you to different ways of knowing, enabling you to make reasoned judgments outside as well as inside your academic field and develop diverse perspectives and global understanding. You’ll acquire two core competencies - Critical Thinking & Reasoning and Information Literacy - that extend beyond discipline-specific knowledge and skills and infuse your learning experience.

For most new-to-college students, GE 5 will look like this:

- GE knowledge and skills areas successfully completed at another SUNY campus will be accepted and applied to your degree at New Paltz.
- If you earned a SUNY A.A. or A.S. degree and completed SUNY’s minimum General Education requirement, your GE 5 program at New Paltz will be fully satisfied.

Special note for engineering transfer students:

- If you completed a SUNY A.S. Engineering Science degree and have not yet completed SUNY’s minimum General Education program, you will do so at New Paltz. Check your progress report for details.

1 See “Modified General Education Program” for exceptions.

General Education 4 (GE4)

(for students who matriculated fall 2019 through spring 2023)

- Foreign Language (two consecutive elementary courses or one elementary and one intermediate course in a single language, or one intermediate course - requirement depends on language placement level)

Category II: Exposure to the Disciplines

Category II courses introduce art, the humanities, and the natural and social sciences and the different "ways of knowing" that these disciplines represent.

Required knowledge and skills areas:

- The Arts (one course, minimum 3 credits)
- Humanities (one course)
- Natural Sciences (4 credits of lab science or 6 credits of non-lab science - see details below)
- Social Sciences (one course)

Category III: Regions of the World

Category III courses explore questions about identity and encourage students to become informed, engaged, and thoughtful citizens of the world.

Required knowledge and skills areas:

- United States Studies (one course)
- Western Civilization (one course)
- World Civilizations (one course)

New Paltz GE4 Requirements

Students must complete at least one course in each of the ten General Education categories.

Each major is designed to support students’ progressive development of competency in Critical Thinking and Information Management.

General Education III (GE3)

(for students who matriculated prior to fall 2019)

By introducing students to different fields of study and different methods of determining knowledge, General Education III provides a foundation for the liberal education that New Paltz offers. "GE III" is designed to encourage a global perspective as well as an understanding of the traditions and complexities of a democratic society. The program encompasses the SUNY-wide general education requirements in place until fall 2023. A defining feature of GE III is its attention to developing students’ capacities to think critically while providing the breadth and depth of knowledge that will allow them to become active citizens and productive members of society.

New Paltz GE III Requirements

The critical thinking competencies of Effective Expression, Systematic Inquiry, Information Literacy, and Ethical Reflection are infused throughout the New Paltz categories of academic knowledge.

Students Who Follow a Modified General Education Program

Students Majoring in Engineering

Students majoring in Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, or Mechanical Engineering follow a modified General Education program based on the New Paltz GE program in effect at the time of matriculation. In all cases, modifications meet or exceed SUNY's minimum General Education requirement and are reflected in students’ progress reports.

Students with Written and Oral Proficiency in a Language Other Than English

New Paltz will waive the World Languages (previously "Foreign Language") requirement in instances where a student has had significant, documentable education in a country where English is not the language of instruction. A student who can demonstrate through appropriate documentation competencies in oral, reading and written expression in a language other than English may also apply for a waiver. Approval must be obtained through the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures.

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences

We are the largest and most diverse academic unit at the SUNY New Paltz. We are home to 17 departments and interdisciplinary programs, primarily in the humanities and social sciences. In addition to undergraduate major courses of study and graduate programs, the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences currently offers 11 interdisciplinary minor curricula, often in conjunction with other schools on campus. We are also host to allied units such as the Speech-Language and Hearing Center and the Center for Middle Eastern Dialogue. Through these programs, students develop the knowledge and skills of a liberal education and acquire focused expertise in fields of major and minor study.

Our faculty's work at New Paltz reflects their passionate intellectual and professional engagement. Together with our students, in curricular and co-curricular learning experiences, we promote reasoned, compassionate dialogue. We are devoted to students' success as lifelong learners and as engaged global citizens who will collaborate with diverse partners.

The liberal arts and sciences are enduringly relevant, for they train students to address vital human questions. Even as traditional liberal arts disciplines become more porous, integrating with greater fluency insights and methods of inquiry from multiple fields of study, they retain their purpose of educating students to think critically and creatively about complex problems. Increasingly, too, the liberal arts and sciences will take advantage of new technology to respond to age-old questions and to pose new ones. The data available to us through modern technologies can be daunting; both in traditional and new media, the liberal arts and sciences must draw intelligently and ethically on these data to understand the past and present and to shape the future.

Ancient World Studies

About the Minor

Ancient World Studies is an interdisciplinary program that focuses on the study of the world before the Middle Ages—everything from the Paleolithic period to the late Roman Empire, covering the Near East (Israel, Mesopotamia, Persia and their neighbors), Egypt, Greece and Rome, China, India, Japan, and all regions in between. It can also encompass the study of the cultures of the Americas—North American Indians, as well as the great urban American cultures of the Inca, the Maya, the Aztecs and others—before the arrival of European explorer/conquerors in the fifteenth century. With courses in philosophy, history, English, political science, art history, anthropology, and foreign languages, students in the Ancient World Studies minor can explore and learn about the ancient world from almost any angle.

Students who minor in Ancient World Studies will be well positioned for graduate studies in archaeology/anthropology, classics, Egyptology, or any other specialized discipline dealing with the ancient world. Beyond that, the skills stressed in Ancient World Studies courses—languages, research, analysis, writing—are valuable in almost any field of endeavor. But possibly the most valuable thing the minor has to offer is a wider and deeper perspective on what it means to be human, which is crucial to understanding today's globalized, multicultural world. As Homer's Odyssey says of the hero Odysseus: "He saw many cities, and knew the minds of many men." A minor in Ancient World Studies offers SUNY New Paltz students the opportunity to travel widely in both space and time—to really follow in the footsteps of Odysseus.

For more information about this minor, please contact Andrea Gatzke, Associate Professor of History and Ancient World Studies program coordinator, JFT 210, 845-257-3523 or gatzkea@newpaltz.edu.

Anthropology

Who are we? Where did we come from? Where are we going? Anthropology, the study of human diversity across geographic space and evolutionary time, takes on these far-reaching questions. Courses in the Department of Anthropology deal with three areas:

- Physical anthropology is concerned with the evolution of human beings as biological organisms and with the physical variation within contemporary human populations.
- Archaeology and prehistory explore the extinct cultures of the past and attempt to elucidate the processes involved in their development.
- Sociocultural anthropology is involved with the comparative analysis of socially learned behavior patterns and institutions of contemporary populations from all areas of the world.

A background in anthropology is a valuable asset in today's job market. The skills you learn as a major are applicable to a wide range of careers. Many of our majors have continued on to graduate studies and have also used their anthropological training to enter fields such as business, law, government, education, international relations, public health, and social and environmental activism.

Archaeology Field School

The department offers a summer program that affords students the opportunity to participate in an actual archaeological excavation. Emphasis is placed on excavation techniques, methods of classification and analysis, and anthropological interpretation. At present, efforts are concentrated on Paleo-Indian, Archaic, Woodland and Contact Period sites in the mid-Hudson region of New York.

Anthropology (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

- Demonstrate in-depth, holistic knowledge of the cultures of at least two different geographical areas.
• Be able to apply one or more major anthropological theories of culture and/or approaches to understanding the human condition to empirical anthropological data.

• Be able to apply qualitative and quantitative research skills in one of the anthropological subfields.

• Demonstrate capacity to think across the four anthropological subfields represented in the department curriculum.

• Information Literacy (General Education): locate information effectively using appropriate tools; evaluate information with an awareness of authority, validity, and bias; and demonstrate an understanding of the ethical dimensions of information use, creation, and dissemination.

• Critical Thinking and Reasoning (General Education): clearly articulate an issue or problem; identify, analyze, and evaluate ideas, data, and arguments as they occur in one’s own or others’ work; acknowledge limitations such as perspective and bias; and develop well-reasoned (logical) arguments to form judgments and/or draw conclusions.

Major in Anthropology
(42 credits)

Please note:
• A minimum grade of C- is required for a course to count toward the requirements of the major.
• Only three (3) credits of Independent Study may be applied to the major unless otherwise approved by the major advisor or the chair of Anthropology.
• Majors are encouraged to go beyond the 42-credit program in order to develop greater concentrations in the particular sub-fields of anthropology. In addition to taking more courses within the anthropology curriculum, they are encouraged to study in the related fields.

Asian & Asian American Studies

Phone: (845) 257-3538
Location: JFT 418
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/asianstudies

The Asian Studies program offers students the opportunity to deepen their international outlook and cultural understanding of Asia through interdisciplinary study that draws on the expertise of faculty from over 10 academic departments. Our major and minor in Asian Studies combine Japanese or Chinese language study with regional coverage of South, Southeast, East, and Northeast Asia. Students who major in Asian Studies often choose to pursue a minor or a second major in a different discipline to broaden their academic experience.

New in fall 2023, a minor in Asian American Studies complements the Asian Studies major and minor, offering students an opportunity to study Asian American history, culture, and society from the perspective of different disciplines. Through courses in literature, sociology, history, cultural geography, and media studies, students will increase their awareness of this important community in the U.S.

The Asian Studies program strongly encourages study abroad in Asia. Through the campus’ Center for International Programs, students have access to many opportunities including, but not limited to, programs in China, Japan, Korea, and India.

Graduates with expertise in Asia are sought by employers in a wide range of professions, including academia, business, government and think tanks, international companies and organizations, libraries and museums, media, non-profit organizations, and the teaching professions at home and abroad.

Black Studies

Phone: (845) 257-2760
Location: Old Main B120
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/blackstudies

Black Studies takes a multi-disciplinary approach to the exploration and analysis of the history and culture of African people in the United States, Caribbean, and Africa. Our field defines the Black experience from an African and Afro-American perspective, illuminates the contribution of African people to world culture, and corrects a traditional approach to the study of world history that has tended to bypass the African Diaspora experience.

A major in Black Studies may be utilized as the foundation for graduate studies in all areas of social sciences. It provides a background for students interested in the field of social welfare and an added dimension for those seeking careers in government and foreign services. The Black Studies education curricula lead to careers in teaching at the elementary level (Birth-Grade 6; see Early Childhood & Childhood Education (p. 121)). Students may also choose a minor in Black Studies.

Black Studies (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

- Critical race theoretical thinking skills: timing, parsimony, process, prediction (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning);
- Identification and classification skills: able to classify and identify national and global; social, cultural, political and economic influences on race and equality (General Education: Information Literacy);
- Sensitivity, empathy, and appreciation for the perspectives, cultures, and institutions of the people of African descent;
- Research: use the library and online resources to understand the work of scholars;
- Writing: craft an argument with an introduction, claim, reason, evidence, response, and conclusion;
- Public Speaking: present a coherent argument to a group of informed or uninformed listeners;
- Leadership and Teamwork: students can work in teams or provide instructions to accomplish a group project.

Undergraduate study in communication disorders has been offered at New Paltz since 1969. The Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree program is a liberal arts and sciences major that prepares students for graduate study and careers in speech-language pathology, audiology, and related areas such as deaf education. General Education courses in American Sign Language and Deaf Studies are available, as is an interdisciplinary minor in Deaf Studies. The department also offers ASHA-accredited graduate programs in Communication Disorders, with concentrations in Speech and Language Disabilities (with teaching certificate) and Speech-Language Pathology.

Students who may be interested in majoring in Communication Disorders are urged to contact the department early in their academic careers for pre-major advisement. Students may begin this major prior to or during the fall of their junior year. For more information, please visit the department’s website and consult the Undergraduate Program Guide published there.

Facilities

The SUNY New Paltz Speech-Language and Hearing Center serves the community while providing students with on-site clinical training. The Center serves over 1,000 individuals each year, providing a full range of diagnostic and therapy services in both speech-language pathology and audiology. Services are coordinated by full-time supervisory staff. All supervisors hold ASHA certification and NYS licensure.

Facilities for Speech-Language Pathology include five speech-therapy suites and a diagnosis room with audio and video observation systems, as well as a student preparation room. The Center has a comprehensive collection of therapy materials and diagnostic tests and computer-based instrumentation systems for diagnosis and therapy.

The Audiology clinic includes two sound-proofed audiometric test suites, intake and hearing-aid dispensing areas, and a room for auditory-evoked potential testing. Equipment is state-of-the-art, including audiometers, immittance bridges, evoked potential units, an otoacoustic emissions analyzer, and a real-ear and measurement system. A PC-based system is used in the dispensing of programmable digital hearing aids.

The Center also has a pleasant waiting room with areas for adults and children, a classroom (with one-way observation into the diagnostics room) and a computer classroom with 14 Pentium PCs and a network printer.

Additional resources may be found in the Sojourner Truth Library, which holds an extensive collection of books, journals, and clinical test materials. The library also subscribes to relevant electronic databases.

Communication Studies

The Department of Communication offers a major in Communication Studies with concentrations in Organizational Communication, Relational Communication, and Strategic Communication, leading to either the bachelor of arts (B.A.) or bachelor of science (B.S.) degree. A minor in Communication Studies is also offered.

Because communication is closely linked to the technological, social, and cultural forces that are rapidly changing our world, its study affords students a number of ways to pursue their interests and goals. The major in Communication Studies emphasizes an understanding of communication principles and humanistic approaches to communication studies as well as the development of skills in organizational, relational and strategic contexts. Both oral and written communication are emphasized, as is development of research skills. The program blends technical and theoretical courses to provide a foundation for graduate work or for a career in any profession that deals with the public, such as politics, law, business, social work, or teaching. Students who select a concentration in Strategic Communication prepare to become communication experts within corporate, non-profit and government organizations, and public relations agencies.

Students wishing to declare a major in Communication Studies must have completed a minimum of 30 credits of college-level work. Students may not receive a grade lower than C- in any course considered part of the Communication Studies major or minor.

Communication Studies (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

- Disciplinary context: articulate core questions, theoretical concepts, and research methods that characterize the study of human communication (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).
- Diversity: articulate the importance of diversity (with regard to ability, class, culture, ethnicity, gender, race, and sexual orientation in communication processes).
- Application: apply communication concepts and theories to everyday contexts and situations (General Education: Information Literacy).
- Communication: communicate effectively and professionally across diverse genres in oral, written, and/or digital contexts.
- Collaboration: collaborate effectively with others to manage emergent conflicts, solve problems, and achieve agreed-upon goals.
- Analysis: analyze various interrelated features (e.g., form, function, effects) of instances of human communication (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).
- Ethical reasoning: consider the ethical consequences of communication interactions on individuals, groups, and societies (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).
- Synthesis: identify, evaluate, and synthesize sources of information into coherent communication that is appropriate for a variety of audiences and stakeholders (General Education: Information Literacy).

• Design: design proposals and projects (e.g., research study, persuasive campaign, grant) for communication-centered problems that are informed by appropriate communication frameworks and/or research methods (General Education: Information Literacy).

• Major in Communication Studies (p. 57)
• Minor in Communication Studies (p. 58)

Deaf Studies

The interdisciplinary minor in Deaf Studies offers students an opportunity to blend courses from several fields of study, including communication disorders, sociology, psychology, anthropology, communication, and education, as well as to pursue a study-abroad experience. The minor complements many academic majors and prepares students to work in a variety of settings where skill in American Sign Language and knowledge of the American Deaf community are necessary: education, business, human services (social work, health care, counseling, and others), and government, to name a few. Employees with fluency in ASL are in demand nationwide, and the Deaf Studies minor is designed to make New Paltz graduates more employable by developing a skill set geared toward meeting that demand. Although not an English/ASL Interpreter Education program or a Deaf Education or ASL Linguistics program, the Deaf Studies minor will help students become qualified to enter such programs at the post-baccalaureate or graduate level.

The Deaf Studies minor is open to students majoring in all disciplines and may be especially attractive to students in the liberal arts and sciences, education, business, and theatre. It is designed to develop the use of American Sign Language and prepare students for further education in related fields. ASL is present in every realm of life as Deaf, hard-of-hearing and deaf-blind people seek education and equitable employment. The minor will increase students’ understanding of hearing loss, deafness, and Deaf culture and their ability to communicate with Deaf persons at a basic level.

A grade of C- or better is required for credit toward the Deaf Studies minor, and no more than half the credits may be shared with another minor or major.

Major in Digital Media Programming & Management

(46-48 credits)¹

Declaring or transferring into the Media Management major? Please visit Digital Media & Journalism's homepage to view the video, Media Management Major Overview and Advising for Transfer Students and Newly Declared.

 Majors in Digital Media Programming & Management (known informally as "Media Management") prepare for management positions across the various media, including such areas as advertising, global media systems, law, research, and programming. Students develop the necessary knowledge and skills through theoretical and practical courses ranging from research and writing to business and managerial courses. The program ensures full exposure to new and emerging technologies and the business functions associated with them. For many, classroom study is put to the real-world test via internships with leading media companies.

Media Management students must complete at least two Business courses (one core course and at least one elective). A required internship and a senior capstone experience in media convergence complete the plan of study. During the capstone, students will develop their own creative and business proposals and prototypes of digital media content distribution.

• Grades of at least C- are required for courses to count toward majors in the Department of Digital Media & Journalism.
• A 2.0 average in Department of Digital Media & Journalism courses is required for degree application.

Disaster Studies
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/idmh

The Institute for Disaster Mental Health (IDMH) supports a SUNY New Paltz interdisciplinary undergraduate minor in disaster studies. The minor focuses on events of natural, technological and human-induced origin and on how they affect individuals, communities, organizations, and the nation. It is designed to recognize the multi-disciplinary nature of both research and practice in disaster studies. Courses highlight scholarship and practice related to disaster and trauma mitigation and prevention, response, support, recovery, treatment, and policy formulation and planning, as well as the implications of these events at the individual, group, organizational and community level. Those completing the minor will become certified responders for the American Red Cross.

The Department of English offers programs designed to enrich students’ knowledge of their linguistic, literary and cultural heritage and to develop their skills as writers and critics. Students may choose from Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Bachelor of Science (BS) degree programs in English with concentrations in liberal arts English and creative writing. Minors in English, Creative Writing, and an interdisciplinary minor in Linguistics may appeal to students majoring in complementary academic fields. English concentrations are also available in elementary- and secondary-level educator-preparation programs housed in the School of Education (p. 115). Department faculty teach students throughout their journey in higher education, offering first-year writing courses, general-education courses, upper-level undergraduate courses, and master's-level courses. (Please refer to the Graduate Catalog for master’s-level course and program offerings.)

While the English curriculum is grounded in British and American literature, students may explore literature in English from a range of traditions, from ancient Greek and Roman and biblical literature to the graphic novel and the novel of the African diaspora. In all English courses, students learn to think critically about aesthetic and cultural matters, and to read analytically and write clearly under the instruction of award-winning scholars and teachers. The English Department prides itself on providing students with a well-rounded liberal arts foundation and preparing them for a wide range of careers, including communications, teaching, publishing, and public and private administration. Undergraduate programs also prepare students for graduate work in English and in a variety of other disciplines in which effective reading, writing and critical thinking skills are important, such as business, law and medicine.

At least half the work toward the English major and minors must be completed at New Paltz. Students must earn a grade of C- or better in courses used for an English major or minor. English Composition courses (ENG160 Composition I, ENG170 Writing and Rhetoric, ENG180 Composition II, ENG206 Advanced Writing and Rhetoric, ENG207 Intermediate Composition) do not count toward the major or minors, nor do courses taken under the S/U (Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory) option.

English Honors Program

English majors may apply for the English honors program if they have a grade point average of 3.50 in at least six English courses (exclusive of Composition courses: ENG160 Composition I, ENG170 Writing and Rhetoric, ENG180 Composition II, ENG206 Advanced Writing and Rhetoric, ENG207 Intermediate Composition). They must make application to the Chair of English during the second semester of their junior year. During their senior year, they will write an honors thesis that will be judged by a three-person committee. They may earn three credits for this work, which can count as an elective in their major program. Successful completion of the honors program entitles the student to graduate with honors in English – acknowledged on their SUNY New Paltz transcript.

Environmental Studies

Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/environmentalstudies

Environmental Studies is an interdisciplinary program drawing on social and physical science, the humanities and the arts to provide students a broad understanding of the relationship between humans and the earth. Housed within the Department of Geography & Environmental Studies, the Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) program emphasizes environmental policy and social and economic aspects of the environment while providing a background in earth science. Much of environmental studies focuses on public and political discourse about scientific uncertainty, assessment of risks, and economic costs and benefits. Students majoring in Environmental Studies gain theoretical perspective and practical experience through a combination of coursework, activism, policymaking, applied-learning opportunities, and a capstone seminar.

The Environmental Studies minor gives an overview of the causes and consequences of our current environmental problems and provides basic tools and understanding students will need to become active participants in the solutions. Coursework comes from several academic departments in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences and the School of Science & Engineering.

For more information about the Environmental Studies program, please contact:

Salvatore Engel-DiMauro
Science Hall 115
engeldis@newpaltz.edu

Geography & Environmental Studies

Phone: (845) 257-2995
Location: SH 114
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/geography

The Department of Geography & Environmental Studies offers comprehensive liberal arts majors in Geography and Environmental Studies. For those majoring in other fields, minors in Geography, Urban Planning and Environmental Studies are available.

Geography is a diverse and integrative discipline that allows students to explore and make sense of place, space, and landscape and the connections between them, while also learning to analyze problems from multiple perspectives. Our programs are designed to prepare students for graduate study in geography or for employment in fields actively seeking geographers. Students may choose the general Geography major, leading to a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree, or Geography concentrations in environmental geography and in urban planning, leading to a Bachelor of Science (BS) degree. The concentration in urban planning is for students who wish to undertake graduate study in planning or to obtain employment in that field. A Geographic Information System (GIS) sequence is offered in addition to courses in Cartography and Remote Sensing.

Environmental Studies is an interdisciplinary major drawing on social and physical science, the humanities and the arts to provide students a broad understanding of the relationship between humans and the earth. The Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) program emphasizes environmental policy and social and economic aspects of the environment while providing a background in earth science. Much of environmental studies focuses on public and political discourse about scientific uncertainty, assessment of risks, and economic costs and benefits. Students majoring in Environmental Studies gain theoretical perspective and practical experience through a combination of coursework, activism, policymaking, applied-learning opportunities, and a capstone seminar. See Environmental Studies (p. 69) for more information about both the major and the minor.

The Department of Geography & Environmental Studies also supports other interdisciplinary programs, such as Asian Studies; Latin American, Caribbean & Latinx Studies; and Women’s, Gender & Sexuality Studies.

Students in the Early Childhood & Childhood Education (B-6) and Early Childhood Studies (non-certification) programs may select a geography major, while those in the Adolescence Education (7-12) program may select geography courses as part of the social studies major.

To complement its academic programs, the department offers an internship at several public and private agencies in the region, such as the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation and Mohonk Preserve. One semester long, the internship offers students the opportunity to gain practical, on-site experience at a planning, development, or environmental protection agency.

Geography (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

• Students will produce satisfactory work in experiential settings.

• Students will be geographically literate; able to define and explain significant concepts, theories and models in geography, and apply them to spatial analysis (General Education: Information Literacy).

• Students will specify appropriate geographic questions, propose hypotheses or solutions to problems, employ appropriate methods to answer questions, and identify the limitations of particular methodologies (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).

• Students will demonstrate proficiency in human geography and its various subfields.

• Students will demonstrate proficiency in physical geography and its various subfields.

• Students will demonstrate proficiency in cartographic and GIS techniques, methodologies, and best practices.

Environmental Studies (BA) Program Learning Outcomes (p. 69)

• Major in Geography (p. 74)
• Minor in Geography (p. 75)
• Minor in Urban Planning (p. 75)
• Environmental Studies (p. 69)

The Department of History features an innovative and rigorous curriculum designed to train students in historical methodology, research skills, and critical thinking. We regularly offer more than 50 undergraduate courses on a wide range of topics that vary in scope from broad to specialized and vary in teaching method from lecture to discussion. Small classes enable students to hone both their written and oral abilities and permit faculty to provide greater individual attention. With the aid of advisors, students are encouraged to design curricula that are suitable to their own needs and interests in history and in complementary fields such as other social sciences, philosophy, literature, and art.

The study of history develops intellectual rigor, a keen understanding of the past, and skills that will further success in a wide variety of careers. Our graduates move on to the top law, graduate, and professional schools and have made their marks in the fields of business and finance, education, journalism, and government.

Candidates for the program need a 3.50 average in History course work, a minimum of 24 credits in History, and approval of the chair of the Department of History. Application must be made during the pre-registration of the last semester of the junior year. For further details, consult with the department chair.

• At least three (3) courses must be at the 300-level overall.
• No more than two (2) courses (totaling 6-8 credits) are transferable from another institution.
• No more than two (2) New Paltz courses may be taken outside the History Department, and only with the prior permission of the department chair.

International Relations

See Political Science & International Relations (p. 89)

Jewish Studies

The Jewish Studies program offers the opportunity for Jewish students to deepen their understanding of their own heritage, culture, and history and for non-Jewish students to gain an inside view of one of the world’s oldest cultures and religions - one that is heavily represented here in the greater New York metropolitan area.

The 15-credit interdisciplinary minor provides a focus that will enhance many academic majors, including history, philosophy, anthropology, and women’s, gender, and sexuality studies. The minor also complements majors in business, education, human services (social work, health care, counseling, and others) and government - disciplines that will benefit from Jewish Studies students’ insights and sensitivity to Jewish clients, co-workers, communities, and culture.

The Jewish Studies program strongly encourages and facilitates engagement with Jewish communities worldwide. Students have access to opportunities with international Jewish organizations and communal networks.

Graduates with expertise in Jewish studies are sought by employers in a wide range of professions, including academia, business, government and think tanks, international companies and organizations, libraries and museums, media, non-profit organizations, and the teaching professions at home and abroad, where insight into the Jewish community and culture add a significant competitive advantage.

Journalism

Phone: (845) 257-3450
Location: Coykendall Science Building, Room 51
Web Address: www.newpaltz.edu/digitalmediajournalism

Housed in the Department of Digital Media & Journalism, the Journalism program at New Paltz is one of the most comprehensive in New York State. Courses range from practical news gathering for multi-media journalism and news writing to explorations of the history, law and literature of journalism. Students learn not only how to put together a news story in a variety of media platforms but the reasons why our society needs news and information. In addition to learning about writing and editing print stories, Journalism majors prepare for the realities of the workplace by composing, shooting, editing, and producing their stories in our state-of-the-art computer facility. The major’s core required courses build functional skills in writing, reporting, editing, ethics and multimedia storytelling.

The Journalism program also offers the James H. Ottaway Sr. Visiting Professorship, the College’s only endowed professorship. Each spring semester, a distinguished journalist teaches advanced undergraduate journalism students, participates in workshop/round-table discussions with students, faculty and local journalists; and gives one major campus presentation. Distinguished journalists and best-selling authors, including three Pulitzer Prize winners, have held the professorship since it was first endowed in 2001.

Students wishing to declare a major in any program of the Department of Digital Media & Journalism must have a 2.0 GPA. Journalism majors are required to complete ENG170 Writing and Rhetoric or its equivalent before declaring. Students must earn a grade of C- or better in courses that count toward any major or minor in the Department of Digital Media & Journalism.

Languages, Literatures & Cultures
Phone: (845) 257-3480
Location: Old Main Building, Room 206
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/foreign_lang/

The Department of Languages, Literatures & Cultures offers undergraduate liberal arts majors in French and Spanish, each leading to Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Bachelor of Science (BS) degrees. In addition, concentrations in French and Spanish are available for Early Childhood & Childhood Education (B-6) and Early Childhood Studies (non-certification) students. Minors in French, German, Italian, Studies, and Spanish are also offered. Visit What Can I Do With This Major? to learn about careers in French and Spanish.

Students may choose courses in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Italian, Hebrew, Japanese, Kiswahili, Portuguese, and Spanish, as well as courses (taught in English) in the literature and culture of France, Germany, Italy, Japan, Latin America, Russia, and Spain. Chinese and Japanese language courses count toward the interdisciplinary Asian Studies program, and French, Spanish, and Portuguese count toward the interdisciplinary Latin American & Caribbean Studies program. Courses in Hebrew count toward the Jewish Studies minor, and Black Studies students are encouraged to take Kiswahili courses to fulfill their General Education World Language requirement.

In today's global economy, understanding another language and the culture(s) in which it is spoken gives you an advantage. Language skills and cultural sensitivity are valuable as an essential part of your liberal arts education. We strongly encourage studying abroad for a full academic year, semester, or summer, and exploring our Living & Learning Communities, which provide an environment for immersion in a target language and its culture(s). When combined with another discipline, language proficiency makes the difference in obtaining challenging and exciting employment.

All language courses must be taken proceeding from lower to higher level. Please refer to the department’s Language Placement Policy.

Willkommen!

Why study German?

German is the language behind such works of art as the poetry of Goethe and the latest Porsche. The German language and cultural program at SUNY New Paltz can provide you with important skills for your personal and professional development.

German language skills can enhance your competence in areas as diverse as music, the biological sciences, engineering, literature, and film. At SUNY New Paltz, learning German has a personal touch as well. You'll acquire the relevant cultural information as well as language proficiency. That means you'll learn the German you'll need in real-life situations and interact often with your classmates.

Minor in German

Students must complete 15 credits in German at the 300 level or above. For a current list of contributing courses, see Course Descriptions.

Study Abroad
In our 6-week summer program in Münster, Germany, students live with host families and study the language at the Kapito Language School. Other programs with longer stays are available for you through other SUNY campuses. Courses taken abroad count towards the German contract major or the German minor and can accelerate completion of either program.

Contract Major

Please contact the German Program coordinator for more information about the requirements for a German contract major.

Latin American, Caribbean & Latinx Studies

Latin American, Caribbean Studies & Latinx Studies (LACLAS) offers students a broad, interdisciplinary perspective on the history, geography, economies, political systems, artistic and literary expressions, and activism of this vibrant region. Our programs -- a major leading to Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Bachelor of Science (BS) degrees and an 18-credit minor -- offer insights on both the common cultural formations and the different and unique cultures that give life to this region of the world. Following a Hemispheric approach, the LACLAS program focuses on the many relationships between Latin America, the Caribbean, and the United States, enabling students to learn about Latinx experiences, memories and histories.

One of the unique qualities of our program is the student’s role in designing a plan of study. Both the LACLAS major and minor require our foundational course LAM270 Introduction to Latin American Studies and allow students to select classes, by advisement, from a wide range of course offerings housed in more than ten departments.

LACLAS faculty are active scholars from a wide range of academic disciplines, including anthropology, Black studies, communication studies, economics, education, English, Francophone studies, geography, history, political science, sociology, Spanish, theatre arts, and women’s, gender, and sexuality studies. The interdisciplinary character of the program and faculty ensures that students approach Latin America, the Caribbean and the Latinx experience from a wide variety of perspectives. Study abroad, internships, talks by prominent Latin American artists and scholars, and many extra-curricular social and cultural activities provide opportunities for students to relate directly to Latin America and the Caribbean.

Consistent with an interdisciplinary approach, students often combine LACLAS with other fields of study by declaring the minor or a double major. Majors in international business, communication, Spanish, and international relations find that a second major in LACLAS enhances their career options in the global market. Graduates with expertise in Latin America are sought by employers in many professions, including academia, business, education, government, law enforcement, medical and social services, international companies/organizations, and non-profits.

Linguistics

Location: SCB 148
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/linguistics

Linguistics is the scientific study of language - its structure and use, how it is acquired, how it is represented and processed in the brain, how it varies by speaker and situation, and how it changes over time. Linguists seek to understand the diversity of human languages, and the common patterns that underlie all of them. Students interested in the analysis and comparison of languages, or in improving their theoretical understanding of language in connection with practical language study, may wish to consider a minor in Linguistics.

The interdisciplinary 18-credit Linguistics minor provides students with a solid foundation in the concepts and methods of contemporary linguistics. Courses offered cover the sounds of language (Phonetics), the structure of words (Morphology) and sentences (Syntax), the nature of meaning (Semantics), the use of language in the social context (Sociolinguistics), the acquisition of language (Language Development in Children), and the history and dialects of English (Development of Modern English, Black English: Language and Culture), among others. Students with majors in anthropology, communication, computer science, English, languages, philosophy, psychology, sociology, or any education curriculum may find that the Linguistics minor adds strength to their primary field of study.

Housed in the Department of English, the program also has strong ties to the departments of Black Studies, Communication, Communication Disorders; Languages, Literatures & Cultures; Philosophy, and Psychology. Through this multidisciplinary focus, students obtain a rich exposure to the study of language from diverse and complementary perspectives. Students must take LIN201 Intro To Linguistics and, by advisement, fifteen credits in courses from among those listed on the minor plan.

Philosophy is the "love of wisdom." It involves a relentless probing of the most profound and difficult questions concerning human beings and their place in the universe. It is therefore the most comprehensive study. The Department of Philosophy offers a program designed to acquaint students with the major divisions of philosophy and with the principal historical and contemporary figures and schools. The study of philosophy is excellent preparation for a variety of vocations and professions, as well as for graduate study in medicine, law, government, business, and journalism.

The Department of Philosophy offers a major (leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree) and a minor. Students should plan their programs in consultation with the department chair or another member of the Philosophy faculty as soon as they decide to declare one of these programs. Philosophy students are urged to complete a minimum of 15 credits in a foreign language and to gain as broad an education in other subject areas as possible.

Philosophy (BA) Program Learning Outcomes

• Read: students should be able to summarize texts accurately, give plausible interpretations, explain any relevant interpretive approaches and principles, and explain or interpret any arguments, positions, ideas, concepts, or claims in them (General Education: Information Literacy).

• Evaluate: students should be able to evaluate arguments, claims, and questions appropriately.

• Argue: faced with a question, problem, or argument, students should be able to generate a focused thesis, construct different possible responses or arguments, and explain or argue why some may be stronger than others (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).

• Write: students should be able to write clearly and communicate their meaning effectively.

• Speak: students should be able to present philosophical ideas, arguments, and theories orally in a clear and accurate way, ask relevant questions, and respond appropriately and charitably to what they hear.

• Understand: students should be able to demonstrate understanding of the history, problems and major areas of philosophy (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).

Political Science & International Relations
Phone: (845) 257-3540
Location: SCB 134
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/polisci_intrela

The Department of Political Science & International Relations offers majors in Political Science and International Relations that are rigorous and grounded in the liberal arts. Students receive a solid introduction to their fields of study to prepare them for careers, as well as basic writing, reasoning and communication skills that will enable them to be successful in a wide variety of professions.

Both majors integrate academic rigor with real-world experience, and our faculty support students in achieving their goals. For some, this means graduate or professional schools. For others, the objective is to begin a career. Our students have been accepted into prestigious graduate schools in political science and international relations, as well as leading law schools. Others have worked for the U.S. government in the diplomatic corps, the U.S. Mission to the United Nations, the Peace Corps, and other government agencies as well as in the private sector.

In addition to its two majors, the Department of Political Science & International Relations offers minors in Political Science, International Relations, and Law & Politics. Interest in pre-law training, preparation for law school admissions, and advanced graduate work in law, legal process, and judicial behavior is met with an extensive range of courses within Political Science. A pre-law advisor works with students to prepare them for law school admission.

Also available are several experience-based, credit-bearing options outside of the traditional classroom. Among these are internship programs through which graduates have found positions in state and federal government, industry, media relations, public policy, and communications and journalism.

Students must earn a grade of C- or better in courses used for the Political Science and International Relations majors and minors.

Honors in Political Science
The departmental honors program recognizes outstanding student performance. A chapter of the national political science honors society, Pi Sigma Alpha, has been active on campus since 1979. In addition, students may earn a departmental award of honors in political science at the time of graduation with a GPA of 3.30 and successful completion of POL491 Honors Research under the supervision of a department faculty member and with the approval of the full department.

Pi Sigma Alpha
Pi Sigma Alpha is the national political science student honor society. The Department of Political Science & International Relations has maintained a membership in Pi Sigma Alpha for over 30 years and accepts applications at any time from students who meet the following qualifications. A formal induction ceremony for new members is held annually on campus in late spring.

Requirements for acceptance into Pi Sigma Alpha (upon condition of verification):
1. completion of at least 60 college credits;
2. completion of at least 15 credits in political science;
3. completion of at least 3 upper-division political science credits;
4. GPA of at least 3.3 in political science classes; and
5. overall GPA of at least 3.0.

For additional information and applications, please contact Professor Joel Lefkowitz (lefkowij@newpaltz.edu, (845) 257-3792).

The Psychology program at New Paltz has been designed to reflect the varying needs and interests of undergraduate psychology majors. The interests of students who major or minor in psychology generally fall into one of three categories:

1. those who want a general background in psychology but don’t intend to seek employment in the field,
2. those who want to apply some principles and techniques of psychology in an employment situation; and
3. those who want to pursue a career in psychology with a graduate degree.

Psychology is an empirically based science. Therefore, it is desirable for psychology majors to have the skills to interpret and generate new information. To that end, courses in statistics and research methodology... are required of all majors. In addition, psychology majors take a writing-intensive capstone seminar in which they demonstrate their mastery of the techniques and the content areas of the discipline. Students majoring in psychology are advised to acquire a broad range of training in liberal arts. Taking a variety of elective courses in other disciplines is strongly recommended.

Students may choose to complete the general psychology major (44 credits) or either of two specialized concentrations in industrial/organizational psychology (59 credits) or psychobiology (59-62 credits). To declare a major in psychology, students must have a total cumulative GPA of at least 2.75 and a Math Placement Level (MPL) of 3 or higher (MPL 4, if declaring the psychobiology concentration). They must also have completed PSY101 Introduction to Psychology with a minimum grade of C-.

The Department of Psychology also offers two minors. The psychology minor (18 credits) provides a representative sampling of psychological research, theory, and practice. This minor would be valuable to anyone whose career would benefit from a deeper understanding of human thought, emotion, or behavior. The industrial-organizational psychology minor (19 credits) provides a background in the application of psychology to business and other organizational settings. This minor is particularly appealing to Business and Communication Studies majors.

Students also have the opportunity to declare interdisciplinary minors in Disaster Studies (p. 63) (18 credits) or Evolutionary Studies (p. 70) (18 credits). Plans of study for both minors, along with more information about the programs, are found elsewhere in this catalog.

Notice to Persons Who Have Prior Felony Convictions

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz admission applications from inquiring into an applicant's prior criminal history. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet the licensure requirements for certain professions, including programs in psychology.

Individuals with prior criminal histories are advised to seek advice and guidance from the chair of the academic department regarding the impact of a criminal record on meeting the requirements of the major/professional licensure or certification prior to declaring the major.

Sociology

Phone: (845) 257-3505
Fax: (845) 257-2970
Location: SCB 107
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/sociology

Sociology is the study of human social life. We are all greatly influenced by the people around us and by the society in which we live. Thus, if we want to understand why people behave and think as they do, we need to systematically examine the social conditions under which people are living. This is what will enable us to understand the origins of social problems such as poverty, racism, violence and gender inequality. A sociological perspective enables us to understand these issues and allows us to develop solutions for such social ills. Through the sociology major students will learn about the methods of sociological research and will gain an understanding of the theoretical perspectives utilized in the discipline. A sociology degree prepares students for a number of specific careers, while providing a perspective that is valuable throughout life.

The Department of Sociology offers three program options. Students who want exposure to a wide array of sociological topics can major in the basic sociology program, which includes a set of core course requirements as well as a broad array of elective topics of the student’s choosing. Students may also elect to concentrate in a particular area of sociological study by taking an additional set of prescribed courses in one of two concentrations. The concentration in human services will prepare students to work directly with people in need of support; the concentration in criminology is designed for students with a focused interest on the issue of crime.

A minimum grade of C- is required for courses to count toward the Sociology major (all concentrations) and minor.

Sociology (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

All Concentrations

• Demonstrate an understanding of and apply the basic disciplinary perspective (the critical, reflexive "sociological imagination") to social research, practice, and the broader social world (General Education: Critical Thinking and Reasoning).

• Identify the changing forms of social inequality and their consequences for social divisions that exist nationally and globally.

• Identify major theorists in the discipline and compare and contrast different theories utilized to explain social dynamics and institutions.

• Learn, evaluate, and apply social research methods (General Education: Information Literacy).

• Communicate effectively, including orally and in writing.

Criminology Concentration

• Identify and explain how crime, deviance, and delinquency are conceptualized, researched, and responded to within our society.

• Demonstrate the capacity to work in fields related to the criminal justice system.

Human Services Concentration

• Identify and explain how human service-related needs and issues are conceptualized, researched, and responded to within our society.

• Demonstrate the capacity to work in the field of human services and other social justice and preventative settings.

• Major in Sociology (p. 102)
  • Minor in Sociology (p. 103)

Sociology Major with a Concentration in Human Services

The Concentration in Human Services (CHS) is a comprehensive educational program that prepares students to work in human services. Graduates work with children, youth and adults who are disadvantaged or have special needs. They work in, for example, children’s homes, criminal justice agencies, runaway and domestic violence shelters, nursing homes, day treatment centers, and community-based residences. Graduates can also work in social justice and preventative settings and have gone on to graduate programs in fields such as social work, school and mental health counseling, law, special education, criminal justice, and international human rights. Some of the main features of the Concentration in Human Services are three supervised field education internships, staying together as a group throughout the educational process, and an emphasis on arts and recreation.

Applications for admission to the CHS are available in the Department of Sociology and on the Sociology website under the Concentration in Human Services. Applicants must be current or accepted SUNY New Paltz students and have completed 30 credits of college-level courses with a minimum GPA of 3.0. CHS applications must be submitted by March 15 (for fall enrollment) or October 15 (for spring enrollment).

The Concentration in Human Services consists of courses offered consecutively during the student’s junior and senior years. Students must take SOC350 Introduction to Human Services prior to or as a co-requisite with SOC443 Human Services Theory and Practice I and SOC480 Fieldwork in Human Services I. SOC350 Introduction to Human Services is offered fall, spring, and summer while SOC443 Human Services Theory and Practice I and SOC480 Fieldwork in Human Services I are offered in the spring semester only.

Women’s, Gender, & Sexuality Studies (WGSS) explores the dynamics of gender and sexuality in relation to local and global structures of power, privilege, and oppression. We provide interdisciplinary and disciplinary courses, offering a range of methodological and theoretical tools to empower our students to think critically and develop new epistemologies. Additionally, we sponsor lectures, panels, and films, and every two years, we host an interdisciplinary conference open to the public. Our core faculty and numerous affiliates are committed to a feminist pedagogy rooted in social justice and equality.

One of the oldest programs in the SUNY system (founded in 1972), WGSS offers a major that leads to a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree and a 20-credit minor. Both programs provide a foundation in feminist histories, theories, research methods, and practices, complemented by electives that examine representation, identity, politics, socioeconomic, social movements, and locations. Through our practicum course, WOM420, students who major in WGSS gain experience working with organizations that serve or mobilize women. In our senior seminar, WOM490, they pursue independent research in topics of their own choosing.
The Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies program at New Paltz is committed to improving the position of women on campus and in the broader community.

The School of Business is an accredited member of AACSB International: the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business. AACSB accreditation represents the highest achievement for an educational institution that awards business degrees. Fewer than five percent of the world’s business programs have earned AACSB accreditation. Bachelor of Science programs in Accounting, Business Analytics, Entrepreneurship, Finance, General Business, International Business, Marketing, and Management are offered. In all cases, students fulfill a 40-credit Business core curriculum and also complete courses required for their specific Business major. It is expected that students who complete the BS program will possess skills in critical thinking, oral and written communication, teamwork and ethics. Opportunities are available to complete two Business majors (see “Double Major”) or an accelerated graduate degree (see “Business 4+1 BS-MBA”). We also offer an 18-credit minor in Business and a 21-credit minor in Business Analytics.

Acceptance as a major in Business is based on overall academic performance and on performance in selected courses. Detailed admission criteria may be obtained from the Office of the School of Business.

Notice to Persons Who Have Prior Felony Convictions

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz admission applications from inquiring into an applicant’s prior criminal history. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet the licensure requirements for certain professions, including the program in Accounting.

Individuals with prior criminal histories are advised to seek advice and guidance from the chair of the academic department regarding the impact of a criminal record on meeting the requirements of the major/professional licensures or certification prior to declaring the major.

A Math Placement Level (MPL) of 5 or equivalent is required, and students must first complete BUS095 Excel Tutorial. It is strongly recommended that students interested in the Business Analytics minor complete BUS095 Excel Tutorial and attain MPL 5 before their junior year (Year 3).

A minimum grade of C- is required for courses to count toward the Business Analytics minor.

Double Major

An undergraduate student may choose to have two Business majors by meeting the following requirements:

- The core courses apply to both majors.
- Students must take all required courses for both majors. If there is an overlap in this category between the two majors, then the common course(s) will apply to both majors.
- If a course is required for one major and an elective for the second major, then that course should be counted toward the major that requires the course(s).
- The second business major must have at least 15 credits of coursework over and above that of the first business major.
- If there are not enough courses in the list of electives for either of the majors, students should see the Dean.
- Students will receive one degree with the names of the two majors on the transcript.

Business 4+1 BS-MBA

Students interested in business beyond their Bachelor's degree can greatly enhance their career opportunities by earning a Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree. Our MBA curriculum integrates a global perspective across disciplines and a unique learning environment for students to develop effective leadership skills to compete in today's rapidly evolving global environment. Normally it would take at least two years after the undergraduate degree to earn an MBA, but with diligence and careful planning, this can be achieved earlier. In just a five-year period, students can satisfy the requirements for both the Bachelor's degree and the MBA degree. This can be accomplished by finishing the Bachelor's degree in four years and then completing the 36-credit requirement for the MBA in one year, including the summer.

Throughout the four years of undergraduate work, each student will be required to fulfill 18 credits of MBA foundation courses, which simultaneously fulfill Bachelor's degree requirements. Undergraduate students may take up to three MBA courses during their senior year. During the last undergraduate semester, students submit an application package for admission into the MBA program and, if accepted, spend their fifth year completing the remaining MBA courses in the curriculum. Please consult the Graduate Catalog for the MBA Business Administration curriculum, the MBA Public Accountancy curriculum and application information. For additional information about the MBA program, see http://www.newpaltz.edu/mba.

Programs Leading to Teacher Certification

The Department of Teaching & Learning offers undergraduate teacher-preparation programs in Adolescence Education (p. 115) (certification to teach grades 7-12) and Early Childhood & Childhood Education (p. 121) and dual certification to teach birth through grade 2 and grades 1-6 as well as graduate programs in these and other certification areas.

Non-Certification Programs

The Early Childhood Studies (p. 128) program prepares students to work with young children in alternative learning environments, such as daycare settings, after-school and tutoring programs, children's programs in museums and other such institutions, and parent/caregiver educational programs and workshops in schools and hospitals. The programs leads to a Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree without recommendation for the issuance of a New York State teacher certificate.

Also available is a minor in Adolescence Education. Though the minor does not lead to eligibility for a New York State teacher certificate, it may be of interest to students seeking an introduction to the field of secondary education. For more information about this new program, please contact a faculty advisor in the Department of Teaching & Learning.

The Department of Educational Studies & Leadership offers graduate degree and certificate programs and supports undergraduate educator-preparation programs through its Educational Foundations Unit. The department's undergraduate foundations courses address the political, social and historical issues of American education and satisfy key teacher-certification requirements. An undergraduate minor in Social Justice Educational Studies (p. 130) is also available.

Accreditation

SUNY New Paltz is fully accredited by the Association for Advancing Quality in Educator Preparation (AAQEP). AAQEP accredits programs that prepare professional educators (including teachers, school leaders and administrators, and other education-related personnel) and that lead to recognized degrees at the bachelor's, post-baccalaureate, or master's level and/or to recognized post-degree professional certificates or endorsements, across the United States and its territories and dependencies.

- Early Childhood & Childhood Education (p. 121)
- Early Childhood Studies (non-certification) (p. 128)
- Educational Studies (p. 129)
- Special Education (p. 131)

Adolescence Education

Phone: (845) 257-2850
Location: Old Main Building, Room 323
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/schoolofed/undergraduate-programs/adolescence-education/

The Adolescence Education Unit of the Department of Teaching & Learning offers instruction leading to New York State initial and professional certification to teach the following subjects in Grades 7-12: English, Mathematics, the sciences (Biology, Chemistry, Earth Science, and Physics), and Social Studies. In addition to completing courses in the liberal-arts major of their choice, Adolescence Education students complete core education courses and State-mandated requirements for teaching certification, as well as New Paltz’s General Education and graduation requirements. Certificates for teaching in New York State are automatically accepted for teaching in many other states.

In addition to the content-area majors listed above, a minor in Adolescence Education is available. Though the minor does not lead to eligibility for a New York State teaching certificate, it may be of interest to students seeking an introduction to the field of secondary education. Furthermore, for students pursuing a BA in Biology, Chemistry, or Geology or a BS in Mathematics, the Adolescence Education minor is designed to facilitate completion of two degrees in five years: the undergraduate bachelor’s degree and the graduate MAT (Master of Arts in Teaching) degree. For more information about this new program, please speak with a faculty advisor in the Department of Teaching & Learning.

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz admission applications from inquiring into an applicant's prior criminal history. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet the licensure requirements for certain professions, including the program in Adolescence Education.

Individuals with prior criminal histories are advised to seek advice and guidance from the chair of the academic department regarding the impact of a criminal record on meeting the requirements of the major/professional licensure or certification prior to declaring the major.

Additional Requirements

Assessment Platform

All students are required to have a membership to the adopted assessment platform (Watermark). The cost of the membership is covered by a course fee that will be assessed when you register for SED353 Field Work #1. Instructions for setting up your membership will be sent via email before the midpoint of the semester when you register for this class.

Child Protection Policy

The SUNY system-wide Child Protection Policy sets protocols and mandates for campuses to follow when SUNY has children in its care. custody, and control. To learn more about the CPP and its training modules, visit the School of Education homepage.

Fingerprinting

All teacher candidates must be fingerprinted through MorphoTrust upon acceptance into an education degree program. We recommend that you complete this State-mandated process as soon as possible after you are admitted to the program. First, self-register to create a TEACH Login Account, then make an appointment through Identogo.

For detailed information about fingerprinting, see the School of Education’s certification guidance. In addition, NYSED publishes Fingerprint Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs).

Specialized Training and Workshops

In addition to required coursework in education and a liberal arts major, specialized training and workshops are required for all New York State educator-preparation programs leading to an Initial Certificate. A summary of requirements for teacher certification in New York State is available on NYSED’s Office of Teaching Initiatives’ website. For guidance specific to New Paltz, see Education Program & Certification Advisor on the School of Education website.

You are advised to complete the following State-mandated workshops prior to your fieldwork placements.

- Child Abuse Identification Workshop: All candidates for teacher certification will complete a State-mandated two-hour training lecture on recognizing and reporting child abuse or neglect. Group sessions will be provided on campus, or students may take the training from social service agencies, community colleges, or BOCES. This is not a credit course and evidence of training must be documented on candidates’ transcripts.

- Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) Training: All students will complete a six-hour training in the prevention of bullying and harassment. Training is provided periodically on campus or may be taken through BOCES or another approved provider. This is not a credit course and evidence of training must be documented on students’ transcripts.

- Schools Against Violence in Education (SAVE) Act Training: All students will complete a two-hour workshop in school violence prevention. Workshops are held periodically on campus or may be taken elsewhere through an approved provider. This is not a credit course and evidence of training must be documented on students’ transcripts.

- Training in Health & Safety Education: This 0-credit online training (EDI095 Training in Health & Safety Education) includes topics mandated by New York State Education Law for teacher candidates. The four video modules provide information on the means for instructing students for the purpose of preventing alcohol, tobacco, and other drug abuse (Education Law section 804); instructing students in fire and arson prevention (Education Law section 808); providing safety education as it pertains to highway safety, traffic regulations, and bicycle safety (Education Law section 806); and instructing students for preventing child abduction (Education Law section 803-a).

Student Teaching

Student teaching is a capstone experience for all undergraduate elementary and secondary teacher candidates seeking a bachelor’s degree. It is a full-time commitment extending for an entire semester with placements in two different settings. As such, the School of Education requires that all required coursework is completed before the capstone experience begins, and it restricts secondary teacher candidates from taking any other course(s) while registered for student teaching except the co-requisite SED407 Fieldwork #3 and SED406 Student Teaching Seminar.

Requirements to Student Teach

- Grade of B or better in Methods Course
- Approval of Coordinator and Chair

Transportation

Students are responsible for their own transportation to field and student-teaching placements and must be prepared to commute up to 45 miles, one way, to these placements.

New York State Certification Examinations

- Educating All Students Test (EAS)
- Content Specialty Test(s) (CST) in the area of certification

See New York State Teacher Certification Examinations - Tests.

1 New Paltz education programs require an internship, field experience, study abroad component, or clinical experience. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet licensure requirements for certain professions. If applicants have concerns about this matter (or any past legal or background history), please contact the Dean’s Office of the intended academic program.

2 GPA Requirements for Methods: All Adolescence Education (7-12) students must have a 3.0 GPA to register for methods. Students unable to meet this GPA prerequisite will be advised to change their major so they can graduate in a timely manner.

Early Childhood & Childhood Education

Phone: (845) 257-2860
Location: Old Main Building 115
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/elementaryed

Early Childhood & Childhood Education is a four-year Bachelor of Science program that prepares students for careers as teachers of children from birth through grade six. Graduates of the program are qualified to receive dual certification, i.e., teaching certification in both Early Childhood Education (B-2, birth through grade two) and Childhood Education (1-6, grades one through six). To obtain these certifications, students must complete the program and pass all required New York State Teacher Certification Examinations.

Teacher candidates learn the skills required to work effectively with children from different backgrounds and in different settings, including developmentally appropriate teaching practices and curriculum planning. A thorough grounding in child development is part of the program, as is an understanding of a balanced approach to teaching literacy. The program further emphasizes a mastery of mathematics, social studies, and science appropriate to the elementary school years. Throughout the curriculum, we promote an interdisciplinary approach to teaching and learning in the elementary classroom. This is a rigorous program that requires extensive field experiences in sites chosen for their appropriateness by the Office of Field Experiences’ coordinator. Candidates are responsible for their own transportation to field sites and cannot expect to have sites close to the New Paltz campus or their homes. All efforts are made to find sites within one hour of the New Paltz campus.

Notice to Persons Who Have Prior Felony Convictions

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz admission applications from inquiring into an applicant’s prior criminal history. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet the licensure requirements for certain professions, including the program in Early Childhood and Childhood Education.

Individuals with prior criminal histories are advised to seek advice and guidance from the chair of the academic department regarding the impact of a criminal record on meeting the requirements of the major/professional licensure or certification prior to declaring the major.

Admission Requirements

- Students may declare a major in Early Childhood & Childhood Education during their first year. Those who enter the program at a later point may need more than eight semesters to graduate.
- Students must choose an academic concentration, some of which have their own entrance criteria.
- Students must meet the following requirements (assessed at three different checkpoints) to continue in the program:
  - 3.0 GPA overall; 2.5 GPA in academic concentration
  - 4-7 credits in Writing and Rhetoric (1-2 composition courses) with a grade of “B” or better, minimum “B-” or “S” for required EED and SPE courses; minimum “C” for required foundation courses (EDS340 Sociological and Philosophical Foundations of Education, EDS371 Child Psychology and Development, MAT140 Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers I, MAT240 Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II, GEO202 Physical Geography, world language)
  - 30 hours of independent fieldwork (classroom observations; paid or volunteer work with children in schools, camps, daycare centers; coaching, tutoring, etc.)
  - Passing score on writing sample (to be evaluated by Early Childhood & Childhood Education faculty for organization and appropriate English grammar and usage)
  - Fingerprints on a NYS TEACH account
  - Completion of State-mandated workshops (Child Abuse Identification, SAVE, DASA, Health & Safety Education. Health & Safety training consists of four video modules, included in EDI095 Training in Health & Safety Education.)
  - Satisfactory dispositions assessments and “target” or “proficient” lesson/unit planning skills.

Transfer Students

Due to the highly structured and sequenced nature of the Early Childhood & Childhood Education (B-6) program, students who intend to transfer to New Paltz must plan their transfer coursework carefully. Several General Education requirements should be fulfilled under advisement by specific courses that also serve as education foundation courses. Students in an AA/AS degree program should complete all, or nearly all, New Paltz education foundation courses prior to transfer, so that upon matriculation at New Paltz they may begin junior-year education methods courses.

Early Childhood/Childhood Education (BS) Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who successfully complete all required components of the Early Childhood/Childhood Education (B-2 and 1-6) program will know and be able to demonstrate:

- Critical Thinking and Intellectual Development: Identify, analyze, and evaluate different methods of planning, assessing, and teaching in order to develop well-reasoned arguments that support pedagogical decisions. Also demonstrate an appropriate level of proficiency in written and oral communication, critical thinking and analytical mathematical and scientific reasoning.
- Content Knowledge: Demonstrate an awareness and understanding of the teaching profession, articulate a developing philosophy of education that incorporates an understanding of relevant theories and models of education and mastery of knowledge and skills in a chosen content area of academic concentration.
- Planning: Be able to plan lessons in early childhood/childhood education that are standards-based, clear and organized, rely upon a variety of developmentally appropriate instructional strategies and appropriate technologies, differentiate instruction in ways that provide opportunities to promote appreciation of diversity, tolerance, and inclusion in safe, democratic, and equitable learning environments.
- Assessment and P-12 Learning: Be able to select, design, and implement authentic and appropriate formative and summative assessments to evaluate student learning, consider assessment data when making instructional decisions, and identify effective or problematic teaching moments as they are occurring in order to facilitate student growth in specified content, cognitive skills, and/or social-emotional skills.
- Fieldwork: Successfully complete three fieldwork placements; a minimum of 120 hours, aligned with appropriate methods courses, in preparation for student teaching, the program’s capstone practicum experience.
- Pedagogical Practice: Demonstrate the ability to maximize student learning by incorporating content and pedagogical content knowledge, appropriate and effective technology, and a variety of developmentally and contextually appropriate evidence-based instructional strategies to make learning meaningful for students while teaching.
- Information Literacy: Use technology and basic research techniques in order to locate, evaluate, and synthesize best-practices concepts in content knowledge, planning, assessment, and pedagogical practice.
- Professional Skills and Dispositions: Exhibit the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to practice an ethically informed and self-reflective philosophy, participate effectively in institutional change, and develop respectful relationships with students, families, communities and colleagues.
- Culturally Responsive Practice and Social Justice: Understand and apply practices that promote respect, inclusion and equity in teaching, learning, and student development based on social identity markers including, but not limited to, race, gender, class, sexual orientation, disability, language, religion, culture, national origin, epistemology, and family life.

- Democratic Citizenship and Student Advocacy: Respect education as a human right and a foundation to active inclusion and participation in public life and aspire to be agents of change in response to persistent barriers to equal educational opportunity.

C. General Education Requirement
Early Childhood & Childhood Education students take selected course work under advisement to meet SUNY New Paltz’s General Education requirement. Some General Education courses also fulfill prerequisites of the Early Childhood & Childhood Education program. See the Education Advisor (OM 115) to ensure that all curricular requirements are met.

Assessment Platform
All students are required to have a membership to the adopted assessment platform (Watermark). The cost of the membership is covered by a course fee that will be assessed when you register for EED301, Fieldwork I (Pre-K-2). Instructions for setting up your membership will be sent via email before the midpoint of the semester when you register for this class.

Child Protection Policy
The SUNY system-wide Child Protection Policy sets protocols and mandates for campuses to follow when SUNY has children in its care, custody, and control. To learn more about the CPP and its training modules, visit the School of Education homepage.

Fingerprinting
All teacher candidates must be fingerprinted through MorphoTrust upon acceptance into an education degree program. We recommend that you complete this State-mandated process as soon as possible after you are admitted to the program. First, self-register to create a TEACH Login Account, then make an appointment through Identogo.

For detailed information about fingerprinting, see the School of Education’s certification guidance. In addition, NYSED publishes Fingerprint Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs).

Specialized Training and Workshops
In addition to required coursework in education and a liberal arts major, specialized training and workshops are required for all New York State educator-preparation programs leading to an Initial Certificate.

A summary of requirements for teacher certification in New York State is available on NYSED’s Office of Teaching Initiatives’ website. For guidance specific to New Paltz, see Education Program & Certification Advisor on the School of Education website.

You are advised to complete the following State-mandated workshops prior to your fieldwork placements.

- Child Abuse Identification Workshop: All candidates for teacher certification will complete a State-mandated two-hour training lecture on recognizing and reporting child abuse or neglect. Group sessions will be provided on campus, or students may take the training from social service agencies, community colleges, or BOCES. This is not a credit course and evidence of training must be documented on candidates’ transcripts.

- Dignity for All Students Act (DASA) Training: All students will complete a six-hour training in the prevention of bullying and harassment. Training is provided periodically on campus or may be taken through

1 Spanish Placement Level 3 or successful completion of basic language courses SPA101 Elementary Spanish 1, SPA102 Elementary Spanish 2 and SPA201 Intermediate Spanish 1 is required to advance to SPA202 Intermediate Spanish 2.
BOCES or another approved provider. This is not a credit course and evidence of training must be documented on students’ transcripts.

- Schools Against Violence in Education (SAVE) Act Training: All students will complete a two-hour workshop in school violence prevention. Workshops are held periodically on campus or may be taken elsewhere through an approved provider. This is not a credit course and evidence of training must be documented on students’ transcripts.

- Training in Health & Safety Education: This 0-credit online training (ED1095 Training in Health & Safety Education) includes topics mandated by New York State Education Law for teacher candidates. The four video modules provide information on the means for instructing students for the purpose of preventing alcohol, tobacco, and other drug abuse (Education Law section 804); instructing students in fire and arson prevention (Education Law section 808); providing safety education as it pertains to highway safety, traffic regulations, and bicycle safety (Education Law section 806); and instructing students for preventing child abduction (Education Law section 803-a).

Student Teaching

Student teaching is a capstone experience for all undergraduate elementary and secondary teacher candidates seeking a bachelor’s degree. It is a full-time commitment extending for an entire semester with placements in two different settings. As such, the School of Education requires that all required coursework is completed before the capstone experience begins, and it restricts elementary teacher candidates from taking any other course(s) while registered for student teaching except the co-requisite EED406 Student Teaching Seminar.

Students are responsible for their own transportation to field and student-teaching placements and must be prepared to commute up to 45 miles, one way, to these placements.

For more information about student teaching requirements, see Education Program & Certification Advisor and Office of Field Experiences on the School of Education website.

New York State Certification Examinations

- Educating All Students Test (EAS)
- Content Specialty Test(s) (CST) in the area of certification

See New York State Teacher Certification Examinations - Tests.

1 New Paltz education programs require an internship, field experience, study abroad component, or clinical experience. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet licensure requirements for certain professions. If applicants have concerns about this matter (or any past legal or background history), please contact the Dean’s Office of the intended academic program.

Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are issuance of a New York State teacher certificate.

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz

As with all School of Education programs, Early Childhood Studies offers:

• high-quality instruction from dedicated, passionate faculty;
• courses that reflect current research in such areas as play, early childhood development, social and emotional learning, curriculum development, and language and literacy development;
• clinically rich preparation that emphasizes a balanced and interdisciplinary approach to teaching and learning;
• a commitment to preparing caring, critical, and reflective professionals.

Successful completion of the Early Childhood Studies program leads to a Bachelor of Science (BS) degree without recommendation for the issuance of a New York State teacher certificate.

Notice to Persons Who Have Prior Felony Convictions

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz

admission applications from inquiring into an applicant's prior criminal history. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet the licensure requirements for certain professions, including the program in Early Childhood Studies.

Individuals with prior criminal histories are advised to seek advice and guidance from the chair of the academic department regarding the impact of a criminal record on meeting the requirements of the major/professional licensure or certification prior to declaring the major.

Admission Requirements

• Students may declare a major in Early Childhood Studies during their first year. Those who enter the program at a later point may need more than eight semesters to graduate.
• Students must choose an academic concentration, some of which have their own entrance criteria.
• Students must meet the following requirements to continue in the program:
  • 3.0 GPA overall; 2.5 GPA in academic concentration
  • 4-7 credits in Writing and Rhetoric (1-2 composition courses) with a grade of "B" or better; minimum "B-" or "S" for required EED and SPE courses; minimum "C" for required foundation courses (EDS340 Sociological and Philosophical Foundations of Education, EDS371 Child Psychology and Development,
    MAT140 Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers I, MAT240
    Mathematics for Elementary School Teachers II, GEO202 Physical Geography, world language)
  • 30 hours of independent fieldwork (classroom observations; paid or volunteer work with children in schools, camps, daycare centers; coaching, tutoring, etc.)
  • Passing score on writing sample (to be evaluated by Early Childhood Studies faculty for organization and appropriate English grammar and usage).

Early Childhood Studies (BS, non-certification) Program Learning Outcomes

Candidates who successfully complete all required components of the Early Childhood Studies (non-certification) program will know and be able to demonstrate:

• Critical Thinking and Intellectual Development: Identify, analyze, and evaluate different methods of planning, assessing, and teaching in order to develop well-reasoned arguments that support pedagogical decisions. Also demonstrate appropriate level of proficiency in written and oral communication, critical thinking and analytical mathematical and scientific reasoning.

• Content Knowledge: Demonstrate an awareness and understanding of early childhood education in its multiple forms and settings, including the teaching profession, articulate a developing philosophy of education that incorporates an understanding of relevant theories and models of education and mastery of knowledge and skills in a chosen content area of academic concentration.

• Planning: Plan lessons and activities in early childhood education that are standards-based, clear and organized, rely upon a variety of developmentally appropriate instructional strategies and appropriate technologies, differentiate instruction in ways that provide opportunities to promote appreciation of diversity, tolerance, and inclusion in safe, democratic, and equitable learning environments.
• Assessment and B-2 Learning: Select, design, and implement authentic and appropriate formative and summative assessments to evaluate student learning, consider assessment data when making instructional decisions, and identify effective or problematic teaching and educational moments as they are occurring in order to facilitate student growth in specified content, cognitive skills, and/or social-emotional skills.

• Fieldwork: Successfully complete three fieldwork placements, a minimum of 80 hours and aligned with appropriate courses, in preparation for a fieldwork internship in an appropriate early childhood setting for a minimum of 8 weeks (the program's capstone practicum experience).

• Pedagogical Practice: Demonstrate the ability to maximize student learning by incorporating content and pedagogical content knowledge, appropriate and effective technology, and a variety of developmentally and contextually appropriate evidence-based instructional strategies to make learning meaningful for students.

• Information Literacy: Use technology and basic research techniques in order to locate, evaluate, and synthesize best-practices concepts in content knowledge, planning, assessment, and pedagogical practice.

• Professional Skills and Dispositions: Exhibit the knowledge, skills, and dispositions necessary to practice an ethically informed and self-reflective philosophy, participate effectively in institutional change, and develop respectful relationships with students, families, communities and colleagues.

• Culturally Responsive Practice and Social Justice: Understand and apply practices that promote respect, inclusion and equity in teaching, learning, and student development based on social identity markers including, but not limited to, race, gender, class, sexual orientation, disability, language, religion, culture, national origin, epistemology, and family life.

• Democratic Citizenship and Student Advocacy: Respect education as a human right and a foundation to active inclusion and participation in public life and aspire to be agents of change in response to persistent barriers to equal educational opportunity.

The Department of Educational Studies & Leadership offers psychological, sociological and philosophical foundations courses.
required by educational programs within the School of Education and across campus. Through its Educational Foundations Unit, students take courses that address issues of social difference in education (class, race, gender, etc.); values as they arise in education; political issues dealing with policy, ideology, and decision-making in education; historical, social and cultural perspectives relating to educational issues; and the psychological dimensions of teaching and learning.

The Department does not offer an undergraduate degree program but contributes foundational courses to the College's bachelor's degree programs in Adolescence Education, Early Childhood & Childhood Education, and Early Childhood Studies. In addition, we offer an interdisciplinary minor in Social Justice Educational Studies.

The Special Education program is grounded in the belief that all individuals possess intellectual, social, emotional and physical strengths that enable them to function in and contribute to their families and society as a whole. Our graduate programs in special education prepare compassionate teachers to recognize these strengths in each and every student and to help all students develop to their greatest ability. We value the philosophy of inclusive education and emphasize a strength-based approach toward working with students with disabilities. Please consult the Graduate Catalog for more information about master’s degree programs in special education.

At the undergraduate level, Special Education courses are available to teacher-education students as well as students with more general interest in the discipline. See Course Descriptions for a complete list.

School of Fine & Performing Arts

The School of Fine & Performing Arts comprises nationally accredited programs in Art and Art Education, Art History, Music, and Theatre Arts. We are committed to providing a significant range of opportunities to research, study, create, produce, perform, and present ideas and issues of the arts, so that students can explore how aesthetic experiences offer particular insights and ways of communicating in and about the world.

Undergraduate studies prepare students for graduate work and employment in many dynamic cultural professions. Graduate studies prepare students for college and university teaching and other professional careers in the arts. The academic programs of the School are complemented throughout the year by public presentations, performances, and exhibitions of the Samuel Dorsky Museum of Art. National conferences and competitions, workshops and public lectures by distinguished visiting artists enrich the stimulating academic environment.

In addition to a broad range of academic majors and minors housed within the School of Fine & Performing Arts, we support three interdisciplinary minors:

- Audio Engineering (p. 141) is a collaborative program of the Departments of Theatre Arts, Music and Digital Media & Journalism (College of Liberal Arts & Sciences). The minor focuses on contemporary audio and music production and provides students with knowledge and skills that directly support their artistic work and/or career goals in theatre, music, and media production.
- The minor in Digital Design & Fabrication (p. 160) combines Fine & Performing Arts’ expertise in design with the School of Science & Engineering’s expertise in materials science to introduce students to design theory, aesthetics, 3D modeling skills, and the study of material properties and constraints, while applying analytical approaches to problem solving.
- Film & Video Studies (p. 72), coordinated through the Departments of Art History and Digital Media & Journalism, offers students an opportunity to read the art of cinema as cultural critics, while having the option to learn the basics of screenwriting and production.

- Art (p. 132)
- Art Education (p. 139)
- Art History (p. 140)
- Audio Engineering (p. 141)
- Digital Design & Fabrication (p. 160)
- Film & Video Studies (p. 72)
- Music (p. 142)
- Theatre Arts (p. 146)

Freshman Applicants

Upon acceptance to the university, freshmen may declare Art as their major without submitting a portfolio. They are placed in the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Visual Arts major or the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) Visual Arts Education pre-major, depending on their area of interest. After completing the Art Department’s Foundations courses (typically one year), art majors will submit a portfolio of work for review by a faculty committee. In addition to evaluating artistic capabilities and the proficiency and promise of the work, students must meet departmental academic requirements1 to continue in the program.

Transfer Applicants

Transfer students must submit a portfolio along with their application to the university and meet departmental academic requirements as part of the admission process. Students are placed in the B.S. Visual Arts or the B.S. Visual Arts Education major, depending on their area of interest. Early submission of the transfer portfolio is strongly encouraged. Up to 12 credits for the equivalent of New Paltz Foundation courses (ARS100 Drawing: Visual Thinking I, ARS101 Drawing: Visual Thinking II, ARS102 Design: Color, ARS103 Design: Form) will be accepted on the basis of transcript alone. Credit for other studio courses beyond the Foundation sequence (and appropriate placement in our course sequences) shall be determined by portfolio review.

The Department of Art also offers a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Visual Arts. The B.A. degree plan requires more liberal-arts credits and fewer visual-arts credits than the B.S. plan and is often paired with a major in the School of Liberal Arts & Sciences as a double major.

Admission to the Bachelor of Fine Arts Programs

Art majors seeking to focus their studies on Ceramics, Metal, Painting, Printmaking, Photography, or Sculpture2 may wish to pursue a Bachelor of Fine Arts (B.F.A.) in any of these programs.

After completing the Foundation courses and basic studios in the medium, demonstrating artistic capabilities through a portfolio review, and meeting departmental academic requirements, Visual Arts majors and Visual Arts Education majors may apply to one of the above B.F.A. programs. Entrance is through portfolio and interview; the student applies directly to the specific program of interest.

For more information about admission requirements, please contact the Department of Art or visit our admissions page. Note that applications for fall admission are due by May 1 and applications for spring admission are due by December 1.

1 A minimum grade point average of 2.75 is required for admission to the art program; a minimum grade point average of 3.0 is required for admission to the art education program.
2 The Graphic Design program, now housed in the Department of Design, also leads to the B.F.A. degree. For information about portfolio requirements, please contact the Department of Design.

Majors in Visual Arts (BA, BS)

Students who are accepted into the Department of Art are enrolled in the Bachelor of Science (BS) in Visual Arts degree program. This degree allows great flexibility in the studio arts because the student may choose to concentrate their studies in one particular studio or pursue an interdisciplinary path. The BS degree, which requires an academic minor, provides an abundant breadth of knowledge while allowing the student to develop skills in multiple mediums. The balance of art classes to liberal art classes provides a well-rounded undergraduate education.

The Department of Art also offers a Bachelor of Arts (BA) in Visual Arts degree that is frequently used by those with a double major (e.g., psychology and art, art history and art). In addition to the Foundation core courses, students in the BA degree complete five studio classes and requisite art history classes. The student may concentrate in an individual discipline or take a range of studio classes. The objective of this curriculum is to provide a broad-based liberal arts education with a fundamental understanding of studio art practice.

Upon completion of the art foundation core and basic studio classes in a particular medium, students in the BA or BS program may choose to apply to one of the Bachelor of Fine Arts (BFA) degree programs. Entrance into a BFA program is by portfolio and interview; the student applies directly to the specific program of interest. For more information, see Majors in Fine Arts (p. 135).

A minimum grade of C or better is required for all major courses and transfer courses. A minimum grade of C- or better is required for Art History courses.

Art Education

Phone: (845) 257-3850

Location: Smiley Art Building Room 108-A
Web Address: www.newpaltz.edu/arted

Housed within the Department of Art, the Art Education program leads to a Bachelor of Science degree in Visual Arts Education. The program develops artist-teachers with a strong sense of artistic thinking and practice and an engagement with the diverse cultural contexts of young people, schools, and society.

In addition to core courses addressing pedagogy, historical, and contemporary issues in art education, and art making in a range of settings with diverse audiences, the Art Education program provides students with a rigorous concentration in studio art, courses in art history, art criticism, psychology, and the social and philosophical foundations of education in the United States. Students receive a minimum of 100 hours of fieldwork in art education settings prior to entering student teaching. Fieldwork settings include area schools and the Saturday Arts Lab.

Upon successful completion of the Art Education program, students are eligible for New York State initial certification to teach visual arts in public schools at all grade levels. (For detailed information about teacher certification, visit the Education Program & Certification Advisor page on the School of Education website.)

A minimum grade point average of 2.75 is required for admission to the Art Studio program, which is a prerequisite for the Art Education program. A minimum grade point average of 3.0 is required for admission to Art Education, and students must earn a grade of B- or better in all Art Education (ARE) courses.

Notice to Persons Who Have Prior Felony Convictions

State University of New York (SUNY) policy prohibits SUNY New Paltz admission applications from inquiring into an applicant’s prior criminal history. Students who have previously been convicted of a felony are advised that their prior criminal history may impede their ability to complete the requirements of certain academic programs and/or to meet the licensure requirements for certain professions, including the program in Visual Arts Education.

Individuals with prior criminal histories are advised to seek advice and guidance from the chair of the academic department regarding the impact of a criminal record on meeting the requirements of the major/professional licensure or certification prior to declaring the major.

Visual Arts Education (BS) Program Learning Outcomes

By the time they graduate, Art Education majors will be able to:

- Use knowledge of issues in contemporary art, design, teaching, and technology to develop meaningful art educational curricula and experiences for children, youth and families.
- Promote social inclusivity and critical thinking through practices that are culturally responsive, environmentally responsible, student-centered and standards-based in local and global contexts.
- Use appropriate information from diverse sources to support evidence-based teaching and assessment.
- Develop and articulate context-sensitive, self-reflective practice as researchers, artists, and teachers.
Major in Visual Arts Education (B.S.)

A grade of B- or better is required in all Art Education (ARE) courses.

- Participate in a strong professional learning community with faculty, colleagues, mentors and students in meaningful and supportive relationships.
- Build professional networks to support the practice of lifelong learning.

The Department of Art History is committed to providing students with a broad and varied understanding of world art traditions and to fostering an approach to interpreting art based on sound critical thinking, analytical skills, and an awareness of historical context. Since 1964, our Bachelor of Arts degree program has offered a wide variety of courses in the history of painting, sculpture, architecture, graphic and decorative arts, design, and photography. The breadth of our curriculum distinguishes it from many others, with course content encompassing art from prehistoric times to the present and covering nearly all areas of the world.

In addition to the B.A. Art History program, a minor in Art History is available, as is an Art History concentration within the Early Childhood & Childhood Education (B-6) and Early Childhood Studies (non-certification) programs. Students may also choose an interdisciplinary minor in Film & Video Studies, jointly coordinated by the Departments of Art History and Digital Media & Journalism.

Art History Honors Program

Art History majors pursuing a Bachelor of Arts degree are encouraged to apply for admission to the Art History Honors Program if they meet all the following criteria:

- a cumulative average in all course work at the university of 3.0 or above
- an average in Art History course work at the university of 3.5 or above, and
- completion of 21 or more credits in Art History.

Application must be made at the beginning of the last semester of the junior year.

Admission to the Honors Program will permit students to enroll in ARH461 Honors Thesis in Art History I and ARH462 Honors Thesis in Art History II (three credits each). Credit for ARH461 Honors Thesis in Art...
History I will not be allowed unless ARH462 Honors Thesis in Art History II is completed; only three of these six credits may be used toward completion of the 36-credit major.

Students admitted to the Honors Program will undertake independent study and write a thesis on a subject chosen by the student in consultation with the faculty, approved by the department chair, and supervised by the appropriate member of the faculty. Successful completion of the thesis — indicated by a grade of B+ or better in ARH461 Honors Thesis in Art History I and ARH462 Honors Thesis in Art History II — will result in the student graduating with honors in Art History, a distinction that will appear on the SUNY New Paltz transcript.

Questions regarding this Honors Program should be directed to the chair of the Department of Art History.

- Articulate the significance of images.

The Department of Music strives to educate students by providing a rigorous undergraduate core program in music within the liberal arts context. We aspire to promote integrated student learning through a diversity of offerings within the department and across the campus. Prospective students - majors and non-majors alike - will find a variety of liberal arts and professional courses as well as a full range of performing ensembles. We also offer an extensive series of on-campus concerts involving faculty members, guest performers, students, and student ensembles.

Undergraduate students may choose from several concentrations leading to the B.S. Music degree. The General Music concentration offers students an opportunity to sample our broad elective offerings in music genres and history, classical and jazz performance, recording and electronic music, music therapy, and composition, while the concentrations in Classical Performance, Clinical Musicianship, Composition, Jazz Performance, and Recording & Electronic Music attract students with specialized interests. All students majoring in Music are required to complete a minor or a second major in a subject other than music.

A Music minor is available for students who are passionate about music, performance or composition but choose to major in another field. Our program aims to broaden, as well as deepen, students’ understanding of the art of music by offering a selection of core music courses along with a flexible elective requirement.

See the Graduate Catalog for information about our acclaimed M.S. in Music Therapy program.

SUNY New Paltz is fully accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/theatre

The Department of Theatre Arts is dedicated to engaging New Paltz students in a dynamic, experiential, and diverse educational experience. The program offers students a unique combination of contemporary... theory and practice within the context of a broad-based and humanistic liberal arts tradition. The faculty of teachers, artists, and scholars provides students with models of excellence in our classrooms, on our stages, in major theatre centers in the United States, and in the global performing arts community.

The department offers a Bachelor of Arts degree with concentrations in Design & Technology, Performance, and Theatre Studies. Our program is grounded in the history, literature, theory, and applied practice of theatre, giving relevance and meaning to a student’s artistic endeavors. In addition, we offer General Education courses that present Theatre Arts as a humanistic endeavor within multiple historical and cultural landscapes.

Theatre Arts (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

By the time they graduate, Theatre Arts majors will:

- Articulate self-reflection and respond as a member of the local community and global society; continually evaluate and motivate one’s actions, connecting work as artists and as global citizens to sustainability in all of its forms—social, environmental, and economic.

- Be able to articulate the importance of storytelling to the arts, humanities, broader social development, and evolution of society through/ by connecting interdisciplinary studies from General Education and minor courses to their work as theatre artists.

- Demonstrate (in written, visual, aural and oral forms) an understanding of a play, musical, live performance or production in terms of its (local, national, global) social, political, cultural, aesthetic and historical context.

- Evaluate a theatrical work for its context and clearly articulate an understanding of that work through a discipline-specific interpretation or response—applying theatre practices and developing various techniques, skills and methods for creating works of live performance.

- Major in Theatre Arts (p. 147)
- Minor in Theatre Arts (p. 148)
- Audio Engineering (p. 141)

The Departments of Biology and Chemistry offer an interdisciplinary major in Biochemistry, leading to a Bachelor of Science degree. The Biochemistry program provides students with a firm foundation in both biology and chemistry, extensively utilizing course offerings from both departments.

Biochemistry is the scientific discipline that seeks to understand life at a very fundamental level. Students who are interested in the intersection of biology and chemistry will find our program provides a rigorous, hands-on experience and the opportunity to form intimate scholarly relationships with our faculty. A degree in Biochemistry is excellent preparation for further studies in other closely related fields such as pharmacology and health science or a variety of bachelor-level positions with laboratories, research facilities, private industry, chemical, pharmaceutical and biotech firms. Additionally, the unique interdisciplinary nature of our liberal arts degree also builds skills in problem-solving and critical thinking that can be applied to a much broader range of career options in biology, chemistry, veterinary science, patent law and beyond.

Biochemistry (BS) Program Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete the Biochemistry major will be able to:

- Apply quantitative reasoning and appropriate mathematics to describe or explain phenomena in the natural world.
- Demonstrate understanding of the process of scientific inquiry and explain how scientific knowledge is discovered and validated.
- Demonstrate knowledge of basic physical principles and their applications to the understanding of living systems.
- Demonstrate knowledge of how biomolecules contribute to the structure and function of cells.
- Apply understanding of principles of how molecular and cell assemblies, organs, and organisms develop structure and carry out function.
- Explain how organisms’ sense and control their internal environment and how they respond to external change.

Faculty

See Biology (p. 151) and Chemistry (p. 156) faculty lists.
The Biology program at New Paltz offers students excellent preparation for graduate school, medical school, or a career in industry or one of the many allied health fields. Our faculty-mentored research opportunities are unparalleled, and our modern, research-quality instrumentation enables students to pursue every interest from molecular signaling and environmental conservation to neurophysiology and animal behavior.

Within the Biology curriculum, students may choose one of five tracks, one leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree and four leading to a Bachelor of Science degree:

1. Biology (BA degree track)
2. Cellular Biology (BS degree track)
3. Environmental Biology (BS degree track)
4. Integrative Biology (BS degree track)
5. Organismal Biology (BS degree track)

We also offer a minor in Biology and contribute to the university's interdisciplinary minors in Environmental Science (p. 166), Environmental Studies (p. 70), and Evolutionary Studies (p. 71). The Departments of Biology and Chemistry collaborate to offer an interdisciplinary major in Biochemistry (p. 149) leading to a Bachelor of Science degree.

In addition to these programs, the Department of Biology offers the core Biology courses required for students interested in pursuing a pre-health/pre-medical program of study. Two accelerated medical programs with other institutions are currently in place:

1. a seven-year, dual-degree BS/Doctor of Optometry program with the SUNY College of Optometry and
2. a seven-year, dual-degree BS/Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine program with the New York College of Osteopathic Medicine.

For information about these programs, or for guidance related to medical, dental and veterinary school admission, please contact Dr. Debra Adair, Pre-Health Advisor (CSB 104; 845-257-2614; adaird@newpaltz.edu).

Chemistry

Location: Coykendall Science Building Room 105
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/chemistry

The Department of Chemistry offers undergraduate liberal arts programs leading to Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Bachelor of Science (BS) degrees in Chemistry. Within these programs, students may choose from three concentrations:

1. general chemistry
2. American Chemical Society (ACS)-approved chemistry, and
3. biochemistry emphasis.

The general chemistry and ACS-approved chemistry curricula share the same core courses that provide theoretical and hands-on education in the major areas of chemistry. Students are able to combine a general chemistry major with pre-law, business, or teaching programs. This concentration, with selected courses in biology, can prepare students for medical school entrance requirements. Preparation for a non-laboratory career in chemistry could include management or marketing courses offered by the Business program at New Paltz.

The American Chemical Society’s Committee on Professional Training includes New Paltz’s Department of Chemistry on its list of approved departments. This approval is equivalent to professional accreditation of the liberal arts curriculum. The ACS-approved curriculum builds on the general chemistry core and requires additional advanced courses. A student who obtains an ACS-approved degree is eligible for employment as a chemist in industry or government. The ACS-approved program also prepares students for graduate study and for professional training in medicine, dentistry, and veterinary medicine. Course offerings allow chemistry majors to obtain a broad background in several areas of chemistry.

The biochemistry emphasis is designed for the student interested in biochemistry or health-related sciences requiring a substantial background in chemistry. This program provides excellent preparation for health professional training, as well as for graduate study in clinical chemistry, physiology, and medicinal chemistry. Students take core courses in chemistry and biology and complete the year-long biochemistry sequence.

In addition to these major programs, a minor in Chemistry is available.

Prospective chemistry majors should consult with the department chair as soon as possible after admission to SUNY New Paltz and plan to take MAT251 Calculus I, CHE201 General Chemistry I and CHE211 General Chemistry I Lab in the fall semester of their freshman year.

The Departments of Chemistry and Biology also offer an interdisciplinary major in Biochemistry (p. 149) leading to a Bachelor of Science degree.

Minimum grade requirements:

- A minimum grade of C- is required to advance from CHE201 General Chemistry I to CHE202 General Chemistry II, from CHE202 General Chemistry II to CHE318 Organic Chemistry I, and from CHE318 Organic Chemistry I to CHE319 Organic Chemistry II.
- A minimum grade of C- in CHE319 Organic Chemistry II is required to enroll in BCM461 Biochemistry 1.
- A minimum grade of C- is required to advance from BIO201 General Biology I to BIO202 General Biology II and from BIO202 General Biology II to BIO320 Genetics.
- A minimum grade of C- in MAT251 Calculus I is required to enroll in MAT252 Calculus II and in PHY201 General Physics 1.

Chemistry (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

Students who successfully complete a degree in Chemistry will be able to:

- Demonstrate a qualitative understanding of both atomic and molecular structure including shell structure, chemical bonding and the shapes of molecules.
- Understand trends in the periodic table, such as size and reactivity.
- Apply their knowledge of the concepts of quantitative chemical analysis and its relationship to experimental measurements and analyze the associated experimental error from each measurement.
- Derive mathematical relationships that are used to explain the chemical and physical processes of both macroscopic and molecular systems.
- Gain understanding of the chemical and physical properties of biomolecules.
- Extend and apply knowledge learned from courses in chemistry to areas outside the field.
- Demonstrate experience in chemistry research, having worked with a faculty mentor.
- Demonstrate experience in and knowledge of modern chemical instrumentation and laboratory techniques.
- Perform experiments following standard and more open-ended protocols.
- Search and interpret articles from scientific journals.
- Develop proficiency at writing scientific reports and/or delivering oral presentations based on experimental results and/or scientific subjects.

- Major in Chemistry (General Degree) (p. 157)
- Chemistry (ACS approved curriculum) (p. 157)
- Chemistry (Biochemistry Emphasis) (p. 158)
- Minor in Chemistry (p. 158)

(A Master of Science degree is also available and described in detail in the Graduate Catalog.) At New Paltz, Computer Science majors learn all of the fundamentals needed to be a future self-learner. With small class sizes, personal attention from renowned scholars, and collaborations with industry, every computer science student has the opportunity to work with current technology in an environment where project work and skills development are emphasized. The major prepares students for graduate study or high-level professional employment in the computer and information technology industries. The Department also offers a minor in Computer Science that gives students the background to use the computer in other disciplines.

Supplementing the computer and information technology resources available throughout campus, the Department of Computer Science maintains several specialized computer laboratories. Computer science students use these resources and gain experience working with current hardware, operating systems, and programming languages.

A minimum grade of C- is required for any course to satisfy Computer Science major and minor requirements. Courses graded pass/fail may not be used to satisfy major or minor requirements.
Please note that some Computer Science courses have a prerequisite Math Placement Level (MPL). Consult Mathematics (p. 170) for information concerning MPLs.

Digital Design & Fabrication

Digital Design & Fabrication (DDF) represents a unique partnership between the Schools of Fine & Performing Arts and Science & Engineering aimed at preparing students to conceptualize and design for 21st-century manufacturing.

DDF programs combine Fine & Performing Arts’ expertise in design with Science & Engineering’s expertise in materials science to introduce students to design theory, aesthetics, 3D modeling skills, and material properties and constraints, while applying analytical approaches to problem solving. An undergraduate minor, described here, and a Master of Arts (MA) program, offer an interdisciplinary curriculum that encourages research and communication across fields to provide students with a foundation in design thinking for a modern world.

Computer-aided design classes are augmented with specialized courses covering computer programming and the use of open-source microprocessor boards, providing students with an understanding of the application and the technological aspects of emerging processes and materials. The minor culminates with a design course focused on the application of human-centered design for the manufacture of functional products that address real-world problems.

Student Learning Outcomes

Successful completion of the minor in Digital Design & Fabrication will enable students to:

- Develop proficiency in 3D CAD Modeling and the ability to apply those skills to design;
- Cultivate a knowledge of manufacturing and fabrication processes, both advanced and traditional, and the ability to blend the two;
- Understand the application of computational processes in art and design for developing new tools and systems, form finding, and a medium of expression;
- Develop a design methodology that uses adaptive and iterative problem-solving strategies to reach solutions throughout the design process;
- Implement novel technological solutions bridging the liminal space between digital and physical systems.

Minor in Digital Design & Fabrication

A grade of B- or better in CPS210 Computer Science I: Foundations is required to progress to CPS310 Computer Science II: Data Structures.
Computer, electrical and mechanical engineering continue to be growth areas due to rapidly changing technologies and expanding industrial needs. New Paltz's programs are designed to meet these needs, both generally and within the Mid-Hudson Valley, specifically. Each program includes a General Education experience, foundation coursework in math, science and engineering concepts, required core courses, and technical electives. Design is emphasized throughout the curriculum. These components ensure that students develop and refine discipline-specific knowledge and skills and engage in opportunities to apply their knowledge to engineering problems using the tools and techniques of modern engineering practice. The General Education component complements students’ engineering education and encourages them to understand engineering roles in a broader context.

The flexibility of the engineering curricula serves full- and part-time students, traditional and non-traditional students, and students new to engineering as well as those who have some experience in technical areas. Our students benefit from quality facilities, small classes and labs, close interaction with faculty with real-world experience, and opportunities for research and internships with industry partners. Students acquire the cultural, social, and communication skills that only a liberal arts college can provide and graduate fully prepared for the engineering profession of today and tomorrow.

Environmental Science is an interdisciplinary undergraduate program leading to a Bachelor of Science degree. The program is administered by the Department of Geology and focuses on the environmental aspects of geology, chemistry and biology. Through formal courses, laboratories, and research projects, students develop an awareness of the geological, chemical and biological processes that impact society and the environment. Both a major and a minor in Environmental Science are offered.

In the major program, a sophomore-level survey course, EGS370 Introduction to Environmental Science & Engineering, draws on the foundation courses to bring together a truly interdisciplinary view of environmental science. Students will see how the different sciences must be combined to understand and address environmental problems. Particular emphasis will be placed on the roles of chemistry, geology, and environmental engineering. In the senior year, students will engage in a full-year Senior Research Project under the supervision of a faculty mentor or an experienced regional scientist. During the spring term of the senior year, oral presentations of student research projects will be made in a Senior Seminar. This seminar will also feature guest scientists who will relate their own work in environmental science.

The EGS major program is a rigorous four-year sequence in science and mathematics, so it is essential that interested students seek advising early in their college studies. First-year students should take GLG201 Physical Geology and GLG211 Physical Geology Laboratory, CHE201 General Chemistry I and CHE211 General Chemistry I Lab, and MAT251 Calculus I in their first semester, followed by PHY201 General Physics I and PHY211 Physics I Laboratory, CHE202 General Chemistry II and CHE212 General Chemistry II Lab, and MAT252 Calculus II in their second semester.

Transfer students should complete the above first-year requirements before entering SUNY New Paltz and should additionally take one year of calculus-based physics, a course in statistics, a laboratory course in historical geology, and organic chemistry.

Students must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses required for the Environmental Science major or minor.

This information is provided as a resource for students to aid in selecting a major or degree track. Students should, however, obtain a current plan of study form and consult with an advisor before selecting a program or enrolling in coursework. Complete advising guidelines may be obtained from the Department of Geology or by consultation with the Director of the Environmental Science program, Prof. Shafiul Chowdhury (chowdhus@newpaltz.edu, (845) 257-2618).

Minor in Environmental Science

(22-24 credits)

This minor targets students with a primary interest in the physical sciences and an inclination to learn about environmental issues. Students completing this program will have made substantial progress toward fulfilling the requirements for majoring in Environmental Science, Chemistry or Geology.

It is strongly recommended that students consult with the director of the Environmental Science program, Prof. Shafiul Chowdhury (chowdhus@newpaltz.edu, (845) 257-2618).

Students must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses required for the Environmental Science minor.
The Department of Geology offers three undergraduate degree programs: Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Bachelor of Science (BS) programs in Geology and a BS degree program in Environmental Science. Through coursework, fieldwork, and research projects, students in all Geology programs develop an awareness of the geological processes that shape planet Earth and their impact on society and the environment. Furthermore, the BS degree in Geology is licensure qualifying: its coursework meets the education requirements for Professional Geologist licensure in New York State. For more information about eligibility for Professional Geologist licensure, visit the New York State Education Department’s Office of the Professions.

Two concentrations are available to students majoring in Geology. The general geology concentration is recommended for those contemplating graduate or professional work in geology. The environmental geoscience concentration offers a strong geology background with an environmental emphasis, suitable for environmental consulting or positions in environment-related governmental agencies. The Geology major is interdisciplinary and requires courses in geology and cognate areas. It is important that all students seek advising early so they can complete the major on time. Students are responsible for familiarizing themselves with the Geology program’s requirements, working out the details of their plan of study with their advisor’s aid and seeking the advisor’s approval of elective courses before taking the courses. Additional advising information is available in the department office.

Elementary education (B-6) and secondary education (7-12) concentrations in Earth Science are offered at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. In addition, an accelerated BA Geology/MAT Adolescence Education: Earth Science program enables students to earn two degrees and initial teaching certification in five years. The undergraduate B-6 and 7-12 Earth Science programs are described in the School of Education section of this catalog (p. 115). A minor in geology is available for those majoring in other fields.

Students must earn a grade of C- or better in all courses required for the geology major or minor.

1. The BS program in Environmental Science is an interdisciplinary major that emphasizes the environmental aspects of geology, chemistry and biology. The Environmental Science major is described in greater detail elsewhere in this catalog.
2. For any of the geology programs, first-year students should take GLG201 Physical Geology and GLG211 General Chemistry Laboratory in the fall semester, followed by GLG202 Historical Geology in the spring. CHE201 General Chemistry I and CHE211 General Chemistry I Lab, CHE202 General Chemistry II and CHE212 General Chemistry II Lab and MAT251 Calculus I should also be taken in the freshman year. It is also possible to begin the major in the sophomore year with proper advising. Transfer students should complete as many of the cognate requirements as possible before entering New Paltz. Ideally, one year each of college chemistry, physics, and calculus should be completed in addition to a one-year laboratory sequence in geology (physical and historical geology).
3. For non-majors interested in geology, or those considering a geology minor, the recommended sequence is GLG201 Physical Geology and GLG211 Physical Geology Laboratory, followed by GLG202 Historical Geology.

Honor’s Research

Honor’s Research is for students who wish to conduct a specialized research project at the undergraduate level. Students who plan on obtaining an M.A. or Ph.D. are advised to enroll in this course if they satisfy the prerequisites. Honor’s Research is a very good means of letting the student, as well as faculty at New Paltz and other schools, identify whether or not he or she is suited for graduate work.

In order to enroll in GLG491 Honor’s Research a student must maintain a cumulative average of at least 3.00 and be recommended by a geology faculty sponsor and the department chair. Guidelines for research projects are available in the department office and should be carefully read prior to meeting with the department chair to discuss the program.

Sigma Gamma Epsilon

Sigma Gamma Epsilon is the National Honor Society for the Earth Sciences. The Theta Beta Chapter was established at SUNY New Paltz by the students and faculty of the Department of Geology in 2012. Membership in SGE recognizes scholarship and professionalism in the Earth Sciences. Its objectives are the scholastic, scientific, and professional advancement of its members and the extension of relations of friendship and assistance among colleges and universities which are devoted to the advancement of the Earth Sciences. Any New Paltz student who has completed at least 10 units in Earth Science courses... and has maintained a minimum GPA (3.0 in GLG courses and 2.7 overall) is qualified for membership.

For more information, contact Chapter Advisor Dr. Frederick W. Vollmer at vollmerf@newpaltz.edu. (vollmerf@newpaltz.edu.)

The college also offers an interdisciplinary minor in Environmental Science (p. 166), described elsewhere in this catalog.

Mathematics

Phone: (845) 257-3532
Location: Faculty Office Building E-2
Web address: www.newpaltz.edu/math

The Department of Mathematics offers undergraduate majors in Math or BS and Adolescence Education: Mathematics (BA or BS) as well as Mathematics concentrations in Early Childhood & Childhood Education (BS) and Early Childhood Studies (BS). Also available is an accelerated BS Mathematics-MAT Adolescence Education: Mathematics program through which students may earn bachelor's and master's degrees in five years.

Graduates with the Mathematics major go on to do graduate work in mathematics and other fields requiring strong quantitative and reasoning skills. Those graduating from the Adolescence Education program have a depth of knowledge that underlies the courses they will teach. Early Childhood & Childhood Education majors go on to become mathematics specialists within the primary schools. (See Adolescence Education (p. 115) and Early Childhood & Childhood Education (p. 121) for details about these programs.) Minors in Mathematics and Applied Mathematics are also offered.

Those interested in any of these programs are invited to request a faculty advisor in the Department of Mathematics. Upon completion of MAT251 Calculus I or MAT252 Calculus II with a grade of B- or better, a student may declare the Mathematics or Adolescence Education: Mathematics major. To declare the Mathematics concentrations in Early Childhood & Childhood Education or Early Childhood Studies, students must complete MAT251 Calculus I or MAT260 Introduction to Proof with a grade of B- or better. A letter grade of at least C- is required to count a course toward any mathematics major or as a prerequisite for another mathematics course.

Math Placement Levels (MPLs): All incoming first-year students will receive a Math Placement Level (MPL) based on their ALEKS PPL assessment. All incoming transfer students will receive a Math Placement Level (MPL) as part of the admissions process. The transfer student MPL is determined by previously taken mathematics courses and, if applicable, standardized test scores including New York State Regents exams and SAT/ACT exams. Students will be notified of their MPL at their freshman or transfer orientation session. Math prerequisites are strictly enforced at SUNY New Paltz. Current students can raise their MPL by earning C- or better in the math courses listed. See the table below for more detailed information.

The Department of Physics & Astronomy offers majors and minors in both physics and astronomy, serves a variety of other majors in the sciences and education, and offers general education courses to a wide range of students.

The Physics major leads to a Bachelor of Arts (BA) or Bachelor of Science (BS) degree and provides a broad base of fundamentals while also giving students the opportunity to get specialized training. Two-semester introductory courses that survey physics, chemistry, and calculus are followed by courses covering classical and modern physics, computational physics, and applied mathematics, among other subjects. The capstone experience is a senior project. Interested students may pursue topics of special interest through independent study, working closely with an advisor to plan what’s best for each student's situation.

The 49-credit astronomy major leads to a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree. Astronomy is a field that captures the popular imagination. Many of us are eager to explore the science of stars, galaxies, and the solar system and to extend our understanding of the physical nature of the universe. The study of astronomy engages this natural curiosity about the cosmos while strengthening the student's scientific and technological literacy. Students have ample opportunity to study one or more other academic areas and may choose to declare a second major or a minor in a field that supports their career goals.

Astronomy (BA) Program Learning Outcomes
Students who successfully complete the Astronomy major will be able to:

- Demonstrate knowledge of night-sky astronomy, historical astronomy, solar-system astronomy, planetary astronomy, stellar astronomy, solar physics, high-energy astrophysics, interstellar medium, galactic astronomy, extragalactic astronomy, cosmology, relativistic astrophysics, astrobiology, exoplanets, observational astronomy, classical physics, electromagnetic theory, modern physics, optics.
- Demonstrate the following skills:
  - Understand and interpret graphical information.
  - Present scientific information graphically, orally and in writing
  - Use standard computational and analytical tools available to astronomers.
  - Solve problems using physics knowledge and mathematical methods.
  - Laboratory skills: Make measurements and collect data; independently design an experiment; independently analyze the results of an experiment; assess experimental error.
  - Astronomical observing skills: Plan observing session; operate telescopes; collect observational data; analyze typical astronomical data.
  - Use scientific software.
  - Operate standard planetarium equipment.
  - Synthesize materials from other courses.
  - Critically evaluate the science of stars, galaxies, our solar system, and major astronomical theories such as the Big Bang.

Physics (BA, BS) Program Learning Outcomes

General Studies

Phone: 845-257-3947
Locations: Old Main 127
Web address: https://newpaltz.edu/online/online-degrees/bgs/

The General Studies program is a flexible degree-completion program for individuals who have earned at least 60 college credits with a 2.5 GPA. The program can be completed through seated, hybrid, or fully online coursework. Students must earn a grade of C- or better for courses to count toward the General Studies major.

Designed for those whose original path to graduation was interrupted or redirected, this interdisciplinary Bachelor of Arts (BA) program provides an opportunity to resume college while also maximizing previous academic experience and credits earned. By exploring a few areas of inquiry, General Studies students build on their existing knowledge and expand their understanding in subjects of special interest.

For more information about the General Studies program, please contact:

Dr. Shala Mills
Associate Provost for Academic Planning & Learning Innovation
Offices: Old Main 127B and HAB 805B
Phone: 845-257-3550
E-mail: millss@newpaltz.edu

To apply to the General Studies program, and for information about admission as a transfer student, please visit the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

General Studies (BA) Program Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the General Studies program, students will be able to:

1. demonstrate substantive proficiency in three of the following seven areas:
   a. Literature & Writing
   b. Social Sciences
   c. Global Studies
   d. United States Studies
   e. Fine & Performing Arts
   f. Environmental Literacy
   g. General Business

2. demonstrate the ability to engage multiple perspectives;

3. access and evaluate information from a variety of sources;

4. apply knowledge and modes of inquiry across multiple disciplines;

5. create a new approach to a complex problem or question by synthesizing information through academic inquiry across multiple disciplines; and

6. communicate effectively in writing and in oral form.

With careful advisement, General Studies students structure their plan of study around three of the following seven focus areas, completing 15 credits in each (45 credits):

1. Literature & Writing: The Literature & Writing focus area develops students’ knowledge, skills, and appreciation of the written and spoken word. "Appreciation" here means attention to aesthetic questions of genre, form, and style. These will be primarily courses in which students read or write fiction, nonfiction, poetry, song, drama, literary criticism, journalism, and/or screenplays, but will also include courses that teach students how to analyze literature and other texts from a variety of theoretical perspectives. Although all courses in the department of English might count toward the focus area, "Literature and Writing" will also include courses from other departments that teach students how to write creatively and/or analyze literature.

2. Social Sciences: The social sciences include the many disciplines that use quantitative and qualitative methods of inquiry to understand the human condition, our histories, our cultures, and our institutions. This focus area includes most coursework associated with the departments of Anthropology, Asian Studies, Black Studies, Economics, Geography & Environmental Studies, History, Latin American & Caribbean Studies, Political Science and International Relations, Psychology, Sociology, and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies as well as many courses in the departments of Communication, Digital Media & Journalism, Philosophy, and Religious Studies.

3. Global Studies: The Global Studies focus area provides students with knowledge of the world, deepening their understanding of global issues, processes, and systems as well as world histories, arts, and culture. Coursework in this focus area spans a wide range of disciplines across all five academic colleges and includes the study of arts, humanities, languages, social sciences, natural sciences, and business from an international or world perspective.

4. United States Studies: The United States Studies focus area provides an interdisciplinary examination of the diverse experiences and cultures within the United States, emphasizing coursework from across many departments, including Art, Art History, Black Studies, Communication, English, History, Geography & Environmental Studies, Music, Political Science, Religious Studies, Theatre Arts, and Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies.

5. Fine & Performing Arts: The School of Fine & Performing Arts offers individual majors in Art and Art Education, Art History, Music, and Theater Arts. The Fine & Performing Arts focus area offers students the opportunity to explore coursework across all four of these areas of study to gain a broad and interdisciplinary knowledge of and appreciation for the visual and performing arts.

6. Environmental Literacy: The Environmental Literacy focus area prepares students with a foundation in ecological and socio-political knowledge enabling them to better understand sustainability issues of our day and to develop environmentally responsible attitudes and behaviors. Coursework draws from a wide array of disciplines exploring how we understand environmental sciences, how we explore ethical and business considerations related to the environment, how we communicate with one another about the environment, and how society evaluates and responds to environmental challenges.

7. General Business: While the undergraduate degree programs in the School of Business focus on specific areas of Business, including Accounting, Business Analytics, Finance, Marketing, or Management, the General Business focus area offers students an interdisciplinary opportunity to explore a broad-based selection of courses across multiple areas of business as they prepare themselves for their career goals. All BUS courses can count toward the General Business focus area as well courses in other disciplines where the focus of the course is related to business skills or functions (ex: business communication). NOTE: The General Business focus area of the General Studies major is NOT a Business degree and should not be confused with the BS General Business major. The BS General Business major is available for students who qualify for admission to the School of Business and for whom a business degree is essential.

To link their interdisciplinary studies with intellectual, career and life interests and goals, General Studies students prepare a portfolio of original works and reflective essays associated with each of their chosen focus areas. A recorded presentation of their portfolio will complete this one-credit capstone experience, BGS490 Senior Portfolio Project.

Academic Appeals & Appeal Procedure

The Committee on Academic Standing & Appeals is composed of seven faculty and non-voting ex officio representatives from the Office of Academic Advising & Center for Student Success and the Office of the Provost. The committee has the responsibility for hearing student appeals of alleged violations of academic policy and making recommendations to the Provost. A student may file a formal, written appeal before the committee only after attempting to resolve the appeal with the appropriate faculty or administrative persons. A grade appeal must be filed no later than one calendar year after the recording of the grade being appealed.

Appeal Procedure

The appeal system, which deals with inequitable application of academic policy, affords recourse to a student who has evidence, or believes that evidence exists, to show that an inappropriate grade has been assigned or other inappropriate formal academic action has been taken. For example, this may be a result of

- mechanical error,
- discrimination,
- a violation of published academic policy,
- allegation of academic dishonesty, or
- error in judging the quality of the student's work.

The following steps should be taken to initiate and process a grade appeal. Other kinds of academic appeals involving the application of academic policy must begin with the official whose decision the student is disputing. Whatever the nature of the case, it is imperative that the individual student recognizes the responsibility for taking the initiative in the appeal and for processing the appeal through each step of the procedure. It is the student’s choice whether or not to proceed to each step of the procedure.

Step 1 - The student must consult with the instructor concerning the problem. If a satisfactory resolution of the problem is not achieved and the student wishes to go to Step 2, the student must request a signed and dated acknowledgement of the consultation from the instructor. A handwritten note is sufficient.

Step 2 - The student must consult with the chair of the department offering the course or director of the office administering the policy. If a satisfactory resolution of the problem does not result from this consultation and the student wishes to go to Step 3, the student must request a signed and dated acknowledgement of the consultation from the chair. A handwritten note is sufficient.

Step 3 - The student must go to the Dean of the School or College offering the course or initiating the policy and arrange a meeting with the academic Dean. If no satisfactory resolution is achieved after consultation with the academic Dean, the student may initiate Step 4.

Step 4 - The student should forward to the Committee on Academic Standing & Appeals (academicstanding@newpaltz.edu) an explanatory cover letter and any pertinent documents in the student’s possession.

Step 5 - The Committee on Academic Standing & Appeals will review the material submitted by the student and will ordinarily request from the Dean additional relevant material available to the academic Dean. After due consideration of the issues, the committee will decide whether further action is justified and the nature of such action. The committee at this step may request a consultation with the student; consultation should not be considered routine. If the committee decides that no further action is justified, it will so inform the student in writing.

If the Committee on Academic Standing & Appeals deems that action other than denial of the appeal is justified, it may request consultations with any of the individuals involved in the appeal or may request any other information needed for clarification of the issues.
Step 6 - The Committee on Academic Standing & Appeals will recommend to the Provost such action as it deems appropriate to resolve the appeal. A copy of this recommendation will be forwarded to the student.

Step 7 - The Provost will have the ultimate authority in rendering a judgment in cases presented to him or her through the above process. The Provost may consult with whomever may be of assistance in arriving at a judicious decision. The Provost will inform the student in writing of the decision.

Students who have graduated must notify the Office of Records & Registration within one year of the official date of their graduation of any errors or pending changes in their academic record. Such changes must be in process by the time of this notification.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of honesty in their college work. Cheating, forgery, and plagiarism are serious violations of academic integrity. Students found guilty of any violation of academic integrity are subject to disciplinary action, up to and including expulsion.

Ignorance of the academic integrity policies does not constitute a defense. It is the student's responsibility to understand and to adhere to this policy.

Definitions

Cheating is defined as giving or obtaining information by improper means when meeting any academic requirements. The reuse for academic credit of the same work in more than one course without knowledge or consent of the instructor(s) is a form of cheating and is a serious violation of academic integrity.

Forgery is defined as the alteration of college forms, documents, or records, or the signing of such forms or documents by someone other than the proper designee.

Plagiarism is the representation, intentional or unintentional, of someone else’s words, ideas, or images as one’s own. Since works are the property of an author or publisher, plagiarizing is a form of larceny punishable by fine. When using another person’s words in a paper, students must place them within quotation marks or clearly set them off in the text and give appropriate citation. When students use only the ideas and change the words, they must clearly identify the source of the ideas with appropriate citation. Plagiarism, whether intentional or unintentional, is a violation of the property rights of the author plagiarized and of the implied assurance by the students when they hand in work that it is their own.

Course-based Integrity Violations

For course-based integrity violations, faculty members are responsible for

1. compiling appropriate evidence materials (the course syllabus, assignment, and evidence of the academic integrity violation) and
2. making the initial determination of the grade for the assignment and any additional academic penalty to be imposed based on the degree of severity of violation.

In general, academic penalties include reprimand, failure on the individual assignment, resubmission of the assignment, additional work for the course, or a failing grade in the course.

The grade for the assignment and the academic penalty are generally within the faculty member's decision-making purview. A penalty that includes potential failure for the course requires the review and approval of the divisional dean.

In any case in which a faculty member seeks to render a penalty that exceeds a reprimand the faculty member must inform the student in writing of the alleged violation and penalty. This communication should occur at the time that the graded assignment is returned to the students in the class. From the date that the assignment is returned to the class (or the student has been informed of the integrity violation), then a student charged with an integrity violation has ten (10) business days to appeal to the divisional dean.

If the faculty member seeks to impose a penalty that includes failure for the course, then the faculty member should consult with the department chair and dean prior to any communication with the student or otherwise inform the student that an additional academic penalty may be levied after consultation with the divisional dean.

No later than three (3) business days after notifying a student of any alleged course-based integrity violation, the faculty member must communicate in writing to the Department chair and divisional dean the nature of the violation, the penalty imposed, and provide copies of the evidence materials. After reviewing the materials submitted by the faculty member, the divisional dean will write a letter to the student that confirms the integrity violation and the penalty; this letter will be copied to the faculty member, the department chair, the director of Student Conduct & Community Standards, and the Provost. In those instances in which the penalty calls for failure in the course, the divisional dean will render the final decision as to whether course failure is warranted, and will communicate this decision in writing to the student, copying the faculty member, the department chair, the director of Student Conduct & Community Standards, and the Provost.

Per the procedure outlined in the undergraduate catalog, a student electing to appeal the divisional dean's decision has ten (10) business days from the date of the notification letter to submit an appeal to the Committee on Academic Standing & Appeals. Students with an open academic integrity case, in which the penalty has not been finalized, or students who have been assigned a failing grade in the course due to an integrity violation are not permitted to withdraw from the class. Students who have received a lesser penalty may still withdraw under the normal withdrawal policies and deadlines. Any graduate student who seeks to appeal a decision regarding a violation of academic integrity should follow the "Graduate Appeals Procedures" outlined in the "Graduate Academic Policies Handbook."

The director of Student Conduct & Community Standards will maintain a record of any violation, consistent with New York State policy.

Non-course Based Integrity Violations

Management of non-course based violations affecting a student's academic record or standing (for example, forgeries) is a separate policy, found in the Student Handbook.

Academic Warning, Probation and Dismissal

Students at New Paltz are expected to maintain satisfactory levels of academic achievement and to progress towards timely degree completion and graduation. Among the requirements for graduation, a student must attain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.0. Some majors and programs may require higher GPAs either for admission to the major (or program), for specific courses within the major, or to ensure adequate completion of the major. At the close of each semester the Office of Records & Registration processes all grades, and the student’s semester GPA and cumulative GPA are then used to determine whether the student is in good academic standing. A student who is not in good academic standing will be issued an academic warning, placed on academic probation, or dismissed from the university.

Criteria. The following criteria are used to assess a student’s academic standing. Although these criteria are applied automatically, any student subject to a first-time dismissal will be invited to appeal that determination to the Committee on Academic Standing and Appeals.

After completing the first semester of study, any student whose semester GPA

- is below a 1.0 is placed on academic probation;
- is between a 1.0 and 2.0 receives an academic warning.

Thereafter, a student whose semester GPA

- is below a 2.0 will receive an academic warning if the student’s cumulative GPA is at least a 2.0 or will be placed on academic probation if the cumulative GPA is between a 1.0 and 1.99;
- is at least a 2.0 and whose cumulative GPA is below a 2.0 will be placed on probation;
- is below a 2.0 and whose cumulative GPA falls below a 1.0 will be dismissed.

The table below summarizes the criteria for those who have completed at least a second semester of study.

At the end of any third consecutive semester on probation a student whose cumulative GPA is not at least a 2.0 will be dismissed.

The only grades used in determining academic warning, probation or dismissal are the grades earned in courses taken at New Paltz. Any notice of academic warning or probation will appear on a student’s unofficial transcript, as well as the student’s progress report. Only the notice of academic dismissal will appear on a student’s official transcript.

Notification. A notification of warning, probation, or dismissal will be sent to the student’s official New Paltz email address prior to the commencement of the next semester. Any communication of probation may also set forth conditions requisite to the continuation of study at New Paltz.

Appeals. Neither an academic warning nor an academic probation may be appealed. However, a student may appeal to reverse a first-time dismissal. Details regarding the appeals process will be communicated to the student by email. A student who is dismissed for a second time may not appeal.

Probation. As noted above, the Committee on Academic Standing and Appeals has the right to set forth conditions on a student’s probation. Students are encouraged to work with their advisors to devise an appropriate course load and to attain a balance between study and other activities.

Dismissal. The first time a student is dismissed they have the opportunity to appeal for reversal of the decision. Any student whose appeal is denied or who chooses not to appeal will not be allowed to return to the university for two full semesters. A summer session is not considered a full semester, and a dismissed student may not enroll in any classes during a summer session. For example, a dismissal following the spring semester means that the student will be required to remain out for the subsequent fall, spring, and summer semesters.

A student who is dismissed for a second time will not be permitted to reapply to New Paltz.

Readmission. To be considered for readmission, an academically dismissed student is required to complete at least 12 credits of academic course work at another institution, with at least a 2.75 GPA.

Students who are academically dismissed but who subsequently reapply for admission must meet the college-wide requirements in force at the time of readmission. Students academically dismissed from the University are also dismissed from their major(s). Upon readmission, students must re-declare their majors and must meet the major requirements (e.g., GPA) in effect at that time. Readmission to New Paltz does not necessarily guarantee clearance for enrollment and registration, financial aid, or student health services. These clearances are based on criteria other than academic standing, including but not limited to open accounts, proof of immunization, or other unresolved business with the university.

All required documents for readmission must be received in the Office of Undergraduate Admission by these dates:

- Fall Semester – April 1
- Spring Semester – November 1

There is no summer readmission.

The University reserves the right to alter due dates without prior notice.

For details about the readmission policy, please see Readmission to New Paltz (p. 190).

EOP students. Students who are admitted under the Educational Opportunity Program will be reviewed by the EOP Committee on Academic Standing. EOP students are subject to additional regulations relating to academic probation and dismissal. These regulations are outlined in the EOP Student Agreement Form, which EOP participants sign during their orientation sessions.

Access to Educational Records

Privacy Rights

SUNY New Paltz’s policy regarding the rights of privacy for students and their parents is guided by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). It limits access to individual students’ records to:

1. Presently or formerly enrolled students who may see their own records.
2. Selected university and government officials who need to know the information contained in a record in order to carry out their professional duties.

One exception to this is directory information. SUNY New Paltz may disclose directory information unless a student has restricted the release of this information. Directory information is information contained in an education record of a student typically released by colleges and universities nationwide. It includes, but is not limited to: name, mailing address, email address, major, dates of attendance, and degrees and awards received.

Currently enrolled students may withhold disclosure of directory information under FERPA. To withhold disclosure, students must login to my.newpaltz.edu and select “My.Directory Listing” from the menu under “My.Personal Records.” Students who opt to prevent disclosure of directory information should carefully consider the consequences of any decision made to withhold directory information. If a student opts out, the university will not release any information to non-institutional persons or organizations, including requests for verifications of attendance for insurance, employment or any other reason, without the express consent of the student.

Visit Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act for details regarding this policy.

Advanced Placement (AP)

The Advanced Placement (AP) program is administered by The College Board. The program consists of a series of college-level courses taught in selected high schools throughout the country. All are full-year courses, which culminate in the administration of a nationwide Advanced Placement Examination. Quality and standards are established by college faculty who serve as consultants in each program. The State University of New York’s policy requires that a student achieving a score of 3, 4 or 5 on any Advanced Placement Test receive credit at its institutions.

If a student desires to take a course for which AP credit has been granted, he/she may do so but will lose the AP credit that might have been given.

See the university’s Advanced Placement Course Equivalencies for courses that have been assigned equivalency at New Paltz. Any course not listed will be evaluated for the appropriate transfer equivalent.

Black Solidarity Day

Whereas, Black Solidarity Day is a national event that has taken place since 1969; and

Whereas, Black Solidarity Day has been celebrated at SUNY New Paltz since 1971; and

Whereas, approximately three hundred students participate in Black Solidarity Day each year; and

Whereas, this event is always the first Monday in November; therefore be it

Resolved, that it is required that no tests, quizzes, or graded material of any kind should be issued or due on Black Solidarity Day, and that students who are participating in Black Solidarity Day should notify their professors beforehand, and that these students will not be held accountable for absence on Black Solidarity Day.

Class Attendance

Attendance is expected at all classroom sessions. The taking of attendance and attendance requirements, such as the number of allowed absences in a course, are at the discretion of the individual instructor. Each student is responsible for all work presented in the classroom sessions of each course for which the student is registered. Students who absent themselves from class, therefore, do so at their own risk, and in determining a student’s grade, the instructor may consider absences.

College Level Exam Program (CLEP)

CLEP exams are offered by the College Board at test centers around the country. There are tests in many subject matter areas, but they are not connected to any preparatory course. Preparation for the tests is accomplished through independent study of texts and resources recommended by the Board. To learn more about the tests, contact CLEP at 800-257-9558 or 212-237-1331, or visit the CLEP website. The acceptable scores for CLEP examinations change over time. The university’s current minimum satisfactory scores in subject tests are listed below. (Note that these may differ from what appears on CLEP’s website. Note, too, that New Paltz does not honor the CLEP General Exams). Achievement of the minimum score will result in transcript credit for the equivalent course at New Paltz. CLEP tests may be taken at any time, except for the College Composition test, which must be taken prior to enrollment as a regularly admitted student.

1 Notes for use of CLEP in meeting GE 5 Communication - Written and Oral and GE4 Basic Communication requirements:

- CLEP scores must be received prior to matriculation – i.e., no later than the first day of classes of the student’s first semester at New Paltz.
• If a student receives a score of 60 or above on the College Composition CLEP exam, which includes a required essay, the student may earn 3 credits in ENG160 Composition I. Only the College Composition exam with essay can be considered; the CLEP General exams in English and the Composition Modular without an essay are not acceptable.

• ENG160 Composition I is the prerequisite for ENG170 Writing and Rhetoric, New Paltz’s GE 5 Communication - Written and Oral and GE4 Basic Communication course.

2 Note for use of CLEP in meeting Math requirements: Credits awarded for the courses shown may be applied as prerequisites to the next higher course.

Course Numbering

New Paltz course numbers consist of three letters followed by three numbers. The letters represent the department or program that offers the course; the numbers signify the course level. Students who have earned fewer than 30 credits are restricted to 100- and 200-level courses, except with the instructor’s permission.

• 0-99: Open to students requiring developmental support (non-credit learning).

• 100 level (100-199): Open to all undergraduate students.

• 200 level (200-299): Open to all undergraduate students.

• 300 level (300-399): Open to sophomores, juniors and seniors.

• 400 level (400-499): Open to sophomores, juniors and seniors.

• 500 level (500-599) and above: Open to graduate students. Qualified seniors may enroll in certain graduate courses with permission.

Credit by Exam

SUNY New Paltz offers its students opportunities to receive credit for college-level learning gained in advanced high school courses or independent reading and study.

Credits earned by examination are generally specific equivalent credits. That is, they represent the successful completion of a SUNY New Paltz course as defined in the policies regarding the Advanced Placement (AP) program, the International Baccalaureate (IB) program and the College-Level Examination Program (CLEP). A maximum of 30 credits may be earned this way.

The following general regulations apply:

• A student cannot take an examination that corresponds to, or stands as an equivalent to, or is at a level below a course in which he or she is enrolled or has already earned credit.

• Credit earned by examination may not be applied to the total residency credits required (30).

Dean’s List

Placement on the Dean’s List in any semester is reserved for full-time students who complete 12 or more credits with a semester grade point average of 3.30 or higher, and who have no incomplete, repeat, failing or UP (p. 192) grades for that semester.

Developmental Courses

Developmental courses are basic skills courses offered by the Center for Student Success, the Department of Mathematics, and the Haggerty English Language Program (HELP)1. Developmental courses offered by the university do not carry academic credit. Therefore, they do not count toward the total degree credits required for graduation, nor do they count toward class standing. They are, however, part of a student’s semester workload and will be counted toward eligibility for full-time status. Grades earned in developmental courses reflect the evaluation of the student’s performance in the course. These grades, however, are not computed in either the semester grade point average or the cumulative grade point average. A specific level of performance indicated by grades in such courses may be used as a prerequisite for higher-level courses or for demonstration of proficiency.

1 HELP courses offered "for academic purposes" (e.g., ESL141, ESL142, ESL143, ESL144) are not considered developmental. These courses carry academic credit and count toward the university's liberal arts and graduation requirements.

Dropping, Adding, or Withdrawing from Courses

Dropping, Adding, or Withdrawing From Courses are often sensible steps to take. However, because these actions can affect progress toward degree, student status, financial aid eligibility and a host of other factors, students should always consult with their advisor(s) and other relevant student-services staff before making a change to their schedule.

Dropping or adding courses until the end of the course change period is relatively easy. Specific dates are published in each semester’s Academic Calendar, but the official course change period is scheduled for the first five days of classes and may be done in person at Records & Registration or online. Dropping or adding a course does not require the written approval of the student’s faculty advisor, although first-semester freshman students need to consult with Academic Advising. Courses may be added, provided that space is available in the classes, as determined by registration information. Students are responsible for printing a copy of their new course schedule to confirm the changes were made.

Students may withdraw from a course for any reason up to approximately two weeks after the mid-point of the semester. (Specific deadlines are published in the Academic Calendar: see “Last day for Course Withdrawal.” Consult the Office of Records & Registration’s Course Withdrawal page for more information.) Note that students may not withdraw from INT175 Issues in the Education of Underrepresented College Students and that special permission is required for students to withdraw from BLK175 Issues in the Education of Underrepresented College Students and from ENG160 Composition I, ENG180 Composition II or their equivalents.

Prior to withdrawing from a course, students should consult Student Accounts regarding tuition liability and financial aid considerations. Course withdrawal requests must be initiated on or before the date designated in the Academic Calendar. Requests are processed online as follows:

1. Students go to my.newpaltz.edu, select “Registration” from the Resources list, then “Course Withdrawal.” They select the course from which they wish to withdraw and submit the request, which is forwarded to the instructor. Students will receive an email confirming submission.

2. After a course withdrawal request has been submitted, the instructor receives an email directing him/her to the link to the course withdrawal workflow. The instructor reviews the request and provides the student's last date of participation.

3. Advisor(s) review the course withdrawal request. (For Composition, EOP and SMP courses, an early review is incorporated into this process, consistent with College policy.)

4. The course withdrawal process is completed in Records & Registration. Students receive an email confirming their withdrawal from the course, and the $20 withdrawal fee is attached to the student's account.

No record of course enrollment will appear on the transcript if a course is dropped during the official course change period. After that, a grade of W will be recorded for approved withdrawals from courses. A student who never attends a course by the enrollment census deadline will be withdrawn following the enrollment census reporting date.

A student who stops attending class without following the above procedures will be considered “unofficially withdrawn” and will receive a grade of F* in the course. Late withdrawal from a course after the deadline is rarely permitted, and only for compelling, professionally certified, non-academic reasons, such as unforeseen medical or financial problems. Such requests for late course withdrawals will not be accepted after the semester or term has ended. The late course withdrawal process starts when the student submits a request to the Office of Records & Registration.

Requests for retroactive withdrawals from all courses in a semester or term must be filed no later than one calendar year after the end of the semester or summer/winter session in which the courses were taken. This process starts when the student submits a retroactive withdrawal request to the Office of Records & Registration.

Emergency Cancellations and Delays

See also: Office of Emergency Management’s Emergency Cancellations and Delays Policy

In-person classes will be cancelled or delayed only under extreme circumstances, such as severely inclement weather or other emergency situations. Students, faculty and staff have the ability to have emergency notifications sent to their cell phone.

In a situation where there is inclement weather, but classes are in session and offices are open, commuting students, faculty and staff must use their best judgment as to whether they feel comfortable traveling on the roadways. In these circumstances, it is up to the individual to decide whether to travel to campus. Because these circumstances occur only rarely, most professors are understanding of absences due to weather.

Faculty have the option to hold class meetings remotely in the event that in-person classes are cancelled. If they do meet remotely, they will not have to use makeup days later in the semester. This decision will be left to the discretion of the faculty member.

The University asks that students make an effort to notify professors of their planned absence and that faculty communicate their plans to their students.

The University asks that employees make an effort to notify supervisors of their planned absence and their intention to use leave credits, as appropriate, or perform their work from home in accordance with SUNY’s telecommuting policy.

When the University makes the decision to delay or cancel in-person classes due to severely inclement weather or other emergency situations, this does not apply to online classes. However, a faculty member teaching an online course from a physical classroom on campus will have the discretion to cancel the class.

Online class meetings will take place as originally scheduled unless otherwise noted. Faculty members who are unable to host online class meetings as scheduled are encouraged to notify students as quickly as possible upon making that determination.

Delay or Cancellation of In-Person Classes or Other On-Campus Activities

The decision to delay or cancel in-person classes is a collaborative process that involves Facilities Operations & Management, the president, and the provost.

There are many factors that are considered in this process, including the forecast from the National Weather Service, inclement weather in the immediate vicinity of the campus, local road conditions, and the ability to properly clear campus walkways and parking lots.

When in-person classes are delayed, all in-person classes on the affected day that begin before the delayed opening time will be cancelled. For example, if classes are delayed until 11 a.m., any classes scheduled to meet prior to 11 a.m. will be cancelled.

When in-person classes are cancelled or delayed, Facilities staff may not be able to keep up with snowfall or ice conditions to ensure all campus roadways and sidewalks are safe. Organizers of campus events should be aware of these conditions. It may be prudent for event organizers to cancel or postpone their events during severe weather. It is the responsibility of the event organizers to inform the campus community and any off-campus participants about any cancellation or postponement.

During and after a significant snowstorm, the University will prioritize major arterial roads for snow removal. This includes high-traffic walks and entrance ways, especially the ones that connect critical service areas such as University Police, the Health Center, the physical plant, residence halls, academic buildings and food service. Priority is also given to ADA walkways as directed by the Disability Resource Center. Secondary paths are given lower priority and are addressed as resources allow.

When the University indicates that offices will open at 9:15 or 10:45 a.m., this means the campus is not ready for faculty, staff or commuter arrival. We need time for our essential employees to prepare campus roadways, parking lots and sidewalks. Thank you in advance for your cooperation. If you have questions about delayed office openings, please contact Human Resources at x3171.

There is no exact science to predicting the weather. The conditions that each storm brings are unique. Some are more challenging than others to manage. We understand that it can be inconvenient at times for people’s schedules. Ultimately, individuals should use their own best judgment in making decisions related to winter weather and travel.
How We Communicate Delays and Cancellations

When the decision has been made to delay or cancel classes and/or delay office openings, the Office of Communication & Marketing will take the following steps to inform our community of that decision:

- Send an email announcement to all students, faculty and staff via their @newpaltz.edu addresses
- Send a text message (SMS) announcement to all students, faculty and staff via the NPAlert emergency communications system
- Update the campus homepage (newpaltz.edu)
- Record a message on the INFO phone line at (845) 257-INFO (4636)
- Send a text message (SMS) announcement to all students, faculty and staff via the NPAlert emergency communications system
- Update the campus homepage (newpaltz.edu)
- Record a message on the INFO phone line at (845) 257-INFO (4636)

These communications are the official sources of information on SUNY New Paltz delays and cancellations and supersede any other available public information.

The University must be mindful of the number of State-mandated contact hours necessary to earn academic credits.

Only the Governor may close New York State offices due to weather conditions. Because we are a state university, we follow New York State policies regarding office closings.

SUNY New Paltz’s president is authorized to suspend campus activities, but can give non-teaching professional staff or classified civil service personnel time off without charge to leave credits only in very limited circumstances, including:

- Delayed office openings
- If the Governor takes action to close our campus or, pursuant to contract provisions, if there is an approved early departure.

Fieldwork and Independent Study

Fieldwork courses are approved experiences by individual academic departments to enable students to enrich their academic program with applied work in their field of study. Independent study requires a student to pursue in depth a particular area of interest not covered in the regular curriculum. Both fieldwork and independent study projects require the written approval of the faculty sponsor, the departmental chair, and the dean of the appropriate college or school. Each college or school issues its own guidelines and the student should obtain these guidelines from the appropriate dean’s office.

Grade Point Average (GPA)

Semester and cumulative grade point averages (GPA), which are the basis for assessing students’ academic standing and eligibility to graduate, are derived as follows. Each credit graded “A” through “F” is given a corresponding numerical value called “quality points.” The following chart shows the quality points earned by one credit:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>
<th>Quality Points</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>4.0</td>
<tr>

Grade point averages are determined by dividing the credits graded “A” through “F” into the number of quality points those credits earned. The semester GPA includes just the credit and quality points of that semester. The cumulative GPA is based upon the totals for all semesters and summer sessions at New Paltz. Both computations exclude credits graded “S”, “S*” (Satisfactory), “R” (Repeat), “U”, “U*” (Unsatisfactory), and “P” (Pass). Credits and quality points earned at other institutions are also excluded. New Paltz grade point averages reflect only the averages earned in courses taken in residence at New Paltz.

The following is an example of a GPA calculation for a first-semester student:

3 credits, B+ = 9.99 total quality points (3 credits x 3.33 quality points)

College Algebra

3 credits, C = 5.01 total quality points (3 credits x 1.67 quality points)

The Modern World

4 credits, D = 4 total quality points (4 credits x 1.00 quality points)

General Biology 1 (3-credit lecture + 1-credit lab)
4 credits, A = 16 total quality points (4 credits x 4.00 quality points)

Piano 1

2 credits, A = 8 total quality points (2 credits x 4 quality points)

Total Credits For Semester = 16
Total Quality Points For Semester = 43
Semester GPA = 2.68 (43/16)

One strategy to raise a GPA is to repeat courses in which a low grade was earned. A student should pursue this strategy only if s/he expects to significantly improve the grade by repeating the course. According to the Grade Replacement Policy (p. 185), which automatically applies when a student takes a course a second time, only the second grade will contribute to the student's cumulative GPA.

In the example above, the first-semester student might consider retaking The Modern World if s/he felt that doing so would result in a higher grade. If the student repeated the course and earned a C+, for example, s/he would receive 5.32 additional quality points (the difference between a 4-credit "D" and a 4-credit "C+"), raising the GPA to 3.02 (48.32/16).

The GPA Projection Tool, located at my.newpaltz.edu under Advising, can help students determine what grades they need to earn to attain a certain GPA. Students may also contact the Academic Advising Center to discuss GPA projection.

Grade Replacement

See also: Grade Point Average (GPA) Policy (p. 184)
Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S*/U*) Grading Option (p. 192)

Repeating Courses

Certain courses may be repeated for degree credit (credit toward graduation); examples include some art courses, applied-music courses, selected topic courses (x93), fieldwork courses (x94), independent study (x95), and modular courses (x99). If a course is repeatable for credit, its description will indicate so.

For all other courses, including courses transferred as direct equivalents to New Paltz courses, degree credit can be earned only once. A student may, however, wish to repeat a course to meet a prerequisite, fulfill a major or degree requirement, or improve his or her GPA. The following restrictions on repeating a course apply.

- A course may be attempted no more than two times. An "attempt" means the student earned a grade of A-F, S/F, S*/U*, H, or R, or withdrew from the course (noted on the transcript as W). Simply put, if a student is registered for a course at the end of the Add/Drop period (typically ten days into the semester), the student is considered to have attempted the course regardless of his or her attendance, final grade, or subsequent course withdrawal.

- A student who has a compelling reason to attempt a course for a third time may present his or her case to the dean of the college or school that houses the course. If a student is permitted to take a course a third time, all grades earned for the course will be averaged.

- If a student successfully repeats a course that is equivalent to one for which transfer credit was awarded, credit for the New Paltz course will replace the transfer credit.

- If a student repeats more courses than the number for which grades can be replaced (see below), all grades earned for the additional repeated courses will be averaged in calculating the student’s GPA.

- Students receiving or interested in applying for financial aid should be aware that repeated courses may adversely affect their satisfactory progress. Check with the Office of Student Accounts for details.

Whenever a student takes a course a second time, the Grade Replacement Policy applies.

Grade Replacement Policy

- When a student takes a course a second time, both the first and second grades will appear on the transcript; however, only the second grade will contribute to the student's cumulative GPA - i.e., the second grade will replace the first in the GPA calculation.

- The number of grades that may be replaced in a student’s GPA calculation is limited and based on the student’s status at matriculation:
  - A student who began at New Paltz as a freshman or who entered New Paltz with fewer than 60 pre-matriculation transfer credits may replace four grades under the policy;
  - A student with 60 or more pre-matriculation transfer credits may replace two grades under the policy. [Policy revision effective Fall 2012, updated Fall 2014; clarification added Spring 2020]

- If a student repeats more courses than his or her grade-replacement limit allows (four or two, as noted above), all grades earned for the additional repeated courses will be averaged with all other grades in the student’s cumulative GPA.

- The Grade Replacement Policy does not apply to graduate courses or to courses that may be repeated for degree credit (e.g., selected topic courses (x93), independent study (x95), modular courses (x99), and most fieldwork (x94), practicum, and applied music courses). Grades in these courses may not be replaced.

- Except for F and F*, grades that do not carry "quality points" (S, S*/U*, W, H, R, or I*) cannot be replaced or averaged because they are not used for GPA calculation.

  - Thus, if a student elected the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S*/U*) Grading Option (p. 192) the first time a course was taken, the Grade Replacement Policy does not apply.

  - If a student selects the S*/U* Grading Option the second time a course is attempted, the grade of "S*" or "U*" will not replace the first grade in the cumulative GPA calculation. If the student subsequently elects to convert the S*/U* into a letter grade that carries quality points, that grade will fall under the grade replacement procedures described above.

The Grade Replacement Policy applies only to courses taken at New Paltz. Therefore, retaking a course at another institution and transferring it back to New Paltz does not affect the grade at New Paltz. Further, only credits, not grades, transfer.

1 I* (Permanent Incomplete) applies only to I-graded courses taken in a student’s last semester at New Paltz that are not needed to fulfill any college, curriculum, major, or minor requirement. I* is noted on a transcript after the student’s written request to convert the Incomplete to a permanent Incomplete is granted.
Grade Reports & Grade Changes

See also Academic Appeals and Appeal Procedure (p. 177)

Grade Reports

Grades are available to students through my.newpaltz.edu. Students with an institutional hold on their record may be unable to access their grades.

Grade Changes

Grades reported to the Office of Records & Registration may ordinarily be changed only if an error in computation or recording has been made. In such cases, the instructor must submit written certification of the error, along with department chair approval of the grade change, within 30 days after the beginning of the next semester. No changes will be accepted after the 30-day period, except with the written permission of the appropriate dean.

Students who think they have been graded incorrectly may follow the Academic Appeals process (p. 177).

When a question arises concerning a possible error in a grade reported by an instructor who is no longer on the faculty, the department chair and the appropriate academic dean assume joint responsibility for ascertaining the correct grade and authorizing any necessary changes.

Any correction to a student’s grading record must be initiated within a year of the end of the semester in question.

Graduation with Honors

SUNY New Paltz recognizes outstanding achievement of its graduates by awarding certain degrees with distinction. To be eligible for graduation with Latin Honors, a student must have completed a minimum of 45 graded credits in residence at New Paltz and have attained a New Paltz cumulative average of 3.30 or higher.

Students who have returned to the university after an absence of five or more years, and whose previous academic work disqualifies them for Latin Honors, may be eligible for "qualified" Latin Honors. In calculating their honors average, the academic work before their absence may be ignored if they have earned a 3.30 average in at least 45 graded credits since their readmission to New Paltz.

Both Latin Honors and "qualified" Latin Honors are based upon the following averages as calculated according to the methods described above:

- 3.30-3.59 - cum laude
- 3.60-3.79 - magna cum laude
- 3.80 and above - summa cum laude

Some academic departments and programs also grant "Departmental Honors" to their outstanding graduates. Students who receive this honor shall have it noted on their official transcripts.

Policy change effective for students graduating May 2020 and after.

Incomplete Grades

A grade of Incomplete ("I") is awarded at the discretion of the instructor and only when the student:

- has successfully completed at least three-quarters of the required work for a course;
- is prevented from completing the remaining work due to a personal emergency;
- formally requests an Incomplete ("I") by following the procedure outlined in this policy.

Keep in mind: Having obligations to make up a grade of Incomplete while carrying a full load of new courses can be almost like carrying an extra course. There are good and legitimate reasons for students to ask for and for faculty members to grant Incomplete grades, but the requests should be considered carefully by all involved. Students should not register again for the same course.

Before requesting a grade of Incomplete, students should discuss with the instructor exactly what work remains to be completed. An agreement in writing will protect the student, should the course instructor become unavailable when the incomplete work is due.

The maximum time allowed for completing the required course work is the mid-point of the following semester, though the faculty member may require completion prior to that point. (Refer to the Academic Calendar for the semester’s mid-point date.)

To confirm the student’s completion of the assigned work and replace the "I" grade, the instructor must submit a Grade Change Form. Otherwise, the student’s grade will automatically change to an "F" if the student is registered for that semester.

Extension request: The instructor may, at the student’s request, extend the completion deadline up to one additional semester by submitting an updated Grade Change Form. Records & Registration must receive the updated webform before the mid-point of the semester in which the incomplete work was originally due.

- The instructor may select a new deadline no later than the mid-point of the next semester.
- If the instructor does not specify a new deadline, an automatic extension to the end of the current semester will result (e.g., work originally due at the fall mid-point will be due at the end of the fall semester). In this situation, a second and final extension to the mid-point of the next semester is possible, by student request and with instructor submission of an updated Grade Change webform.

No extensions beyond the mid-point of the next semester will be granted. Failure to complete the work by that deadline will result in the student’s grade automatically changing to an "F" if the student is registered for courses that semester.

Permanent Incomplete (I*): Students may not graduate with an Incomplete (I) on their record. There is one exception to this rule. A student with an Incomplete in a course that is (a) taken in the student’s last semester at New Paltz and (b) not needed to fulfill any college, curriculum, major, or minor requirement may request a "permanent Incomplete" (I*). The request must be made in writing to the Office of Records & Registration. If granted, the permanent Incomplete can never be changed, but students may graduate with such a grade on their record.

Procedure for Requesting an Incomplete Grade

Reflects policy changes effective fall 2021; process updated 7/17/18, 1/31/19, 9/15/20.
International Baccalaureate

The International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma Programme is a rigorous pre-university course of studies, leading to examinations. Designed as a comprehensive two-year curriculum that allows its graduates to fulfill requirements of various national education systems, the diploma model is based on the pattern of no single country but incorporates the best elements of several.

A student with an International Baccalaureate Diploma is eligible to receive up to 30 college credits. Credit can only be awarded when an official score report has been received. Students must have a grade of five or higher in the Standard or Higher Level courses to be awarded IB credit.

See the College’s IB Course Equivalencies for International Baccalaureate subjects that have been assigned equivalency at New Paltz. Any course not listed will be evaluated for the appropriate transfer equivalent.

Leave of Absence

Leave of absence is permission to be away from the college temporarily, whether it is for medical, financial or personal reasons, including study at another educational institution. Students must file a Leave of Absence form with the Office of Records & Registration (WH 115), which will process the request. Students may be on leave for up to two consecutive semesters. Please visit Records & Registration’s website for information on how to initiate and return from a leave of absence.

Students who plan to take courses elsewhere during their leave must consult their academic advisor prior to leaving. Please refer to the Post- Matriculation Registration Procedure for more information.

Students who do not return after two semesters of separation will be automatically withdrawn from the university and will need to apply for readmission (p. 190) if they wish to return. (For more information about readmission, visit the Office of Undergraduate Admission’s website.)

Additional Information about Leave of Absence and Withdrawal

If a student requests a leave of absence or withdrawal from the College before the end of the second week of classes, the student will be deregistered without transcript notation. If the leave of absence or college withdrawal occurs after the second week of classes, the student will be withdrawn from all in-progress courses and a W will be listed on the transcript.

Students may request a leave or withdrawal until the last day of classes. (The exact deadline appears in the Academic Calendar for each semester.) Students who stop attending class(es) are considered "unofficially withdrawn" and will receive grades of F*. If this happens in all classes for the semester and they do not submit an official Leave of Absence or Withdrawal from College form, the student will be considered on an unofficial Leave of Absence.

Leave of absence and withdrawal may affect students’ financial obligations. Please contact the Office of Student Accounts with questions about liability (e.g., tuition, fees, room and board) and aid. The tuition refund policy may also be of interest.

Major/Minor Declaration and Related Procedures

See also Special Major and Degree Programs (p. 193) for information on Contract Majors and Liberal Studies.

Choosing and Declaring a Major

Each department at New Paltz sets its own policies for major declaration, including minimum credit thresholds, GPA minimums, prerequisite coursework, etc. (See Declaring a Major) While some students may be admitted directly into majors as first-year students, most students will complete at least three semesters before selecting and declaring a major.

The process of major declaration involves meeting with someone in the major department (often the chair) and reviewing a major plan of study. The department will complete the Declaration of Change webform and assign an advisor in the major department. Once the Declaration of Change is processed, students receive an email acknowledgement and the progress report will be updated to reflect the major and advisor.

Students will be expected to fulfill the major requirements that are in effect at the time they officially declare or redeclare (in the case of academic dismissal or removal from the major). Completing the process in a timely fashion is, therefore, important.

Students who have 60 or more credits in progress will not be permitted to register for additional credits unless they have a declared major. A pre-major is not valid after 60 credits are completed. New York State residents with 60 or more credits will not be eligible for New York’s Tuition Assistance Plan (TAP) until the major is declared. This policy applies to incoming transfer students as well as continuing students at New Paltz. Policy revision effective Fall 2015

Residency requirement for the major. Transfer credits may be applied to major requirements; however, one-half of the major must be completed at New Paltz. (For more information about transfer credits, please refer to the Transfer Credits policy (p. 194).)

Students who need help deciding on a major should seek assistance from the Career Resource Center and the Office of Academic Advising. The Undergraduate Catalog is also a helpful resource. Descriptions of all majors, major requirements, course descriptions and policies for declaring a major can be found in the Catalog. Many departments also have this information on their webpages.

Concentrations within Majors

A concentration or track provides a formal plan of study through which students may explore a subdiscipline or area of special focus within a major. Students who declare a concentration or track within a major must complete a set of required courses in addition to completing the core courses required for the standard major.

Double Majors

[Policy revision effective Fall 2017]

A student may major in more than one field. The following restrictions apply:

1. The student must designate a primary major and, for majors that lead to either a BA or a BS, the degree the student intends to pursue. All General Education and college-wide requirements must be completed. The second major need not be associated with the same degree type as the primary major.
2. All program requirements for both majors must be completed satisfactorily. In most cases, the student may find it necessary to complete more than the minimum 120 credits for graduation.
3. There must be at least 15 credits of difference in the coursework completed for the two majors. (This includes both major courses and required cognate courses.) Beyond the 15 credits not in common, all other courses may apply to both majors.
4. Upon completion of all requirements, the student will be granted one degree with two majors noted on the transcript.

1 Students should be fully aware of any financial aid implications before designating a primary major.
2 The primary difference between degrees relates to the number of liberal arts credits required: 90 for BA, 60 for BS, 30 for BFA.

Dual Degrees

A student may earn two degrees (BA, BS, BFA) simultaneously. Dual degrees will be awarded at the same time upon completion of all coursework for both degrees.

The following restrictions apply:

1. At least 15 credits of the major in the first degree must not be contained in the program plan of the major in the second degree (this includes both major courses and required cognate courses). Beyond the 15 major credits not in common, all other courses applied to the first degree may be applied to the second degree. Simply stated, there must be at minimum a 15-credit difference between the majors of the two degrees.
2. The student must complete the college-wide requirements associated with each degree. The primary difference between degrees relates to the number of liberal arts credits required (90 for a BA, 60 for a BS, and 30 for a BFA). However, majors in Engineering have been granted exceptions to their general education requirements. Engineering majors who wish to earn a second degree with a major in another field would be required to complete the general education requirements associated with the other degree.
3. Most importantly, the student must complete a minimum of 150 credits.

Second Bachelor’s Degree Candidates

[Policy revision effective Fall 2019]

Any applicant to New Paltz who has already completed a bachelor’s degree must apply as a transfer student following the procedures outlined for transfer students. The Director of Transfer Admission reviews and approves applications for a second degree. The criteria for admission as a second-degree candidate are as follows:

- The intended major of the second degree must require at least 15 credits that were not contained in the major of the first degree.
- Second-degree students are considered to have met the general education and writing intensive requirements.
- The student must complete a minimum of 30 second-degree credits at New Paltz.

It is the responsibility of the student to meet with the department chair of the intended major to review their academic program and the requirements remaining for their second degree.

When second-degree candidates have been formally admitted, they must file the Declaration of Major form and be assigned a faculty advisor in their major department. From that point on, the same procedures apply to second-degree students as to those who began their college study at New Paltz.

Minors

require students to minor in a field, but in most cases declaring a minor is optional. Minors typically involve between 18 and 25 credits, and can be a way of exploring an interest area in a less in-depth way than a major, or of organizing elective credits. To determine if a department offers a minor, consult the Undergraduate Catalog.

Students who wish to pursue a minor must contact the department offering the minor to submit the Declaration of Change webform. When the changes are processed, the student will receive an email acknowledgement and the change will be reflected on the progress report. At least half of the credits for the minor must not be contained within the program plan of the student’s major. (This includes major courses as well as required cognate courses.) Students will be expected to fulfill the minor requirements that are in effect at the time the minor is officially declared. Transfer credits may be applied to minor requirements; however, one-half of the minor must be completed at New Paltz. Students should consult the department regarding minimum grade requirements for courses used to fulfill the minor.

Use of the S*/U* Grading Option with Major/Minor Courses

Courses that have been elected satisfactory/unsatisfactory (S*/U*) will not be counted towards the major, the minor, the Education curricula, or the Engineering curricula unless the student requests that the S* or U* be changed to a regular letter grade. See the policy on S*/U* grading (p. 192) elsewhere in this catalog for details on how to implement this option.

Modulars

Modular courses are short courses of less than a semester in length and scheduled at various times. These courses are designed to supplement existing courses or to treat topics not found in the existing curriculum. Modular courses may be used for elective credit, and may be repeated for credit, provided that the topic of the course changes.

Non-Discrimination & Non-Harassment

The State University of New York at New Paltz values diversity of thought, expression, and experience and is committed to providing an employment and educational environment that models equity, inclusion and respectful exchange of ideas. The College recognizes that the creation or application of standards that adversely impact the equity of educational or employment opportunities, rights or benefits is detrimental to its vision.

Therefore, in compliance with federal and state laws, harassment and discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex, religion, age, disability, gender, pregnancy, gender identity, sexual orientation, predisposing genetic characteristics, marital status, veteran status, military status, domestic violence victim status, or ex-offender status is prohibited. Online Identity Verification Policy

The policies and procedures below are designed to comply with the Higher Education Opportunity Act, specifically Public Law 110-35, stipulating that accrediting agencies require postsecondary institutions that "offer distance education or correspondence education to have processes through which the institution establishes that the student who registers in a distance education or correspondence education course or program is the same student who participates in and completes the program and receives the academic credit."

SUNY New Paltz policies and procedures for addressing identity verification of online students is an integral part of its policies on academic integrity (p. 178). The New Paltz policy on academic integrity defines cheating, plagiarism, and forgery and delineates the consequences of violating the policy. Submitting another student’s work or having another individual complete assignments, assessment, or tests in either online or seated courses is a violation of the academic integrity policy.

The Office of Information Technology Services has been proactive in development of measures to ensure that our online learning environment is secure. First, all students taking courses through D2L Brightspace, our learning management system, have secure usernames and passwords. This follows the standards set by EDUCAUSE, the postsecondary instructional technology organization. In addition, challenge questions have been implemented that require that registered students, before they begin an online course, provide a question and answer for changing passwords and select among a choice of challenge questions for further identity confirmation. These identity markers are stored in databases and are used to verify identity.

All policies related to computer and internet access and usage at SUNY New Paltz are posted on Information Technology Services’ website, including the Acceptable Uses and Privacy Policy, which states: You are responsible for the safeguarding of your computer account. Your account and network connection are for your individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. You are responsible for all actions originating through your account or network connection. You must not misrepresent or conceal your identity in electronic messages and actions.

Progress Towards Degree

Students who are accumulating more than the minimum number of credits required to earn a degree (120) are expected to be taking courses required for graduation. The University reserves the right to refuse the registration of a student not complying with this expectation. (Policy change effective 11/1/06).

Degree Time Limitation: Students matriculated in a bachelor’s degree program at the University who fail to maintain enrollment for two (2) consecutive semesters are administratively withdrawn from the University and must apply and be accepted for readmission before they will be permitted to resume their studies.

In order to earn the degree, the student will be expected to meet:

- Major Requirements (p. 45)
- Degree requirements (p. 42)
- General Education requirements (p. 43)

If the student has been separated for 3 years (6 consecutive semesters) or less, the student may be admitted to the same major plan of study, degree program and General Education program in effect at the time of their separation from the University. However:

- If major requirements have changed since the student’s separation, the original plan of study may no longer be available. In some cases, amending the original plan of study is possible at the discretion of the appropriate department chair. If amendment is not possible, the student must declare a new major.
- If the original major is no longer offered, the student must declare a new major.
- If degree requirements have changed, exceptions and waivers may be made by the appropriate academic dean.

If the student has been separated for more than 3 years (6 consecutive semesters), the student must meet all of the major, degree and General Education requirements in effect at the time of readmission. Exceptions may be made at the discretion of the appropriate academic dean. (Policy change effective March 2009; procedural updates entered August 2019.)

Course Time Limitation: If an undergraduate has been gone for more than seven (7) years, all of the completed courses may not be honored. Exceptions to this may be made at the discretion of the appropriate academic dean. (Policy change effective March 2009.)

See also the policies on Leave of Absence (p. 187), Readmission (p. 190), Withdrawal from the College (p. 195) and Academic Warning, Probation & Dismissal (p. 179).

Readmission to New Paltz

Students matriculated for undergraduate degrees who have discontinued their attendance at the university for any reason (except those students on an approved, unexpired Leave of Absence) must submit an application for readmission to the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

Former students who believe they graduated but did not because of course deficiencies and/or failure to submit the proper graduation paperwork must apply for readmission.

Important Note: Prior enrollment as a matriculated student does not constitute automatic readmission nor does it guarantee entrance into the original major or fulfillment of any graduation or degree requirements.

Who is Eligible to Reapply?

- Students who have attended New Paltz for at least one semester.
- Students who have fulfilled all previous financial/judicial/health obligations to the university. (All holds must be resolved prior to applying for readmission.)
- Students must be in good overall academic standing (minimum 2.0 GPA). However, this does not guarantee entrance into either the university or a major.
- Students who have not attended the university for two consecutive semesters for any reason (except those granted a leave of absence).
- Students who have been out one full year from the time of academic dismissal.
To be considered for readmission, it is required that academically dismissed students successfully complete at least 12 credits of academic course work with at least a 2.75 GPA at another institution.

Application Requirements

- The application fee is $50 and non-refundable and non-transferable to another semester should the student not attend the semester they have been accepted to.
- Students must apply directly to a major. The undeclared/undecided category is not an option.
- If the student attended New Paltz under a different last name, please indicate that previous name on all documents submitted.
- Students must submit directly to the Office of Undergraduate Admission official transcripts of all college work taken since leaving New Paltz.

Important Note: If more than five (5) years has transpired since the student’s last attendance at New Paltz, the student must submit original educational documents as the university does not retain the educational records of non-graduates beyond five (5) years. If the student entered as a freshman, these would be the high school transcript and SAT/ACT scores; if the student entered as a transfer, it would be all previous college transcripts.

Application Deadlines

All required documents must be received in the Office of Undergraduate Admission by these dates:

- Fall: April 1
- Spring: November 1

There is no summer readmission.

1 The university reserves the right to alter due dates without prior notice.

Important Information for Art, Art Education, Music, and Theatre Arts Readmission Applicants

You must submit a new portfolio or participate in a new audition/interview in order to be considered for readmission. Contact the appropriate department for details.

The Readmission Decision

- All readmission decisions are made by the academic department of your intended major. Decisions will be made available on your applicant portal.
- Each application is evaluated according to the admission criteria the department has in place at the time of application. (Visit the Transfer Admission webpage for a list of majors with specific entrance requirements.)
- Acceptance for readmission is only valid for the semester you applied for. If you cannot attend, you must reapply for a future semester.

Students in Good Academic Standing

A student who has been separated for 3 years (6 consecutive semesters) or less may be admitted to the same major plan of study, degree program and General Education program in effect at the time of their separation from the university. However:

- If major requirements have changed since the student's separation, the original plan of study may no longer be available. In some cases, amending the original plan of study is possible at the discretion of the appropriate department chair. If amendment is not possible, the student must declare a new major.
- If the original major is no longer offered, the student must declare a new major.
- If degree requirements have changed, exceptions and waivers may be made by the appropriate academic dean.

A student who has been separated for more than 3 years (6 consecutive semesters) must meet all of the major, degree and General Education requirements in effect at the time of readmission. Exceptions may be made at the discretion of the appropriate academic dean.

Students who readmit to a new major will complete the major requirements in place at the time of readmission.

Academically Dismissed Students

Readmitted students are matriculated under the current catalog at the time of readmission and are, therefore, responsible for all university, SUNY, and academic major requirements in effect at the time of readmission.

Important Notes

- Students academically dismissed for a second time are not eligible for readmission.
- The university does not honor any requests for back dating of transcripts or diplomas.
- Readmission is required for all non-graduates regardless of the number of credits believed to be lacking in order to receive the undergraduate degree.

Questions?

For more information about readmission, please visit the Office of Undergraduate Admission's website.

Policy approved: Council of Deans, Spring 2009

Procedural updates entered August 2019

Registration for Non-Matriculated Undergraduates

Non-matriculated students wishing to enroll in undergraduate courses during the academic year may do so only on/after the non-matriculated student registration date noted in the schedule of classes and academic calendar.

Non-matriculated students may enroll in only two courses (maximum of eight credits) per semester.

Non-matriculated students can accumulate up to a maximum of 24 credits. Upon reaching 24 credits, non-matriculated students must apply for admission to the university in order to continue to enroll in courses.

Non-matriculated students must maintain a GPA of 2.0 or higher.
Religious Beliefs & Class Attendance

Throughout the academic year, many students and faculty will need to miss class or reschedule assignments, exams, practices, or other school commitments in order to observe religious holidays that fall on class or work days.

Students who will be taking time to observe these holidays should communicate with faculty, coaches, etc. as soon as possible regarding absences for religious observations and be prepared to discuss plans for making up missed work. Faculty will continue to respect the needs of our students and, in compliance with the New York State Education Law (Section 224-a), honor students’ requests for such rescheduling and collaborate with them to determine a path to make up missed work.

Faculty who plan to observe religious holidays on scheduled work days should communicate with their department chair and arrange for make-up sessions or alternative content delivery in order to preserve instructional time. (See the Faculty Handbook, Section 3: Instruction.)

This applies to all religious observances, specified or not specified on the academic calendar.

1 Staff absences for religious observance will also be accommodated. Professional and Classified staff are required to charge accruals for these absences. (Sick days cannot be used for this purpose.)

2 Section 224-a, “Students unable because of religious beliefs to register or attend classes on certain days,” states the following (see below):

1. No person shall be expelled from or be refused admission as a student to an institution of higher education for the reasons that he or she is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to register or attend classes or to participate in any examination, study or work requirements on a particular day or days.

2. Any student in an institution of higher education who is unable, because of his or her religious beliefs, to attend classes on a particular day or days shall, because of such absence on the particular day or days, be excused from any examination or any study or work requirements.

3. It shall be the responsibility of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to make available to each student who is absent from school, because of his or her religious beliefs, an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or to make up any examination, study or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days. No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to the said student such equivalent opportunity.

4. If registration, classes, examinations, study or work requirements are held on Friday after four o’clock post meridian or on Saturday, similar or makeup classes, examinations, study or work requirements or opportunity to register shall be made available on other days, where it is possible and practicable to do so. No special fees shall be charged to the student for these classes, examinations, study or work requirements or registration held on other days.

5. In effectuating the provisions of this section, it shall be the duty of the faculty and of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to exercise the fullest measure of good faith. No adverse or prejudicial effects shall result to any student because of his or her availing himself or herself of the provisions of this section.

6. Any student who is aggrieved by the alleged failure of any faculty or administrative officials to comply in good faith with the provisions of this section, shall be entitled to maintain an action or proceeding in the supreme court of the county in which such institution of higher education is located for the enforcement of his or her rights under this section.

a. It shall be the responsibility of the administrative officials of each institution of higher education to give written notice to students of their rights under this section, informing them that each student who is absent from school, because of his or her religious beliefs, must be given an equivalent opportunity to register for classes or make up any examination, study or work requirements which he or she may have missed because of such absence on any particular day or days.

No fees of any kind shall be charged by the institution for making available to such student such equivalent opportunity.

7. As used in this section, the term “institution of higher education” shall mean any institution of higher education, recognized and approved by the regents of the university of the state of New York, which provides a course of study leading to the granting of a post-secondary degree or diploma. Such term shall not include any institution which is operated, supervised or controlled by a church or by a religious or denominational organization whose educational programs are principally designed for the purpose of training ministers or other religious functionaries or for the purpose of propagating religious doctrines. As used in this section, the term “religious belief” shall mean beliefs associated with any corporation organized and operated exclusively for religious purposes, which is not disqualified for tax exemption under section 501 of the United States Code.

Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S*/U*) Grading Option

Students may utilize the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory (S*/U*) Grading Option for select courses during their undergraduate study; a number of important restrictions apply (listed below). Under the student-elected S/U option, the student’s grade for a course will be recorded on his or her transcript as S* (student-elected Satisfactory) or U* (student-elected Unsatisfactory). Neither grade will affect the student’s GPA.

Students elect the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory option under Registration · S/U Grading Option in my.newpaltz.edu. The course instructor is not informed that a course is being taken S*/U* and will submit the letter grade earned by the student. Letter grades of A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C- will convert to S* (Satisfactory) while grades of D+, D, D- and F will convert to U* (Unsatisfactory). S* grades count toward graduation; U* grades do not.

A student may request that an S* or U* be changed back to a regular letter grade, which will then be counted in the cumulative average and appear on the university record. Such a request will be honored if made within one calendar year after the semester in which the student earned the S* or U*, or before the student graduates, whichever period is shorter. [Policy revision effective Fall 2012.]

The following restrictions apply to the use of the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory Grading Option:

- Students who began at New Paltz as freshmen or who entered New Paltz with fewer than 60 transfer credits may select the S*/U* grading option four times during their undergraduate work. A student may use the S*/U* option for no more than one course (up to four credits) per semester and for no more than four courses (up to 12 credits) of undergraduate work at New Paltz.
- Students with 60 or more transfer credits may use the S*/U* grading option two times. [Policy revision effective Fall 2014.]
• Courses that have been elected Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory will not be counted toward General Education, Writing Intensive or Diversity requirements; the Education curricula, or the student's major or minor requirements, unless the student requests that the S* or U* be changed to a regular letter grade.

• The S*/U* option is not available for the following courses: ENG160 Composition I or ENG170 Writing and Rhetoric or their equivalents; independent study courses; and any course listed in the Undergraduate Catalog with an S*/U* restriction ("Students cannot elect the Satisfactory/Unsatisfactory grade option for this course"). Graduate students may not elect S*/U* for courses in their plans of study.

• The S*/U* option does not apply for W (withdrawal) grades.

• The deadline for choosing S*/U* is the last day of classes. Refer to the Academic Calendar for the exact date each semester.

• See also: Dean's List policy (p. 182).

Selected Topics Courses

Selected topics courses are regularly scheduled courses that focus on a particular topic of interest. Descriptions are printed in the Schedule of Classes each semester. Selected topics courses may be used as elective credit and may be repeated for credit, provided that the topic of the course changes.

Semester Workload

During the academic year, an average course load for undergraduate students is 15 credits per semester, which would allow for completion of 120 credits (the minimum requirement for a baccalaureate degree) in four years. Students typically may register for up to 19 credits in the fall and spring semesters. Consult the Office of Records & Registration for more information.

A semester workload of 12 credits is needed to maintain full-time status. The Offices of Student Financial Services, Residence Life, and Athletics, Wellness & Recreation, among others, require students to be full time to remain eligible for their services. Students who are considering dropping below 12 credits should consult with the appropriate offices about the impact of that action on their status.

Students may register for a combined maximum of 12 credits for all summer sessions and a maximum of 4 credits for Winter Session.

Special Major and Degree Programs

- Contract Majors (p. 193)
- Liberal Studies (p. 193)

Contract Majors

The purpose of the contract major is to enable highly motivated students to develop individual programs of study most appropriate to their particular academic interests. Contract majors should be considered only in those cases where students’ academic interests are substantially different to the point that they cannot be accommodated by an existing major program. A minimum GPA of 3.0 is normally expected.

A contract major is interdisciplinary in nature and may include regular courses, independent study, fieldwork, study at other institutions, and study overseas. Three faculty advisors from academic disciplines related to the contract major must sponsor the proposing student; no more than two may be from the same department. One will be designated as the student’s primary advisor.

Contract majors consist of at least 30 credits, of which at least 24 are upper-division (300/400-level) credits. Transfer credits may be applied to the contract major; however, at least half of the major credits must be earned at New Paltz. All other degree requirements (p. 42) must be completed.

Interested students should first consult a representative of the appropriate dean’s office to discuss the proposed contract major and the composition of the contract committee/advisors. Students seeking a contract major should ideally submit a proposal before the end of their sophomore year, or at the latest by the end of the first semester of their junior year.

The final proposal should consist of:

1. a completed “Declaration of Major/Contract Plan” form, which can be obtained from an advisor or the appropriate dean;

2. an essay describing the major, how it fits in with the student’s plans after graduation, and why a combination of majors/minors and electives won’t accomplish the same thing.

These materials must be submitted to the primary dean’s office for approval. The contract major will be assigned to the academic unit of the approving dean, who will forward all materials to Records & Registration to be kept on file for degree clearance.

Since the student’s progress report will not contain major-specific information, the student and advisors should keep copies of the submitted contract-major plan of study for registration planning.

Procedural revisions entered May 2019

Liberal Studies

The Bachelor of Liberal Studies program is designed for groups of mature learners with common interests that traditional majors may not fully address. A liberal arts core provides a firm foundation of general knowledge and skills, while a specialization requirement, which may be interdisciplinary in nature, adds depth and focus. For more information, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

Student Consumer Information Requirement

In compliance with both Federal and State laws, the university makes available to students or prospective students information about instructional programs, costs of attending the institution, financial assistance available to students, refund policy, qualification of faculty, graduation rates and placement of graduates. The Office of Institutional Research publishes a table of contents of these required disclosures, with direct links to items related to financial aid/student financial assistance, general institutional information, health and safety, and student outcomes.

The Division for Enrollment Management is also available to assist students or prospective students in obtaining information specified in the Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, Chapter II, Subchapter A, Part 53.
Transfer Credits

- SUNY New Paltz will accept a maximum of 70 credits from an accredited two-year college and a maximum of 90 credits from an accredited four-year college or university. (To learn more about the types of colleges from which New Paltz accepts credits, see Accredited Colleges or Transferring Your Credits.)
- A maximum of 15 non-liberal arts credits may be awarded for coursework taken within government agencies, industry, the Armed Services or other non-collegiate settings. A request for review of such coursework should be submitted to the Office of Undergraduate Admission, along with appropriate documentation (e.g., course/program syllabus; Joint Services Transcript, etc.).
- SUNY New Paltz does not award life-experience credit.
- Refer to our searchable College Course Equivalencies database to see how courses completed elsewhere may transfer toward your New Paltz degree. Credit awarded for successful completion of AP (p. 180), CLEP (p. 180), and IB (p. 187) examinations is included. (See also the Credit by Exam (p. 182) policy.)

"Seamless Transfer" within SUNY

- Students with a SUNY A.A. or A.S. degree who are accepted into a parallel baccalaureate program at New Paltz and who have successfully completed SUNY’s General Education program and the appropriate transfer-path courses benefit from SUNY’s transfer-friendly policies. Such students will be afforded true junior standing and the opportunity to complete the requirements for a bachelor’s degree within four additional semesters of full-time study or the equivalent.
- SUNY A.A./A.S. degree holders who have completed SUNY’s minimum General Education requirement do not need to take additional courses to satisfy New Paltz’s General Education program.
- SUNY A.S. Engineering Science degree holders who completed a reduced General Education program will complete SUNY’s minimum GE requirement at New Paltz as part of their B.S. Engineering degree program.
- Transfer of credit for SUNY General Education courses is guaranteed if a course is successfully completed with a grade of C or above.
- SUNY transfer-path courses are guaranteed to transfer as courses in the major or as required cognates if completed with a grade of C or better. (Note that courses with a grade of C- may be eligible for transfer toward the major or required cognates, at the discretion of the appropriate academic department.)
- Courses other than transfer-path and SUNY General Education courses may be eligible for transfer credit toward the major with a grade of C- or better, at the discretion of the academic department concerned.

Pre-matriculation transfer credits:
Submit transcripts and score reports

All newly matriculated students (freshmen and transfers) must submit to the Office of Undergraduate Admission all final, official college transcripts, AP exam scores, IB exam scores, CLEP exam scores, and other pertinent collegiate coursework no later than the first day of classes of the first semester at SUNY New Paltz. Delay in submitting pre-matriculation transfer credits can have a negative impact on course planning and financial aid.

If you have questions about transferring pre-matriculation credit, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admission.

Post-matriculation transfer credits:
Registering for courses elsewhere

This policy applies when a student who has matriculated at New Paltz earns credit at another college with the intention of transferring the credit to New Paltz. Matriculated students should consult their advisor before taking a course elsewhere to avoid problems with credit acceptance and financial aid.

Two pathways exist for earning post-matriculation transfer credit:

- The post-matriculation registration process is for students who wish to take a course at a non-SUNY college.
- The cross-registration process is for students who wish to take a course at another SUNY college. Cross registration must be approved by the Office of Records & Registration by the start date of classes at New Paltz.

Regardless of pathway, the student should consult with the appropriate office to determine the impact of taking courses at other institutions on financial aid, repeat course limits and maximum transfer-credit allowances (70 credits from an accredited two-year college and 90 credits from an accredited four-year college or university).

If you have questions about transferring post-matriculated credit, please contact the Office of Records & Registration.

Visiting Students
Who is a visiting student and in what may they enroll?

- Undergraduate students who are matriculated at another college and wish to take courses at SUNY New Paltz during the regular academic year are considered visiting students.
- Visiting students remain matriculated at their home institution and are considered non-matriculated at SUNY New Paltz.
- Visiting students may take courses based upon availability and sometimes require specific departments’ permission to enroll.
- Visiting students are prohibited from enrolling in internship, fieldwork or practicum courses.
- Visiting students may take up to one academic year of courses at SUNY New Paltz.

General visiting student criteria:

- You must have a minimum 2.0 GPA at your home institution for consideration.
- You must not be on academic probation, academic warning or academic suspension at your home institution.
- You must not be on disciplinary probation or suspension at your home institution.

Required Application Documentation

- Your application must be signed by your advisor (from your home institution) indicating approval of all courses in which you wish to enroll at SUNY New Paltz and providing signed proof of your good academic and disciplinary standing.

• Submit an unofficial or official transcript from your home institution.

Application and Required Documents Due Date(s)

• Fall and Spring - The complete application must be received and approved prior to the date for non-matriculated and visiting students noted in the Academic Calendar.

• Winter and Summer Sessions - SUNY New Paltz does not process visiting student applications for the winter and summer sessions as those sessions are open to the general public, provided certain basic requirements and course prerequisites are met.

SUNY New Paltz reserves the right to change application due dates without notice.

Approval, Registration and Financial Aid

Your application will be received by Records & Registration. If the application is incomplete, its processing will be delayed.

You will be notified of the enrollment decision by email.

If your application is approved:

• You will receive login information for the my.newpaltz.edu student portal.

• You may register for courses, on a space-available basis, only during the registration period for non-matriculated and visiting students noted on the Academic Calendar.

• You must document, by transcript, that you have met any and all course prerequisites and will need electronic permission to register for courses with restrictions.

• Upon course registration, you will receive an invoice from the Office of Student Accounts with a payment due date. Failure to abide by this date will result in course de-registration.

• If you are receiving financial aid (including loans) from your home institution, you are responsible for making arrangements with your home institution to ensure the continuation of financial aid.

Please note: Since non-matriculated and visiting students are the last cohort to be registered, it is possible that there will not be available seats once registration is processed. Please plan accordingly.

Withdrawal from the University

Withdrawal from the University reflects a student's intent to sever all affiliations with the SUNY New Paltz and to terminate matriculation. Students must file a Withdrawal from the University form with the Office of Records & Registration (WH 115), which will process the withdrawal request. Students who are withdrawn from the university are blocked from taking any courses at New Paltz and must apply for readmission (p. 190) should they subsequently decide to return. (For more information about readmission, visit the Office of Undergraduate Admission's website.)

Withdrawal from the University differs from a Leave of Absence (p. 187), and students are advised to consult their advisors, financial aid officers, health providers, or other trusted individuals to discuss the pros and cons of each. Additional information appears below. Guidance is also available from the Office of Records & Registration.

Note that students who do not register for more than two consecutive fall/spring semesters will be automatically withdrawn from the university.

Additional Information about Withdrawal and Leave of Absence

If a student requests a withdrawal or leave of absence from the university before the end of the second week of classes, the student will be deregistered without transcript notation. If the university withdrawal or leave of absence occurs after the second week of classes, the student will be withdrawn from all in-progress courses and a W will be listed on the transcript.

Students may request a withdrawal or leave until the last day of classes. (The exact deadline appears in the Academic Calendar for each semester.) Students who stop attending class(es) are considered "unofficially withdrawn" and will receive grades of F*. If this happens in all classes for the semester and they do not submit an official Leave of Absence or Withdrawal from the University form, the student will be considered on an unofficial Leave of Absence.

Withdrawal and leave of absence may affect students’ financial obligations. Please contact the Office of Student Accounts with questions about liability (e.g., tuition, fees, room and board) and aid. The tuition refund policy may also be of interest.

Other Important Information

• Visiting students may enroll in courses for a maximum of two semesters. After two semesters they must apply for transfer admission.

• Visiting students must attain a minimum 2.0 GPA or they will be ineligible to register for further courses at SUNY New Paltz.

• On-campus housing is not available.

Study Abroad Program

• Students who are matriculated at another institution and wish to participate in the SUNY New Paltz Study Abroad program are considered visiting students.

• Study Abroad applications can be found at New Paltz Study Abroad.
